Camp Fire Girls

Tuesday we went for an Easter egg hunt. There were four prize eggs and a prize for the one who found the most. There was a tie between Louise Terry and Shirley Hamilton for finding the most eggs. Louise Terry found two prize eggs. Velma Coy and Shirley Hamilton each found one. The prizes were Easter bunnies. We received four dollars from the play.

The other members who were there were: Helen Hickam, Mary Anne Walker, Harriett Walker Joyce Benham, Norma Helvie, Betty Lee Renfro, and Miss Cherie Mae Hartwell. Scribe, Louise Terry.

Card of Thanks

To the neighbors and friends whose helpful kindness and sympathy were so comforting in our hour of bereavement, we wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation.

Suiting entertainment to the season, members of the Past Noble Grands club played a series of amusing April Fool games Friday evening, when they met with Myrtle Noah. Ida Oerding, president, conducted a business meeting, during which plans were perfected to make cushion tops, which will be sent to the Oddfellows home at Portland. Miss Oerding won the door prize.

Mrs. Noah served refreshments at a table decorated according to Easter tradition. A handsome Easter lily was used for centerpiece. Two guests, Mrs. Grace Baxter of Eugene and Mrs. M. L. Daniels, were present. Members attending included Mesdames Emily Hersey, Hester Holverstott Myrtle Noah, Ida Oerding, Hennie Price, Harriet Schaeer and Birdie Skeels.

The Monday Night club met this week for dinner and bridge with Mrs. J. L. Smith, whose decorations of freshly picked Dogwood elicited the approving comments of all her guests. Wild iris made a charming centerpiece at the dinner table. Prizes were won by Mrs. H. W. Pierce and Mrs. Edna Hartson. Mrs. R. V. Wilhelm of Melrose, Montana, was a guest. Members present were Mesdames Beet-Folsom, Edna Hartson, J. A. Lamb, E. W. Lorenz, Marie Pettit, H. W. Pierce and J. L. Smith.

Members of the Coos and Curry County Medical Society Auxiliary met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. R. Richmond. During the business meeting, which was conducted by Mrs. Melvin E. Johnson of North Bend, plans were made for a dinner party in early May for inmates of the County Farm. According to their custom, auxiliary members will present a layette to the County Farm.

Mrs. Richmond served refreshments to the following members: Mesdames L. B. Gould, G. E. Stark, E. F. Lucas of Bandon; R. M. McKeown, O. K. Wolf, D. M. Long, A. B. Peacock, Wm. Horsefall, of Marshfield; Melvin E. Johnson of North Bend; W. J. Moore, Beber and H. H. Thomas of Myrtle Point.

Jane Brault, bride-elect of Paul Martin, was feted Tuesday evening at a surprise shower party given by Martha Young at the O. E. Larson home. When all guests had assembled, Miss Brault was ushered into the room decked with flowers where her gifts were piled. During the evening everyone sewed tea towels for the guest of honor. Nettie Peterson received the door prize. Refreshments were served to the following: Verna Reynolds, Emily Smith, Norene McKeown, Sus Cooper, Ellen Braxton, Nettie Peterson, Grace Hatcher Ilene Harris, Blanche Sandon, Perna Roth, Ruby Peterson, Lorene Willard, Perna Brault, Jewel McGilvery, Mabel Martin, Ruth Donsted, Loola Hansen of Klamath Falls, Anne Larson, May Holbrook, Evelyn LaBarge, Martha Young, Wilma Roth, Evelyn Hansen of Klamath Falls and Jane Brault. Gifts were sent by Mrs. C. M. Hartwell, Lydia Holstein, Jean Kistner and Dora Sprick, who were unable to attend the party.

Mrs. Ralph Huebner entertained her Pinochle club at luncheon Tuesday. Prizes were won by Mrs. Jack Jarvis, high, Mrs. A. S. Wells, second and Mrs. A. A. Kyle, traveling. Members present were Mesdames A. A. Kyle, Ben Leatherwood, Charles Lewis, Leslie McElhaney, Jack McLaren, Ralph Menning, Albert Wells, Roy Wheeler, Ernest Whereat and Ed Yarbrough. Mrs. Jarvis was a guest.

Plans were discussed Tuesday evening by N. O. M. A. members for a party to which they will invite their husbands. Mrs. Harold Dey entertained the club at her home, which was decorated with bouquets of spring flowers. Two guests, Mrs. LeRoy Swinney and Mrs. Warming of Langlois, were present. Members attending included Mesdames Don Auer, Meldon Carl, Marion Clayton, Howard Detlefson, Harold Dey, Denton Ellingson, Sherman Morris, Craig Perrott, Harold Stevens, Tom Stevens and Dennis Wagner.

Delegates named Tuesday evening by members of Mamie Rebekah lodge to attend Grand Lodge at Baker, May 26, were Bertha Holbrook and Harriet Schaeer, with Ena Harless as alternate. Catherine Erickson, vice grand, conducted the meeting in the absence of the noble grand, Edith Gruenwald.

Gay refreshment tables decorated for Easter were arranged by a committee composed of Ena Harless, chairman, Dora Kendall, Mabel Gould and Eileen Kendall, Florabelle Boeber led group singing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stevens gave a pinochle party Tuesday evening. Taking high honors were Mrs. Ralph Taylor and Drue Cunningham. Mrs. Cunningham and Don Gillespie were consoled. Mrs. C. Vernon Smith won the traveling prize. After cards, the Stevens served their guests refreshments. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Stanton Stevens, Don Gillespie, Lee Hand, Drue Cunningham, Ralph Taylor, M. R. Kramer, C. Vernon Smith, J. L. Stevens and Stanley Stevens.

Mrs. E. E. Benham, hostess Monday evening for the Get Together club, was given a towel shower by her guests, who chose that way to wish her "Happy Birthday." Pinochle prizes were won by Mrs. Jim Towne, high, Mrs. William Jones, second and Mrs. George Burr, door prize. Mrs. Benham served refreshments to the following club members: Mesdames R. M. Woggoner, Guy Torrey, Melvin Giles, O. E. Larson, William Jones, Ella Martindale, George Burr and Jim Towne.

Church Societies

Mrs. C. R. Murphy and Mrs. John Boots entertained the Dorcas Division of the Church of Christ Missionary Society Thursday at the Murphy home. After dessert luncheon, Mrs. Willard Sloan and Mrs. Paul Simpson led Easter devotions. The chairmen of the Quilt, Layette and Dish Towel committees each reported on missionary work in Alaska and the home field. During the afternoon, society members tackled a quilt.
