

Society and Clubs

by Catherine Maynard, Telephone 185-L.

Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mrs. M. O. Hawkins and Mrs. L. L. Rosa were hostesses Friday at 1 o'clock luncheon at the Hawkins home, where J. G. W. members gathered from over the county. The luncheon table carried an exquisite centerpiece of pink tulips. About the rooms were bouquets of choice roses, grown by Mr. Hawkins. Club members sewed during the afternoon. Those present were Mesdames Bert Folsom, C. J. Fuhrman of Sixes, C. E. Huling of Marshfield, E. E. Johnson, J. A. Lamb, E. W. Lorenz, Marvin Lyons of Marshfield, J. E. Norton, Birdie Skeels, J. L. Smith, James Walstrom of Bandon, Charles Lorenz, M. O. Hawkins, H. N. Lorenz, R. V. Wilhelm of Melrose, Montana and Tom Dimmick of Ophir.

Mrs. E. D. McCune entertained at 1 o'clock desert luncheon and bridge Thursday afternoon. Attractively arranged bouquets of spring flowers were placed about the rooms. Mrs. L. A. Lundquist won first prize, Mrs. E. E. Leslie, second; Mrs. Phil Bourns, consolation and Mrs. Harold Ziegler, traveling. Included on the guest list were Mesdames U. E. McClary, R. E. Boober, Ed McKeown, W. E. Bosserman, Phil Bourns, H. W. Pierce, E. E. Leslie, L. A. Lundquist, Harold Ziegler, Fred McNelly, A. B. Collier, H. S. Norton, T. B. Currie and Albert Powers.

Chief business before Job's Daughters Monday evening was the interesting report given by Donna Dunn, honor queen, and Clarabelle Watson, senior princess, on the Grand Guardian Council at Klamath Falls, April 17, 18 and 19.

Harriet Tozier, who won the contest for bringing the largest number of guests to February and March meetings, was presented with a dainty, white-headed evening bag. Bill Ulett awarded Harriet's prize. The girls are working on a drill for Mother's Day, which they will present at a meeting of the Eastern Star. Nineteen girls, several guests and some council members attended Monday's meeting.

The Contract club was entertained by Mrs. R. L. Stewart Thursday, when she took her guests to the local hotel for luncheon before bridge at her home. Mrs. D. E. Rackleff held high score. Guests were Mesdames R. A. Jeub, J. D. Rankin, D. E. Rackleff, C. W. Kluge and members present were Mesdames Lufe Compton, F. L. Greenough, W. S. Sickels and R. L. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Harriman entertained their Pinochle club Friday evening. Their home was decorated with luxuriant bouquets of Spring flowers, grown in their own garden. High scorers were not announced because members of the club keep their scores until the end of the season, when the "lows" entertain the "highs" at a dinner party. Mrs. Harriman served refreshments late in the evening to the following: Messrs. and Mesdames Ralph Taylor, W. E. Bosserman, L. A. Lundquist, R. E. Boober and Rudy Johnson.

An affiliation degree was awarded by the Order of the Eastern Star Thursday evening to Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Harriman and Lois Fenn, who have transferred from other chapters to Beulah chapter here. For Mrs. Cora Little, whose home burned recently, chapter members gave a shower after the business meeting.

Members of the refreshment committee were Harriett Oiska, Hattie Leslie, Dena Pierce, June Walker, P. M. Norton, Lufe Compton and Ed Walker.

Mrs. Kenneth Kistner was this week's hostess to the Tuesday Night club. Mrs. E. A. Walker won first prize at bridge and Mrs. Lanis Bosworth had second high score. Mrs. D. G. McEniry substituted for Mrs. Julius Ruble. Members present were Mesdames J. E. Axtell, Lanis Bosworth, Don Estes, O. T. Gant, Kenneth Kistner, Walter Litzenberger E. A. Walker and Fred Watson.

Members of the Three Links Sewing club dispensed with their business meeting Tuesday afternoon because of the absence of their secretary. Mrs. Val Harless was hostess to the club. Members spent the afternoon sewing. Fragrant bouquets of lilies made attractive floral decorations. Those present were Estelle Duanne Nettie Griffia, of Myrtle Point; Myrtle Benham, Frances Brown, Bernice Clark, Lillian Clark, Cathryn Erickson, Edith Grusenwald, Ena Harless Bertha Holbrook Merle Kellenberger, Helen Larson and Lola Moore.

