Bachelor Girls, pleased with the success of their first banquet, which was held recently at the Midway club made plans Friday at the regular luncheon meeting at the Coquille Hotel to have another banquet May 29. Marjorie Knight, president of the club, led discussion. Members present were Margaret Belloni, Ellen Braxton, Maxine Johnson, Marjorie Knight, Norene McKeown, Rose Matney, Winifred Stone and Carol Young.

The Past Matrons and Patrons club of the O. E. S. met Friday evening at the Lefe Compton apartment at the hotel. Mrs. Compton, who is president of the club, Mrs. R. E. Jeub and William Ulett were members of the committee entertaining the rest of the club. After a short business meeting, there were a variety of games to suit the taste of various club members. Refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames E. W. Lorenz, H. N. Lorenz, R. E. Jeub, Lefe Compton, Miss Bess Maury, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bosserman and Messrs. A. N. Gould, William Ulett, George Ulett, O. B. Harriman and

O. C. Sanford.

The current meeting of the Monday Night club was held at the J. A. Lamb home, when Mrs. Lamb entertained club members at dessert and bridge. Mrs. H. W. Pierce won first prize and Mrs. Bert Folsom, second. Mrs. R. V. Wilhelm substituted for Mrs. Merie Pettit, who was in San Francisco. Members present were Mesdames Bert Folsom, Edna Hartson, E. W. Lorenz, H. W. Pierce and J. L. Smith.

Fifteen members of Jobs Daughters went to Bandon late Thursday afternoon for picnic dinner on the beach. The chaperons were Mrs. H. R. Godard, Mrs. George Sherwood, Mrs. B. W. Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ulett. Nancy Godard was a guest of the girls. Those who attended the picnic were Donna Dunn, Marianna Rackleff, Clarabel Watson, Geraldine Cole, Kay Leslie, Jessie Sherwood, Colleen Ireland, Betty Emery, Harriet Tozier, Dorothea Yarbrough, Maybell Yarbrough, Betty Donstead, Alice Howard, Gwendolyn Elrod and Donna Rankin.

Though members of the Justices club held their last regular meeting of the current year Thursday at the F. L. Greenough home, they plan to meet again Sunday at a picnic for members and their husbands which will be held at the C. J. Fuhrman ranch on Sixes River. Hostesses for the Thursday luncheon were Mesdames R. A. Wernich, F. L. Greenough, A. J. Sherwood, Bert Folsom, E. E. Johnson and J. L. Smith. Two guests of honor were present. There were Mrs. E. T. Pierce of Salem whose son married Ann Van Scoy, a former Coquille girl, and Mrs. E. W. Gallagher of Oakland, Calif., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Pierce. Club members present were Mesdames Leona Bryant, Bert Folsom, F. L. Greenough, M. O. Hawkins, E. E. Johnson, J. A. Lamb, R. A. Wernich and H. A. Young.

Mrs. Roy Neal, of Marshfield, on Monday entertained members of the Ecadrien club at luncheon and a sewing party. Mrs. Earl Nosler and Mrs. W. E. Bosserman and her small grand daughter, Jackie Hopkins, drove over from here. Other club members attending the party were Mesdames F. A. Robb and John L. Aasen, of North Bend.

The Tanta group of Campfire Girls entertained their mothers Wednesday afternoon at a party given at the home of their leader, Mrs. R. E. Harbison. The girls took their examinations for rank of Woodgatherer and as a part of the examination displayed the handwork they have completed this year. Refreshments were served to the following mothers: Mesdames O. A. Hughes, Louis Howe, Elton Savage, Leland Peart, Elda Ostrander and R. E. Harbison.

Campfire members present were Carol Jean Gray, Sally Bonney, Rose Marie Peart, Joan Savage, Betty Lou Dalton, Ann Harbison and Dorothy Jean Hughes. Two small sisters of members, Peggy Hughes and Joan Peart, attended the party.

Mrs. Bill Ulett and Mrs. H. R. Godard gave a waffle feed Monday evening for the girls who met for Job's Daughters practice. After practice, Mrs. Ulett and Mrs. Godard, who were assisted by Mrs. Gorge Sherwood and Bill Ulett, served waffles to the girls, who were Harriet Tozier, Marybell Yarbrough, Clarabel Watson, Phyllis Litzberger, Marianna Rackleff, Donna Rankin, Gwendolyn Elrod, Alice Howard, Kay Leslie, Doris Anne Wood, Geraldine Cole, Jessie Sherwood, Colleen Ireland, Donna Dunn and Betty Donstead.

