

A Birthday Party
Among the birthday parties during the past week was that given Saturday by Mrs. Bernard Jefferies for her five year old daughter, Marcia. The table was decorated in Marcia's favorite colors, pink and green, and there were balloons, lollipops and candy baskets in the two colors for each child. Marcia's guests were Sally Jefferies, Phyllis Shack, Janis Epps, Gary Morris, Shirley Hevia, Lambert Morris, Marilyn David, Wesley Morton, Hal Stevens and June Smith.

Bishop Dagwell Confirms Class

St. James' Episcopal Church was the scene Tuesday night of an impressive service, as the Rt. Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, Bishop of Oregon, administered the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation to a class of young people. The class had been prepared and was presented by the Vicar, the Rev. Charles M. Guilbert.

Those confirmed and admitted to Communion were Mrs. Edwin L. Kay and her two sons, Raymond and James; John Ribert Axtell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Axtell; Jean Irwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Plieth; Patricia Yarbrough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Yarbrough; Vera Bishop, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Bishop, and Donna Rankin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John D. Rankin.

The next Confirmation class will begin sessions about September 15th, according to Mr. Guilbert.

The Bishop gave the confirmands as their text, "The Peace of God," and this was made the subject of his charge to the class. He stressed the possibilities of attaining inward peace even in the midst of outward strife.

The Bishop's sermon dealt with the Holy Communion, to which those who had just been confirmed were admitted.

Mrs. Barton Named On B. F. W. State Legislative Committee

Mrs. J. S. Barton was elected chairman of the state legislative committee for the Business and Professional Women's club at the state convention held Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Multnomah Hotel in Portland, where 324 members from over the state gathered. Other delegates attending from the local club were Mrs. Leona Bryant, Mrs. Florence Hallock, Mrs. Bertha Smith, and Miss Ida Oerding.

Regional districts were reorganized during the convention. Coquille, which was formerly a member of the Coos Bay district, now belongs to the Coast district, which includes Marshfield, Toledo, Newport and Taft. To Grants Pass went the attendance cup, and Toledo won the new cup awarded to the club having the best project for the year.

The Marshfield club took two honors. Its president, Mrs. Harry Rosenkrantz, was appointed to the north-west district conference board, and its trio, composed of Mrs. Frank Connell, Mrs. Marion Littrell and Miss Marian Dillenbeck, won the cup for trio singing. Evangelina Pöhlbin was re-elected state president of the organization.

Coquille Boys Join Thanes

Jack Laird, son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Laird, and Howard Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor, are among the 25 boys invited this year to join Thanes, the Oregon State college service honorary, which is the masculine equivalent of Talons, the service society to which Beverly Norton has been elected. The Thanes are chosen for their outstanding work in scholarship, leadership, school operations and service. Purpose of the organization is to uphold school traditions and see that the purpose of the campus is carried out. Thanes act as ushers at various campus functions.

Yesterday was another of those warm days for this section, the thermometer registering 84 at noon. It is reported, too, that there was frost in Fairview valley Sunday night. Here in Coquille the minimum temperature that night was 35 degrees.