Members of the Roy Mothers club were entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. I. S. Robison and Mrs. John McNair at the McNair home. The group made plans for a potluck dinner for the children of the Roy school. After the business meeting, club members played games and visited. Mrs. Maude Anderson won the house prize. Refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames Ray Buckles, Maude Anderson, Ed Dellefen, Arthur Ellingson, John McNair, Alex Mackey and I. S. Robison.

The Eagles Sewing club met Wednesday for potluck luncheon at Gladys Terry's home. During the afternoon, the girls sewed and played a few games. Margaret Spores won the penny raffle and Norma Hickenbottom drew the door prize. Those present were Lorraine Chard, Lottie Aber, Lennis Wright, Babe Menning, Pauline Kollar, Gladys Terry, Jane Burch, Hattie Gaffey, Virginia Heintzelman, Norma Hickenbottom, Mabel Kyle and Margaret Spores.

Mrs. S. S. Hardenbrook entertained members of the Friendly Dozen club at a sewing party at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Grant Wilcox drew the house prize. Tea was served late in the afternoon to the following members: Mesdames Sam Arnold, Sr., S. S. Hardenbrook, Jack Hultin, Clyde Minard, A. G. Trendell, Fred Von Pegert, Fred Watson and Grant Wilcox.

A surprise handkerchief shower was given Wednesday evening at the Charles Mansell home for Mrs. Mansell and Mrs. Albert Wells by Mrs. L. F. Hatcher and Mrs. F. H. McKibben. Mrs. Mansell is leaving Thursday for an extended visit in California, while Mrs. Wells and her family plan to move to Langlois Friday.

After the shower, everyone played pinochle. Mrs. Jack McLaren and L. F. Hatcher won first prizes, while Mrs. Ernest Whereat and Elmer Barrows were second high. Mr. Charles Mansell was given a farewell present. Refreshments were served to the following: Messrs. and Mesdames Elmer Barrows, L. F. Hatcher, Boy Wheeler, F. H. McKibben, Chas. Mansell, Mesdames Charles Lewis, A. Kyle, A. S. Wells, Jack McLaren and Ernest Whereat.

Mrs. Paul Martin was guest of honor at a farewell party Wednesday afternoon, given by fellow workers in the Smith Wood office. Wednesday evening, she bid farewell to members of the Bachelor Girls club when she entertained the girls at a contract rummy party at her home. Norene McKeown won first prize and Maxine Johnson, consolation. At each party, Mrs. Martin was presented with a nice gift from her friends. The Bachelor girl guests were Elle Braxton, Margaret Belloni, Maxine Johnson, Carol Young, Winnifred Stone, Norene McKeown, Helen Lund, Martha Young, Marjorie Knight and Rose Matney.

Members of the N.O.M.A. club held a line party Wednesday evening at the Roxy, where they saw Henry Aldrich, the young man Hollywood terms "the good, bad boy." Those in the party were Mesdames Marion Clayton, Dennis Waggoner, Tom Stevens, Melden Carl, Harold Dey, Harold Stevens and Sherman Morris.

The Double-Four met Wednesday afternoon for dessert luncheon and pinochle with Mrs. Alton Clausen whose home was decorated with lavish bouquets of spring flowers. Mrs. Phil Bourns won first prize; Mrs. Joseph Allard, second and traveling prizes, and Mrs. F. H. McKibben, door prize. Mrs. Carl Gilbert substituted. Members present were Mesdames F. H. McKibben, Norman Fletcher, Ernest Whereat, Charles Briggs, Joseph Allard, Phil Bourns and Alton Clausen.

Miss Ruth Towne Gives Recital

A delighted audience of 200 people heard Ruth Towne mezzo-soprano, at a recital Wednesday evening at the Church of Christ. Miss Towne, wearing a handsome evening gown of black lace, with gardenia corsage, gave a magnificent performance. Assisting her was Wayne A. Smith, of Bandon, who played accompaniments for some numbers and gave one group of piano solos. Verene Bailey, another outstanding pianist, accompanied one group of songs and Muriel Dae played a violin obligato for another group. Ruth Towne, Wayne A. Smith and Verene Bailey were presented in recital by Maud Skaggs Woodyard, with whom they are all studying.