Mrs. George Oerding, chairman of the program committee for the Coquille Woman's club, called the first meeting of her group Monday. Various plans for a program schedule were discussed and decision was made to feature one subject at each meeting. Music and other program numbers will be planned to develop the main program topic. The group met at the home of Mrs. Julius Ruble, new Woman's club president. Members of Mrs. Oerding's committee are Mesdames J. L. Smith, K. P. Lawrence, Leona Bryant, F. L. Houston, R. A. Wernich, George H. Jenkins, D. E. Keener and Dorothy Bishop.

Mrs. James Watson on Tuesday afternoon entertained members of the C. S. C. club at a sewing party. Refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Jack Arnold, Sam Arnold, Sr., George Gilman, W. L. Kistner, Neil McGilvery, E. L. Perrott, J. J. Stanley, Harold Varney and James Watson.

Mildred Howe entertained the Zodiac club Wednesday at a luncheon given for Ruby Johnson, whose birthday was celebrated. Mrs. Johnson received a gift from all the members of the club as well as one from her secret pal. Other members remembered by their secret pals were Edna Kern, Jan Burch, and Lorraine Tharpe. Carla Savage a guest at the party, received the hostess' gift and Florence Schmidt won the lucky number gift. Bouquets of spring flowers were placed about the rooms. Members present were Mesdames Jane Burch, Ethel Fuller, of Marshfield, Mildred Howe, Edna Kern, Blanche Mast, Florence Schmidt, Ora Tennant, Edith Tennant, Lorraine Tharpe and Gladys Wheeler.

Members of the Tauk-an-So club had their choice of playing cards or sewing Friday evening when the group met with Mrs. Earl Schroeder. Among the pinochle players, Mrs. Jack Leach won first prize and Mrs. William Jones, consolation. Refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames R. M. Waggoner, Henry Belloni, Ernest Batty, Wm. Jones, Al Burch, James McGuffin, Jack Leach, Ellis Martindale, Guy Torrey and Earl Schroeder.

The Get-Together club members gave a dish towel shower Monday evening for their hostess, Mrs. Ellis Martindale, who was celebrating her birthday. At pinochle, Mrs. William Jones won first prize and Mrs. Geo.

Burr, consolation. This was the last meeting of the group until fall social activities are resumed. Guests were Mrs. Ernest Batty and Mrs. Harry Ho-camp. Members present were Mesdames Melvin Giles, Wm. Jones, Guy Torrey, George Burr, R. M. Waggoner and Ellis Martindale.

Bishop Benjamin Dagwell was present at the Wednesday afternoon meeting of St. James' Guild, long enough to give a short talk on auxiliary work. The Guild's auxiliary corresponds to missionary work and one day a month is set aside for auxiliary business.

Mrs. C. T. Selbig, guild president, conducted a short business meeting during which plans were made for a picnic June 4. Mrs. Bert Folsom and Mrs. C. L. Tuttle were tea hostesses. Those present were Mesdames J. S. Barton, E. N. Briner, Martha Gratke, C. M. Guilbert, Fred Hickok, E. W. Lorenz, H. N. Lorenz, William Mansell, John Martin, Ida Owen, H. W. Pierce, F. A. Pook, Annie Robinson C. T. Selbig, C. V. Smith, A. O. Walker and Rev. C. M. Guilbert. Mrs. J. P. Maher, of Dillon, Montana, was a guest.

The young girls who wore pink carnations Friday evening at the high school band concert had all come from Geraldine Oerding's 13th birthday party. Mrs. Walter Oerding, Geraldine's mother, invited the girls for dinner before the concert. The place cards were miniature books, made from plywood and bound with leather lacings. Within each book, the guest found her fortune. Table decorations were in green and yellow and green tapers lighted the table. The centerpiece of pink carnations was sent to Geraldine by her music teacher, Muriel Dae, and it was from the centerpiece that the girls took the flowers they wore to the concert. The guests were Eula McCracken, Shirley Slater, Marianne Rackleff, Dorothy Howe, Patsy McKeivie, Pat Yarbrough, Patsy Norton, Lorraine Stewart, Anna Arnett, Anita Martindale, Laura Emily Ruble, Donna Gourmley, Christine McPherson, Norma Tharpe and the guest of honor, Geraldine Oerding.

