

SOCIAL NOTES

Friends of Mrs. John L. Aasen, of North Bend, gathered at the Frank Thrift home Monday for potluck luncheon and bridge. A good share of the afternoon's fun was contributed by the number of prizes awarded various members of the party. Mrs. Fred McNelly won a prize for holding the average score. Mrs. Harold Ziegler was high and Mrs. U. E. McClary, second. Mrs. Ed McKeown's prize was won for going set the greatest number of times. Mrs. Aasen received a guest prize and Mrs. H. W. Pierce drew the door prize. Those present were Mesdames George Johnson, John L. Aasen, of North Bend, Frank Thrift, H. W. Pierce, T. B. Currie, Harold Ziegler, E. E. Leslie, U. E. McClary, Phil Bourns, Fred McNelly, H. S. Norton, Ed McKeown, W. E. Bosserman, A. B. Collier, R. E. Boober and Don McCune.

A chicken dinner, complete with all the fixings, was the treat Thursday noon at the Sam Briggs' home, when Mr. Briggs invited friends to come and share his birthday feast. Members of the party included Messrs. and Mesdames F. Timmons, Sam Briggs, Mesdames Florence Denoma, Velorous Call, Emma McNelly, W. S. Holcomb and Mr. John Denoma.

Mrs. LeRoy Swinney entertained her card club Friday evening for dessert and bridge. Refreshments were served at the card tables, which were pleasantly decorated with dainty bouquets of apple blossoms. The dessert followed the hostess' general color scheme of pale green and a pastel pink. Mrs. Ray Detlefsen won first prize, Mrs. John Norton, second, and Mrs. Irving Larson, consolation. Mrs. Larson was a guest. Members present were Mesdames Ray Detlefsen, Arlin Elliott, John Norton, Harold Stevens, Tom Stevens, LeRoy Swinney and Dennis Wagner.

The Three Links club of the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges of Coquille are giving a card party Saturday evening, April 5th, at 8:00 o'clock. It will consist of pinochle, cribbage, bridge and chinese checkers and there will be first and second prizes awarded the winners of each of these games. A door prize will be given to the one holding the lucky ticket. Refreshments will be served. Admission 25c per person. Come, get acquainted; a good time assured for all. Playing starts at 8:00 o'clock sharp.

Members of the Ace of Clubs drove to Myrtle Point Thursday for a pinochle luncheon given by Mrs. A. L. Powrie. Tallies and favors carried the Easter theme. Mrs. Powrie used trilliums and lilacs to make effective floral arrangements about the rooms. High score prizes was captured by Miss Grace McKibben. Mrs. Chas. Mansell drew the door prize and was awarded consolation. To Mrs. F. J. McKibben went the traveling prize. Mrs. D. G. Ireland was a guest. Members present were Mesdames Orville Hughes, A. A. Kyle, Lyle Knox, F. J. McKibben, Charles Mansell, Ernest Whereat, L. F. Hatcher, A. L. Powrie, A. S. Wells, Charles Lewis and Miss Grace McKibben.

Mrs. Gene Cole entertained her Bridge club at one o'clock luncheon Thursday. Mrs. Al Burch was the afternoon's high-scoring player. Members present were Mesdames Bill Buell, Frank Dungey, Mae Ensele, Al Burch, Morris Morrott and Gene Cole.

Members of the younger set were entertained Saturday evening at a birthday party for Jean Griggs. After a few games, the young people spent the balance of the evening dancing. Before the party ended, everyone sampled Jean's birthday cake, which was accompanied with punch and ice cream. Those present were the Misses Phyllis Litzberger, Shirley Slater, Diana Powers, Gwen Elrod, Donna Rankin, Jean Griggs and Messrs. Jack Axtell, Jack Stevens, Caire Gray, Jr., Marion Denzer and Herbert Allen.

Mrs. Clyde Minard was last week's hostess for the Friday Pinochle club, which she entertained at one o'clock luncheon. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Leland Peart, high; Mrs. Walter Paulson, consolation; Mrs. Ted Snyder, traveling, and Mrs. Don Gillespie, guest prize. Those present were Mesdames Jay Carter, D. G. Ireland, Clyde Minard, Elton Savage, Ted Snyder, Leland Peart, Walter Paulson and Don Gillespie.

Pictures were taken Monday afternoon of the youngsters who joined Dale Ellingson, in celebrating his third birthday at a party given by his mother, Mrs. Denton Ellingson. The popping of pink and blue balloons punctuated the children's excitement as they played. Besides sharing Dale's big pink and blue frosted birthday cake, the youngsters each had a tiny birthday cake complete with candles. Mothers and children at the party were Mesdames Marion Clayton, John and Paul; Cedric Cross and Russell; Levi Wilson and Gerald; Harold Stevens, Hal and Bill-Jim; Arthur Ellingson, with her grandson, Dale and Dorene.

