

Minor Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reed and son, Robert, and Mrs. Joe Knight and daughter, Jo Anne, of Eugene, are visiting relatives and friends for a few days in Coquille.

In remitting for her subscription to the Sentinel Mrs. Clara Gregg, who now resides in Roseburg, writes: "It has been very warm here, running from 97 up to 103 degrees. It has been somewhat cooler the past week but is still plenty warm."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Wilson were here Monday from their 155-acre ranch on Davis creek, south of Four Mile on the Coast Highway. Frank says his beet crop—for cattle—which was planted in May, will run at least 50 tons from less than an acre. The "mayor of Langlois," also a former Coquille man—H. S. Cadman—told Frank it would run 80 tons which would be some crop on a shy acre.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Gauer, Gerald, Dick and Joan, made a trip to Carpenterville, Oregon, 40 miles south of Gold Beach last week-end. Mrs. Gauer's brother, Troy L. Tompson, had had a bad wreck at Carpenterville and was slightly injured. Mr. and Mrs. Gauer went down and brought Mr. Tompson to Arago.

Hubert Ulrich and Manley Gillard last Friday bought an acre tract in Burns Acres, across Willard street west of the Ulrich home. They expect to use it as a garden plot at present, although a house may be built on it later.

Mrs. A. G. Renn, of Portland, who was a visitor last week at the L. P. Fugelson home, left here Sunday for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Birch, of Marshfield. Miss Sidney Renn accompanied her mother here and spent a day with the Fugelsons before going on to Oakland California.

Mrs. Elton Savage and Joan and Sally Bonney returned Sunday from Gold Beach, where they visited last week with Mrs. Savage's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Theilen.

Mr. and Mrs. V. R. McCurdy and Sandra and Larry and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fortier returned Sunday evening from Portland and Mount Ranier. The Fortiers and Larry joined the McCurdys in Portland last Wednesday.

William Donaldson arrived here Tuesday evening to attend the funeral of his son, Kenneth A. Donaldson. He has been located at Susanville, Calif. for the past year and eight months.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Roth plan to leave Saturday for Silverton, where they will attend a reunion of members of the Roth family.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Zelle and daughter, Elaine, who had been visiting for a week at the home of Mrs. Zelle's mother, Mrs. Rose Ashton left for their home in Salt Lake City last Saturday. Another daughter, Marjorie and family—Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Warren and baby son, Richard—arrived here Wednesday of last week from their home in Fresno, Calif., to spend a couple of weeks enjoying Coquille's summer resort weather and visiting with old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adamson and their small daughter drove down Saturday from Lebanon. Mrs. Anderson and the baby will visit here for two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kyle.

Mrs. Russell Morgan and Mrs. Earl Hamilton arrived here Sunday to spend two weeks with the V. R. and C. C. McCurdys. Mr. and Mrs. V. R. McCurdy plan to take their back to their home at Hillsboro when the visit ends.

Mrs. Arnold Melby came home Sunday from a two weeks visit in Portland. She returned with her husband and brother, Stan Sherwood. The party stopped on their way home at the Sherwood family reunion near Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Cox and three children, of Portland, spent Monday and Tuesday with Dr. and Mrs. T. DeLaRue.

S. B. Hendricks was able to leave the Coquille Hospital yesterday after having been there since last Friday. He is employed at the plant and was caught on a roll, a slap breaking and fracturing three bones in his right ankle.

Allen Thomas was brought over from Marshfield last Thursday and placed in jail, his bail having been set at $500 by Justice Bolt. Although it was not the only bogus check he passed, the charge was based on one for $2.50 which Lou Blanc cashed.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pointer returned to Coquille last Saturday again to make their home here, he having finished his logging operations at Allegany.

Mrs. C. A. Barton returned Sunday evening from her buying trip for Miss May's Shop to San Francisco. She is planning on remodeling her store on First street and will have built-in display cabinets for her ladies' ready-to-wear.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Barrett, their son, Arch, and grandson, Melvin Steward, returned Sunday evening from a very enjoyable three days' trip. They went north from Roseburg stopping at all the larger places, with Vancouver, Wash., as the most northern point reached. Mr. Barrett says he felt almost as though he were back in their old home in Savannah, Georgia, as they wandered around in Salem and went through the state's capitol building.

Mrs. Merle Kramer and Janie expect to join Mr. Kramer at Prineville, where he is foreman at the Prineville Machine shop of the Gerlinger company, as soon as their home on North Henry is sold. They drove up to Prineville last week with Mr. Kramer to look for a house. Janie plans to enter Maryhurst college this fall.

Mrs. Viola Nicholson and son, Jimmy, of San Francisco, who have been here for the past few weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. A. J. Nussell left here Wednesday night to return to their home

Miss Muriel Davis, clerk in the tax department, returned to work Thursday morning after spending her vacation in Portland and at Mt. Hood.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Kistner were here over the week-end from their home in Portland.

Mrs. A. J. Nussell on Wednesday entertained her daughters, Mrs. John Arnold and Mrs. John Belloni, of Myrtle Point Mrs. Joe Knight, of Eugene, and Mrs. Viola Nicholson, of San Francisco.

Recorder and Mrs. F. G. Leslie left this morning for a few days' visit with relatives in Eugene.

Miss Opal Summers who has been here visiting her brother, Clarence Summers, and family for the past few months, left for her home in Illinois.

Mrs. May Sanders writes the Sentinel from Long Beach, Calif., that she is coming north soon to visit relatives and friends in her old home town. She will be accompanied by a couple of friends.
