

Minor Mention

F. S. Emery left yesterday afternoon for Portland, where this morning he was to meet Mrs. F. S. Emery and Betty who have been visiting at their old home in New England for the past six weeks. They are expected to arrive home Saturday or Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Cruckshank returned Tuesday from Portland where they had gone last Saturday to attend a reunion of Mrs. Cruckshank's family on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Toth, of San Francisco, spent the past week here as guests of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houston. They found it foggy all the way up the coast route. They enjoyed the Coquille climate on their first visit here.

Mrs. L. M. McPherson, who had spent the past two months in Emmons, Minn., returned to her home here yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Von Pegert went down to Orland, Calif., last Wednesday to visit her children in that vicinity. On her return she was accompanied by her daughter, Ariel Crook, who had spent the past three months visiting there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lennihan and Michael and Peter, of Pasadena, who parked their trailer in the Wernich orchard, left Monday for a few days' fishing on the Rogue before going on home. The Lennihans visited the Wernichs for four days. They have been on a six weeks' trailer trip through the Northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Shelley, Jr., are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Shelley's sister, Miss Doris Hilscher of Spokane, who arrived here Tuesday from California to visit for a week before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Shockhoff, of Eureka, California, are visiting old friends here. Mr. Shockhoff preceded Lee Peterson as manager of the Russ holdings in this district.

Mrs. Michael McCarthy is entertaining her mother, Mrs. J. O'Connor and her sister, Miss Agnes O'Connor, of San Francisco. They arrived here Saturday to spend several weeks. On Wednesday Mrs. McCarthy and Mrs. Tharon Thornton left with the visitors for a trip to Crater Lake, where they are spending a few days.

Oddfellows and Rebekahs plan to picnic Sunday at La Verne Park. Coffee and cream are being furnished. All members of the two lodges are urged to attend the get-together.

Mrs. William Candlin has as her houseguest this week, Mrs. H. O. Anderson, formerly of Coquille, who now lives in Ashland.

Due to the fact that his fort was captured last week, Jess Barton, Jr., (Corporal) is enjoying ten days at home with his parents.

Mrs. J. E. Axtell is expected home this evening from her four months' trip back to New York city and vicinity. Her sister, Mrs. Edgar Michener, was visiting here when she received word that Mr. Michener had passed away and Mrs. Axtell accompanied her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lamb, of Santa Cruz, Calif., who passed through here on their vacation trip last Friday, stopped a few hours in Coquille to visit with old friends.

Mrs. A. D. Elliott is spending the week in Corvallis, where she is visiting her parents.

Geo. W. Smith was brought over from Marshfield on Tuesday to serve at two dollars per day the $30 fine and costs assessed in justice court there on his conviction on the charge of assault and battery.

Miss Alice Fish, who had been attending summer school at Berkeley for the past month, returned last Thursday from San Francisco. She will teach at Hillsboro this year and expects to leave for there the latter part of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harberd, who left here in 1932 when J. E. Axtell purchased the Title Guarantee & Abstract Co., came in Monday and left for their home in central Idaho on Tuesday. They were on a vacation trip and noted many changes in Coquille since their last visit here five years ago. Mrs. Harberd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gray, who were associated with Mr. Harberd in the abstract business here, have both passed away since leaving here.

O. L. Wood and L. W. Claver returned last evening from a business trip to Portland on which they left Monday. A change in the way of buying pictures, initiated by the government, now requires that motion picture operators buy their films in blocks of five, instead of for the whole year as heretofore, and the local theatre proprietors went up to make their selections and learn more about the new set-up.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. R. Rutledge, accompanied by their grandson, Johnny Levine, left Friday morning for an 18-day vacation trip which will take them as far as Montana. They also plan to visit Mt. Ranier national park and Grand Coulee dam.

Clifford Hudson, 16-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dayne Hudson of Hillsboro, came in last Friday to visit his grandfather and other relatives here and an uncle who lives on upper Sixes river.

Mrs. Gussie Johnson a former Coquille resident whose home is now in National City, Calif., and who had been here visiting her mother, Mrs. Laura Hamilton, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Alma Halter, sailed last Friday to join her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Marshall, who live there.

Mrs. Ralph Hurlbutt was called to Eugene late Wednesday afternoon by the sudden death of her sister, Mrs. Chester Clark, of Coburg. Mrs. Clark visited here just last week. Her death has come as a great shock to her many friends in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cass and daughter Marilee, of Clarkston, Washington, were overnight visitors at the C. C. Farr home last week. They stopped here enroute to Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sandall, who are spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. M. Ernest, of Portland, returned here Wednesday evening after several days at Ten Mile Lake. Today the two couples started on another jaunt. Though their destination was uncertain, they planned to visit Crater Lake and Eureka. Mrs. Ernst is Mr. Sandall's sister.

Donna Dean Bosserman spent the week-end at Portland, where she was bridesmaid at the wedding of her close friend, Miss Betty Beardsley, who on Saturday married Don Lovett.

Mrs. Joyce Owen, one of the Washington school corps of teachers, returned this week from Eugene, where she spent the summer.

A party of ten, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Kennett P. Lawrence and sons, Kennett, Jr., and Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Kesner, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lundquist and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Miller, made the Rogue River trip Saturday, spending the night and part of Sunday at Lucas' Inn at Agness. All reported a highly enjoyable week-end and were unanimous in their praise of the scenic, winding river and the beautiful country surrounding Agness, to say nothing of the fried chicken, huckleberry pie and green corn served them at Lucas' hotel.
