Mrs. L. P. Fugelson entertained Wednesday evening at a double birthday party for Mrs. Jack Hultin and Mrs. S. F. Stevens, both of whom celebrated their birthdays on the same day. Along with guests, there were members of the Friendly Dozen club, who gave Mrs. Hultin their fellow club member, a birthday present. To each of the guests of honor, Mrs. Fugelson gave one of the fetching little striped aprons, which are her specialty.

Guests were Mesdames Ralph Harry, S. F. Stevens, Fred Nosler, Alex Mackey, D. B. Kesner and A.

G. Renn of Portland. Friendly Dozen members present included Mesdames Sam Arnold, Sr., Jack Hultin, L. C. Kelley, Fred Wheaton, Grant Wilcox, and Aaron Wilson of Myrtle Point.

Sweetpeas and glads were combined by Mrs. Tom Stevens for the centerpiece at dessert Wednesday evening when she entertained members of her card club for bridge. Mrs. Ray Detlefsen was high scorer for the evening; Mrs. Harold Dey, second; and Mrs. Dennis Wagner, traveling prize. Attending the party were Mesdames Irving Larson, Ray Detlefsen, Craig Perrott, Dennis Wagner, A. D. Elliott, Harold Dey and Harold Stevens.

A delightful surprise party was given Monday evening by Mrs. G. E. Stark for Mrs. Orville Newton, who was celebrating her birthday. Guests at the party and other good friends joined in presenting to Mrs. Newton a dainty Tuscan tea set in the Peach Bloom pattern.

At the party were Mesdames L. W. Oddy, L. P. Fugelson, William J. Peart, Elton Savage, George Taylor, R. B. Knife, Orville Newton, Lee Peterson, Zell Young, Lawrence Kelley, O. Purkey, R. T. Slater and C. D. Minard, and the Misses Dorothy Belle Newton and Donna Dean Boserman.

Mrs. Ted Snyder was a Thursday afternoon hostess when she entertained members of Charta for luncheon and pinocle. Adorning the luncheon table was a beautiful centerpiece of glads, sweetpeas and baby breath. Mrs. Charles Lewis won the first prize; Mrs. Hobart Schaefer was consoled and Mrs. Ernest Pagel won the traveling prize. Guests were Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Schaefer and Mrs. Lee Barkwell. Members present were Mesdames Jay Carter, D. G. Ireland, Ernest Pagel and Edna Stewart.

Driving Tuesday to Langlois for potuck luncheon with Mrs. Albert Wells were members of the Tuesday Pinocle club. Mrs. John Kauffman of Astoria won the first prize; Mrs. A. A. Kyle was second and Mrs. Ted Snyder held traveling honors. Others at the party were Mesdames Ralph Hurlbutt, Jack McLarrin, Roy Wheeler, Charles Lewis, Ben Leatherwood, Loal Hickenbottom and Ed Yarbrough.

Anne Harbison celebrated her 11th birthday Friday evening with a line party at the Roxy. After the show, the girls went to the Roxy confectionery for refreshments. Anne's guests were Colleen Ostrander, Judy Slack, Laura Emily Ruble, Nancy Lee Grant, Rose Marie Peart, Shirley Mellon, Doris Mellon, Donna Mae How and her cousin, Marilyn, from San Francisco.

Guests at a Sunday evening dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. George Burr were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Martindale, Mrs. Roy Adamson, of Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wheeler, Mrs. Ronald Burr and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kyle.

A birthday surprise party was given last Thursday in honor of Mrs. Rosa Wiggins by her daughters, Mrs. Frank DeCosta and Mrs. Don Hultin. After the gifts were opened, refreshments were served to the following guests: Mesdames Bertha Wilson, Roxy Haskins, George Thompson, E. Dunn and the guest of honor, Mrs. Wiggins and the hostesses.

Former residents of Rusk county, Wisconsin, will gather Sunday at Cleawox lake, near Florence, for a picnic. Anyone from that district is cordially invited to attend the picnic and bring a basket lunch. Among the local people who will be going are Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Fugelson, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Alpine and the LaBarges.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Stonecypher and children, of Tule Lake, California, who spent several days here visiting Mrs. Stonecypher's mother, Mrs. William Peart, and her sister, Mrs. Clovis Church, returned home Tuesday morning. They drove over for Alice June, their young daughter, who for the past six weeks has been visiting the Pearts and the Churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simpson and Gene and Lindley are spending this week at Corvallis, where they are visiting Mrs. Simpson's mother, Mrs. Erma Byington, and at Philomath, visiting other friends and relatives.

Fairy Cardwell was pleasantly surprised last Wednesday evening by a small number of friends bearing birthday gifts. Cake and iced punch were served the following guests, Pat Holverstott, Ernestine Batty, Florence Campbell, Lois Morgan, Doris Hadsall, Margie Rae Bumgarten, Janice Osterhout, Gloris Chapman, Paul Cole, Jim Young, Wilton Willey, Mr. and Mrs. Berlyn Billings and son, Dennis.

Arriving in mid-morning, the girls of the Coquille Camp Fire group spent a pleasant day Tuesday with Laura Emily Ruble. They played games outside and later played the piano and sang. Because the day was too warm to enjoy the bonfire party they had planned, the girls came back to Ruble's later in the evening for the bonfire, where they roasted weinies and toasted marshmallows.

Joining with the Camp Fire girls were Laura Emily's two house guests, Patty Geaney and Billy Tuttle, of Aberdeen, Washington. Others present were Marianne Walker, Joanne Cole, Joyce Benham, Velma Coy, Helen Hickam, Joan MacMillan, Sue Gobble, Versie Willis, Louise Terry and Roberta Medley.

B. P. W. Going Up The Rogue Sunday

Pleasure and a money raising project are combining to keep members of the Business and Professional Women's club busy. The finance committee, headed by May Barton, started a rummage sale Sunday at the vacant store in the Bentinger block. The sale will be in progress through Saturday.

A large number of members and friends are deep in plans for a Sunday trip to Agness. Every effort is being made to sign up at least 30 for the excursion so good rates may be secured for the boat trip. The party will leave Gold Beach at 10 a. m. and have dinner at Lowries. Ellen Braxton, chairman of the health committee is in charge of the jaunt.

An annual treat will be repeated Monday evening when members meet at 6:15 with Ruth Beyers for a picnic lunch in the Beyers cabin. The lunch is being planned by the picnic committee headed by Mrs. Beyers. All that members are to bring are their utensils such as plate, cup, spoon and fork.

Royal Neighbors of America To Hold Picnic August 24

According to plans made Wednesday evening by the Royal Neighbors of America, the lodge members and their friends will picnic Sunday, August 24. Mrs. Al Burch, Oracle, conducted the business meeting.