Miss Towne received many bouquets and gifts from appreciative friends. The church was decorated with baskets of roses and spring flowers, which had been arranged by Mrs. Donald Farr and Mrs. Elwyn Nusler. Ushers, all of whom wore pastel colored formal, were the Misses Hazel Moffet, Margaret Stanger and Yvonne Kern.

One of the favorite numbers on the program was Miss Towne's presentation of "Connais-tu le pays?" from "Mignon," a vivid, brilliant number. The program was presented in the following order:

- "In the Boat" - Grieg
- "The Miller's Song" - Schubert
- "Hark! Hark! the Lark" - Schubert
- "Still Wie die Nacht" - Bohm
- "Stamber, Beloved" - Bach
- "Christ Went Up into the Hills" - Hageman
- Ruth Towne
- "Scherzo in B flat" - Schubert
- "Scottish Tone Picture" - McDowell
- "Tango in D Major" - Albeniz
- "Bourree in b minor" - Bach
- Wayne A. Smith
- "Connais-tu le pays?" - Thomas
- "I See a Tree" - Hodges
- "A Russian Lament" - del Riego
- "Les Filles de Cadix" - Delibes
- "Elegie" - Massenet
- "Slumber Song" - Mattei
- "Fiddle and I" - Goodeve
- Ruth Towne

Golden Wedding Tuesday At Powers

Several local people were among the 90 guests attending the golden wedding celebrated Tuesday evening at Powers of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Purvis. Since both Mr. and Mrs. Purvis have been prominent Eastern Star members—Mrs. Purvis is a past worthy matron and Mr. Purvis, a former officer in the Masonic lodge—Powers Masons staged the impressive golden wedding ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Purvis came to Powers in 1917. For many years, Mr. Purvis was an engineer for the Coos Bay Lumber company. Mrs. Purvis has been Powers school clerk for a number of years. They were married in Minneapolis April 29, 1891.

In conjunction with an impressive wedding ceremony, at which Hubert Hall officiated, there were several musical numbers. Mr. Merle Kramer sang "I Love You Truly" and "Oh Promise Me." Attending from here were Mrs. Ethel Littler, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Kramer and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rutledge. Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Sterle Zimmerman, of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, of Bend, old friends of Mr. and Mrs. Purvis.

Special on pictures for Mother's Day; 20 per cent reduction on all pictures in stock. This is a real opportunity to obtain some very beautiful pictures at a real saving, at Norton's.

Marriage Licenses

April 24—Donald A. Burch and Verna Esther Reynolds, both of Coquille.

April 29—Geo. Reeve, Jr., of North Bend, and Estelle Spiva, of Marshfield.

A. L. Hootes, electrical contractor and dealer, 274 Second St. Coquille. Complete stock of wiring supplies at Norton's.

Make Mother Happy On Her Day May 11th

With One of These Delightful

Bemberg Sheer Frocks

Specially Purchased and Specially Priced for this event

They come in Lovely Color Combinations: Spring Green with Lavender and White Floral Designs; also Lavender background with Green Prints; Then there are Black with White and Copen Blue with Black and White Prints.

Many Flattering Styles with Shirrings and Pleats. Best of all they look just twice what the ticket says

$5.98

Sizes 16 1/2 to 24 1/2.

Kollias Hosiery in the new Conversation Tones are just the Right Shades for these Frocks

89c and $1.00

THE PLACE—

at Hatlock's

"Where No Gift is Too Small to Wrap"

There May Be Advances

But here are some buys in any times.

- Silver Thistle Jelly Assorted Flavors 12 oz. Glass 10c
- Cross & Blackwell Date Nut Bread Can 15c
- Cradle Baby Jam Regular 10c size Special 5c
- Fillet of Anchovies—Imported Small Oval Cans each 10c
- Jergen's Fine Toilet Soap 3 Cakes for 15c 1 Cake FREE
- Woodbury's Facial Soap For "The Skin you love to touch" 4 CAKES for 29c

An extra supply at these prices will save you money.

The Busy Corner Grocery

The Make-It-Right Store

Telephones 69