Members of the Monday Night club met for dessert and bridge this week with Mrs. H. W. Pierce, Mrs. Jane Williams won first prize and Mrs. J. A. Lamb, traveling prize. Members and guests present included Mesdames E. W. Lorenz, R. V. Wilhelm, J. A. Lamb, J. L. Smith, Jane Williams, M. F. Pettit, Fred McNelly, Leona Bryant, and June Fomes, of Oakland, California.

Mrs. George Taylor gave a party to celebrate Bobby Taylor's 12th birthday Thursday at the Taylor cabin at Croft Lake. The day, filled with swimming, boating, hiking and fishing, was all too short. At noon, a picnic dinner, complete with ice cream and birthday cake, was served. Members of the party returned home tired but filled with recollections of a happy day. Assisting Mrs. Taylor were Mrs. J. D. Rankin and Mrs. Bob Geaney. Guests included Bobby Taylor, John Leslie, Bill Sage, Clifton Peart, Jimmy Peart, Morris Williams, Bruce Martin, Bobby Geaney, John Rankin, Harry Slack, Jr., Albert Powers, Jr., Ralph Van der Nallen, of Willows Creek, California, Donna Rankin, Richard Rankin, David Rankin, Joyce Taylor and Helen Taylor, Patty Geaney and Johnny Geaney.

Mrs. Carl Gilbert was a Wednesday afternoon hostess when she entertained members of the Double-Four club at dessert and pinocle. The rooms were attractive with bouquets of mixed flowers. Mrs. Alton Clausen won the first prize; Mrs. Charles Briggs, second and door prizes, and Mrs. Phil Bourns, traveling prize.

Mrs. Don Pierce substituted. Members present were Mesdames Norman Fletcher, Alton Clausen, Sandy McBride, Charles Briggs, F. H. McKibben and Phil Bourns.

A highlight of summer society was the tea Wednesday afternoon at St. James' Guild hall where garments were displayed prior to shipment to Britain. Planning the tea were Mrs. T. B. Currie, Mrs. A. O. Walker, Mrs. Robert Pleith, Mrs. F. A. Pook, Mrs. Fred Hickok, Mrs. L. N. Williams, Mrs. D. H. St. Clair, all of whom are active members in the local unit of Bundles for Britain, Inc. Three long tables, piled with beautifully knit garments, testified to the industry of local women, whose sympathies for the allied cause are more than verbal. Included in the display were 80 sweaters, 50 pairs of socks, countless number of beanies, helmets, emergency kits, afghans and wristlets. Also on display were hospital bed sheets, made for Bundles for Britain by members of the Dorcas Society of the Seventh Day Adventist church, and an assortment of 24 snug bunnies. Among the afghans was one completed by Mrs. Florence Seeley just prior to her death. Mrs. Seeley had learned to knit, despite failing eyesight, so that she could aid in making garments for Bundles for Britain. To Mrs. Homenyk go honors for having turned out the largest number of garments made by any one person.

Officiating at the tea table were Mrs. Ray Jeub, Mrs. George Chaney and Mrs. R. A. Wernich. In the center of the table was an exquisite centerpiece arranged by Mrs. F. C. McNelly from glads, Shasta daisies, roses, hydrangeas and baby breath. Flanking the centerpiece, on a lace cloth, were blue candles in beautiful crystal holders.

Many of the garments displayed were made by members of the committee that arranged the tea. These women have met each Thursday to knit. Mrs. A. O. Walker, knitting chairman, has supervised the work of the garments.

Mrs. Raymond Cooper was complimented Wednesday afternoon at a shower given by Mrs. E. H. O'Dell, Mrs. Elwyn Nosler, Mrs. Loren Salisbury and Mrs. C. C. Farr at the Farr home. After everyone had played an interesting game, Mrs. Nosler read a very amusing poem. Mrs. Cooper then opened her gifts, which had been arranged around a big doll that sat under an umbrella. With the refreshments were clever favors made of all-day suckers with painted faces peering out from crepe paper bonnets.

Guests at the party were Mesdames Berlyn Billings, Doris Dalton, Henry George, Mary Wimer, Willard Sloan, Fred Schaer, George Chapman, Delbert James, John Sullivan, V. L. Bailey, Paul Simpson and Raymond Cooper. Presents were also sent by Mesdames Walter Newton, George Swinney, Irwin Woodward, Guy Kelley and Tom Stevens.

Members of the Lincoln club gathered Tuesday for a lovely potluck birthday luncheon with Mrs. Roxie Haskins, who was given a towel shower by her guests. Mrs. Ed Aasen won the door prize. Mrs. Genie Chase presided over a business meeting at which much of importance to the group was discussed. Announcement was made that the club now has a quilt ready for sale. Cards were sent to members who could not attend the meeting on account of illness. Next meeting will be held with Mrs. James McGuffin on September 2. Visitors at the meeting were Mesdames Zoe Smith, Grant Hartwell, Ward and Howard. Members present included Mesdames Al McIntee, Leontine Knox, John McCue, Ed Aasen, A. S. Bean, George Burr, Genie Chase, Estelle Dunn, Flora Dunn, A. N. Foley, Edith Gardner, Harold McCue, James McGuffin, Agnes Nigren, A. J. Nussell, W. H. Schroeder, Z. C. Strang, Clara Wheeler and Bertha Wilson.