Mrs. W. E. Bosserman picked the season's first tulips from her garden Tuesday to use them for a centerpiece when she entertained at a dessert sewing party for Mrs. John L. Aasen, of North Bend. The tulips were a deep red and, combined with spiraea, they made a lovely picture when they were arranged in a Fostoria bowl. Guests during the afternoon were Mesdames Earl Nosler, Harold Ziegler, Don McCune, Frank Thrift, A. B. Collier, John L. Aasen and the hostess, Mrs. W. E. Bosserman.

Contract club members were entertained Thursday for luncheon at the Coquille Hotel by Mrs. F. S. Emery. After luncheon the group, which included Mesdames R. F. Milne, R. E. Boober, George Chaney, Lufe Compton, F. S. Emery, F. L. Greenough, R. L. Stewart and R. A. Wernich, went to the Emery home for bridge.

Mrs. Robert Clark, nee Maxine Gant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mac Gant, was the guest of honor Thursday at the regular meeting of the Co-Workers club. Meeting at the home of Mrs. James McGuffin, with Mrs. Mac Gant acting as hostess, club members enjoyed a potluck dinner. Mrs. Clark, who was married at Bremerton, Washington, six weeks ago, was given a miscellaneous bridal shower. The group sewed during the afternoon. Those present were Mesdames Elizabeth Oden, Shaw, Tom Tomalson, of Tionesta, California, Jim Childs, Homer Detwiler, Louis Detwiler, C. H. Dondono, James McGuffin, Frank McNair, John McNair, Lou Smith, Robert Clark and Mac Gant.

A birthday party was given at the Geo. Binder home last Sunday with a pot luck dinner in honor of three whose birthdays happened within a few days of one another—Mr. Binder, Miss Louise Crumley and A. J. Mayse. Besides the guests of honor those who enjoyed the very happy occasion were Mrs. A. J. Mayse, Joe Tadlock, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Neal, Mr. and Mrs. James Brockman, Mr. and Mrs. Don Carver, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Krantz, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mulkey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCrary and W. A. Hoover.

Mrs. Mary Meagher celebrated her 77th birthday at a dinner party Saturday evening given by her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Walker. Members of the party were Messrs. and Mesdames O. H. Gant, E. A. Walker and Miss Rheo Walker.

Rolph's Farewell Was Inspiring

In its story about the departure of the U. of O. basketball team last Thursday for Honolulu by way of San Francisco, the Daily Emerald, student publication at Eugene, carried the following paragraph about Coquille's Rolph Fuhrman, one of the mainstays of Spike Leslie's Red Devils a couple of years ago:

Fuhrman is Romeo
Rolph Fuhrman, unassuming sophomore forward, earned the monicker "Romeo" as four vivacious coeds jostled their way through the crowd to plant hearty kisses and globs of lipstick on his blushing cheek.

Junior High's Musical Play

"Pan-Americana," a musical play written by the S. A. B. Chorus of Lincoln Junior High School, will be presented Thursday evening, April 10, at the High school auditorium.

The story reveals the experiences of Mr. Bemill, a Hollywood producer, whose part is played by Jimmie Bunch, when he goes to Mexico in search of talent for a Latin American production. Staying at the Andalusia Inn, a lodging house whose residents are all artists and entertainers, Mr. Bemill gives auditions to many performers. His enthusiasm is thoroughly aroused when he overhears Juanita, the landlord's daughter, played by Areal Crooks, singing as she goes about her work. To his surprise, she refuses his immediate offer of a contract. Suspense enters the story when Juanita surprises Mr. Bemill by accepting his contract.

Authentic Mexican dances, a real Mexican orchestra and a great chorus trained to sing some of the most popular of Mexican songs, combine to make the production a true musical extravaganza. Over a hundred members of the S. A. B. Chorus participate in the musical play, which is directed by Thomas Cautners, musical supervisor of the Coquille schools.

Among the players featured in the show are Phyllis Litzberger, who plays the part of Sosila, a dancing girl; Donald Martindale, landlord of the Andalusia Inn; Sherman Gregory, orchestra leader and master of ceremonies. Admissions of 10c and 20c will be charged.

Since 1900, more than 85 billion dollars have been paid out in wages directly traceable to the automobile, and which would not have been paid out except for its invention.

Former Coquille People Lose All Household Goods in Fire

The burning of the edifice of the Full Gospel Church building at Winchester Bay, is of more than passing interest here because its pastor, Rev. John H. Carver, and his wife formerly resided in Coquille. In fact she was born here, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Wilson—Eleanor. Mr. Carver was not at home and

Mrs. Carver was drilling the Sunday school children in the church proper when smoke began to appear from below where the Carvers lived.

The building was completely destroyed and Mrs. Carver was able to save very little of their personal effects, on which no insurance was carried.

Defective wiring is the only explanation possible of the cause of the fire.
