laid up for them that fear thee; which thou has wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men! Blessed be the Lord: for he hath shewed me his marvelous kindness in a strong city." (Ps. 31:19, 21).
 The Lesson-Sermon also included the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Everything in God's universe expresses Him. God is individual, incorporeal. He is divine Principle, Love, the universal cause, the only creator, and there is no other self-

Members present included Mesdames Don Gillespie, Lester Greene, Fred Hudson, Fred Jensen, Irving Larson and K. P. Lawrence.

A number of local people have started to attend the Saturday night Square Dances at the Sixes Grange hall. Before each dance, the group gathers for potluck dinner. Last Saturday, they met at the home of Mrs. Pearl Ellingson, had an excellent potluck and then drove to the dance. The group included Messrs. and Mesdames Tallant Greenough, Stanley Ayers, George Chaney, R. A. Wernich, R. E. Harbison, Dr. and Mrs. T. De La Rhue, Mrs. Ellingson and Theodore Ellingson.

Mrs. W. H. Kelley, of Portland, is spending the week here visiting friends. At present she is at the Sam Arnold, Sr., home but intends to spend several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Kelley.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wheaton are enjoying a visit from their two sons, Donald and Melvin, who are both on leave from the Navy. Donald is stationed at San Francisco and Melvin has just finished a tour of sea duty. Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton and the two boys returned Tuesday from a short visit in Portland, where they visited relatives.

The Three Links clubs of the Rebekah and Odd Fellows lodges are giving a public card party Saturday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall. First and second prizes will be awarded for bridge, pinocle, cribbage and chinese checkers. There will be refreshments and a door prize. Members of the Rebekah committee are Mrs. Merlyn Clinton, Lois Fenn and Dora Kendall. The Odd Fellows committee includes: Donald Ross, Bill Strong and Jim Child.

F. R. Bull To Receive A Trip To Portland

F. R. Bull, local representative of the Aetna Casualty and Surety Company, will attend an educational conference sponsored by the company's general agency, Bates, Lively & Pearson, at the Multnomah Hotel in Portland, next Monday.

Leading Aetna agents from this section of the country have been invited to attend this conference in recognition of their outstanding records and the esteem in which they are held by members of the insurance fraternity and the general public, alike.

These educational conferences, at which the latest developments in the casualty and surety insurance fields are discussed, are held annually by Aetna field offices and general agencies throughout the country in order that Aetna representatives may have a full "up-to-the-minute" knowledge of their business and, consequently, may prove of greater service to their clients.