Myrtle club members, who make a habit of giving a nice present to the children of members whenever there is an important occasion, chose two gifts at their meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Helen Anderson. Mrs. Albert Mannelin, the daughter of Mrs. Pearl Ruble, received a wedding present from the club and George Eckholm, the son of Mrs. Alma Eckholm, was given a graduation present. George graduated this year from the eighth grade at the Coaledo school. Two guests, Mrs. Wm. McDaniel and Mrs. John Caudle, attended the sewing party. Members present were Mesdames Helen Anderson, Alma Eckholm, Pearl Ruble, Ina Sandine, Alice Standley and Ruth Varney.

A number of members of Mamie Rebekah lodge drove to Bandon Tuesday for a picnic on the beach. This is the first time that the lodge has held such a party. Those who went on the jaunt enjoyed themselves so thoroughly that they are already at work planning another picnic which will be held at a time when the lodge members who have jobs may be present. Picnic headquarters were at Birdie Skeels' cottage. Among the Rebekahs present were Marion Lawrence, Florence Hallock, Lola Moore, Flora Dunn, Myrtle Benham, Florabelle Boober, Bernice Clark, Lillian Clark, Cathryn Erickson, Edith Gruenwald, Helen Larson, Alice Morris, Amanda Sutton and Mrs. A. T. Morrison, of Bandon.

Mrs. Don Estes and Mrs. Walter Litzberger gave two very nice bridge parties the first of the week at the Estes home. Each party was 7:30 dessert bridge, and decorations followed a general color scheme of pink and blue. At the first party, on Monday evening, Mrs. T. B. Currie won first prize; Mrs. H. W. Pierce, second and Mrs. J. L. Smith consolation.

The guests at Monday's party were Mesdames R. L. Stewart, J. L. Smith, Fred Hudson, Frank Martin, U. E. McClary, J. D. Rankin, Keith Leslie, Ed McKeown, T. B. Currie, H. S. Norton, J. E. Axtell, D. E. Rackleff, Frank Thrift, A. B. Collier, Lefe Compton, Harold Ziegler, Claire Gray, H. W. Pierce, Phil Bourne and Guy Mauney.

The guests who won prizes at the party Tuesday evening were Mrs. Harold Gould, second and Mrs. L. B. Gould, consolation. Guests were Mesdames T. K. Foss, Don McEniry, Fred Watson, Kenneth Kistner, Edna Kern, Mrs. A. B. Foss, Mrs. M. C. Cue, Elbert Schroeder, Andy Anderson, Harold Gould, L. B. Gould, Stanley Ayres, Kenneth Heninger, Chavis Church, Dan Fish, Wendell Sandall, Alton Clusen and the Misses Vesta Miley, Carol Young and Norene McKeown.

Gladys Myers spent the weekend at Albany and Lebanon.

Attending Grand Lodge in Baker

A party of Oddfellows and Rebekahs left here Sunday for Baker, where the Grand Lodge encampment is in session this week. Among the group is E. C. Briner, grand conductor of the Grand Lodge of Oregon; Fred Schaefer, representative of Coquille Encampment No. 25, and Val Harless, who with Mr. Schaefer is an official I. O. O. F. delegate. Ena Harless and Bertha Holbrook are delegates from Mamie Rebekah lodge, No. 20. Mrs. Fred Schaefer was a member of the party. They are expected home this coming Sunday.

Roy Wheeler, who has worked for the county road department for over 11 years, left the department Friday. Mr. Wheeler has bought a new logging truck and is hauling for Frank Fish.

Fishermen Just Made It To Beach On North Lake

Jim Milne, salesman in Coos county for Carter Rice & Co., wholesale paper house in Portland, barely missed having to swim for his life Sunday. He and two others were going fishing, stopped at Lakeside and could get no boat. They went on to North Lake and finally managed to get a boat from a Finnish woman. They hooked on the motor and were half way across the lake when the boat began to leak, and no cup or can available for bailing. By the time they reached the fishing grounds they decided the boat was filling too rapidly and started back. They had just reached the landing beach, or just off it, when the boat sank.

An examiner of applicants for drivers' licenses will be at the Coquille city hall for his bi-weekly visit, next Wednesday, May 28, from 11 until five o'clock.