Five local couples enjoyed a jolly party Tuesday evening, when they drove down below Shoreacres for a hamburger and watermelon feed. Included in the party were Messrs. and Mesdames C. V. Smith, Drue Cunningham, Lee Hand, Ralph Taylor and Don Gillespie.

Mrs. J. W. Ruble was a Thursday afternoon hostess, when she entertained members of the Laf-a-Lot club at a sewing party and tea. Attending were Mesdames George Gilman, Ed Dettelsen, John Martin, W. E. Cross, Alex Mackey and O. K. Rakestraw.

Shower For Inez Barklow

A former Coquille girl, Miss Inez Barklow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Barklow, was complimented Tuesday afternoon at a bridal shower in Myrtle Point given by Mrs. William Bell. Miss Barklow will on Saturday wed Vernon Joseph Brown, the son of F. W. Brown, of Joliet, Illinois.

Attending the party were the following from Coquille: Mesdames Vernon Heintzleman, Jane Wilson and daughter, F. H. McKibben, Ed Brown, Ernest Battey and Cora Sullivan; Myrtle Point guests were Mesdames J. D. Barkdoll, Ida Barkdoll, Gillie Bell, Lloyd Huntley, Mildred Lakey, M. D. Sutton, John Felsner, Lena Barklow, Gladys Barklow, Nancy Miller, Annie Lett, Charley Crook, Jr., Lucy Barklow, Dorothy Barklow, M. T. Aasen, Nannie Barklow, Letta Shellhammer, Nell Albee. Gifts were sent by Mesdames Lola Moore, Coquille; A. L. Bushnell, Catching Creek; Kathryn Miller, Betty Bushnell, Albert Reed, Phil Montague, Stewart, Charley Smith, Miss Evelyn Denning, all of Myrtle Point; Mr. and Mrs. John Orr, of Carnas Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lobdell, of Myrtle Point.

Anniversary And Birthday Party

There was a double celebration at the Harold Gould's Thursday evening when Ken Gould celebrated his 10th birthday and his aunt and uncle, the Clarence Osikas, observed their wedding anniversary.

A hamburger dinner cooked at the outdoor fireplace, was followed by Ken's birthday cake. Among the birthday presents, was a live chipmunk that had been put in a big box, which was wrapped in tissue paper and tied with ribbons. Don Minard, caught the chipmunk and gave it to Ken.

Attending the party were A. N. Gound, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gould, Mrs. Mary Osika, Clarence Osika, Max Kingsley Chapin, of Heppner, Warren Jenkins, Don Minard, Georgia Johnson, Peter Harvey, Mavis Newton, Cynthia Rust, Jimmie and Joan Hatcher and Ken's sister, Jane.

Wm. G. Barrow accompanied the Estes family as far as Portland Sunday. He attended Monday's Buyers' Week sessions there and arrived home by bus Tuesday morning.

Summer School For Fox Raisers

Gathering at Bandon Wednesday, August 13, will be a number of persons prominent in the fur industry, who will meet to conduct, under the auspices of the Oregon Fox and Mink association, a summer school for members of the Coquille unit of the association. The school will be held in two sessions, 10 a. m. until 4 p. m. and at 8 p. m. at the Richmond beach cottage. Anyone who is interested in learning more of this new and growing Coos county industry is invited to attend either or both sessions. There will be a potluck dinner at noon and potluck supper.

Scheduled to appear on the program are George Hedrick, representing the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Michigan; George Eckart, manager of the Fur Receiving Station of the American National Fox association at Wausau, Wisconsin; Arthur Prentice, manager of the Denver branch of the New York Fur Auction company; R. D. Holmes, editor of the Columbia Empire Furs, Astoria; J. D. Long, who has charge of the experimental fur farm at Corvallis; Mike Dederer, representing the Seattle Fur Exchange; C. D. Garfield, editor of the Fur Journal, Seattle; Eugene Finley, president of the Oregon Fox and Mink association, of Jefferson.

Several other authorities are expected. There will be a question period and, in the evening, instructive motion pictures.

Legion and Auxiliary To Install Monday

Coquille Unit, American Legion Auxiliary will install officers Monday night, August 11, at the Legion home, at which time the American Legion Post will also install.

The Auxiliary officers will be installed by Edna Kern, past president of the unit. The officers to be installed are: President, Nellie Prey; First Vice-President, Gladys Williams; Second Vice-President, Jerry Lund; secretary, Doris Mintonye; treasurer, Ann Dungey; Sergeant at Arms, Bertha Selbig; historian, Edna Kern.

The coveted Horsfall Gavel Bell traveling trophy for the greatest increase in membership, during the past three years, was won by Coquille Unit and will be presented to the Unit Monday night. At this time also, a citation, which was won by the Unit in 1940, will be presented.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

The Grange Home Economics club met for a day long session with Mrs. Ruth Varney Wednesday. Members worked on tea towels, which will be sold to add to the building fund. There was a noon potluck. Members present included Mesdames Amos Bierly, Florence Hallock, O. K. Rakestraw, George Gilman, J. W. Ruble, Alex Mackey and Ruth Varney.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.
