

Junior Womans Club Banquet And Installation

The Junior Women's club banquet and installation of new officers was held at the Coquille Hotel last Tuesday evening at seven o'clock. This was the last meeting of the year and the club has now adjourned until September when new officers will take over.

The meeting was opened by the president, Miss Marjorie Knight, who gave an informal address of welcome and greeting to the members. In a gracious manner Marjorie presented Mrs. J. A. Berg, contact chairman from the senior club, with a stunning corsage of white carnations and fuchsias. Mrs. Berg was thanked for her many kindnesses and interest shown the Juniors throughout the year.

Two gifts and a lovely corsage of Tallman rosebuds were presented to the outgoing president. There was a short business meeting to discuss the U. S. O. drive which will be held June 8. Ten girls volunteered to assist with the drive, with Hazel Moffet, chairman.

The musical program consisted of four classical numbers on the piano, played by Dorothy Beagle, which were greatly enjoyed and appreciated. Ronald Williams contributed two selections on the violin, accompanied by Miss Dae.

A candlelight service was used for the installation of the new officers, who are as follows: Lunelle Chapin, president; Mary Stevens, vice president; Hazel Moffet, secretary; Marjorie Jones, treasurer; Gertrude Swinney, parliamentarian; Grace Greenough, historian.

The tables were decorated with low arrangements of pink weigela and snowballs. In front of the officers was a large bouquet of multi-colored columbine. In the corners of the room were baskets of snowballs and weigela blossoms. The committee in charge of decoration was Dorothy Harris, chairman; Yvonne Kern and Gertrude Swinney.

There was group singing at intervals during the banquet. The meeting closed with the singing of three verses of the national anthem. Those who attended were: Peg Gould, Blanche Sandon, Irene Beadner, Dorothy Harris, Jean Laird, Jeanette Collier, Alberta Brandon, Margaret Belloni, Gladys May, Margaret Stewart, Helen Ayers, Pauline Minton, Mary Lou Guleth, Ruth Clayton, Grace Greenough, Yvonne Kern, Marjorie Knight, Lunelle Chapin, Mary Stevens, Hazel Moffet, Marjorie Jones, Gertrude Swinney, Louise Schroeder, Donna Dean Bosserman, Helen Ann Shaw, Inez Rover, Leah Rover, Georgia Hansen, Alta Matelka, Evelyn Mattoon, Mrs. J. A. Berg.

The outgoing officers are Marjorie Knight, president; Yvonne Kern, vice president; Helen Ayers, secretary; Mary Stevens, historian, and Lunelle Chapin, parliamentarian.

Property Changes Hands

Through the George E. Oerding office, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Newton purchased the home of May H. Burr and Harold Smith at 656 North Coulter. The Newtons own a grocery store in that neighborhood. Harold Smith and his aunt will rent a place close to the downtown district. Mr. Smith is employed at the Western Condensary.

B. P. W. Club Hold Installation

Last Monday evening the B. P. W. Club held their installation of new officers and initiation of new members, who had during the last year joined the club. There were twenty-five new members in all though only fifteen were there to take the obligations. At the Roseburg convention last week-end this club was one of only three in the state to have more than twenty new members for the year.

Viola Newton, chairman of membership, installed the officers for the coming year to take office July 1st. A very impressive candlelight ceremony was used. The women wore formal and each was presented with a lovely corsage. Mrs. Florence Hallock sang the "Golden Key" by Carrie Jacobs Bond. The officers installed were: Ida Oerding, president; Florence Hallock, first vice president; Eva Stevens, second vice president; Cheri Mae Hartwell, secretary, and Florence Barton, treasurer.

Eva Stevens, chairman of the Emblem committee, explained the meaning of the club emblems. Worked out on the stage where the ceremony took place was a representation in the background of the design on the organization pin. Wearing yellow robes with green sashes and green head bands, the girls taking part were Myrtle DeLong, Ethel Roop, Hazel Hanna and Arlene Robertson. Refreshments were served and a short business meeting followed. About sixty members were present.

Mrs. Elwood Weds Wm. R. Oxenrider

Mrs. Belle Elwood, formerly of Coquille, was united to William R. Oxenrider of North Coos River, Sunday, May 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Farr of Marshfield. The bride was lovely in a black lace dinner dress over blue taffeta. She wore pearls and a corsage of lovely pink rose buds.

The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Oxenrider and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Elwood. Rev. W. S. Burgoyne of the Methodist church officiated.

Just before the wedding Rose Zena Latta sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne, who also played the wedding march.

The guests enjoyed chatting and viewing the nice gifts brought and sent by friends.

Mrs. Farr was assisted in serving by Miss Irene Preuss and Miss Eleanor Clark.

Guests were Mesdames W. H. Phillips and Lucy Liles, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oxenrider, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Oxenrider, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Elwood, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Varney, Miss Irene Preuss, Miss Eleanor Clark, Miss Rose Zena Latta, Miss Dorothy Elwood, Miss Ruby Wright, Raymond Elwood, H. L. Varney, Eugene Goude.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Oxenrider will reside on the Coos River farm.

First Class Private Wm. H. Cummings, of Coquille, Oregon, who is stationed at MacDill Field, Tampa, Florida, largest heavy bombardment air base in the southeast, was promoted to the rank of Corporal, the Public Relations Office announced this week.

Marvel Skeels In New York Recital

Mrs. M. O. Hawkins has received a most interesting program from a recital held in New York, May 5, sent her by her former music pupil, Marvel Skeels, daughter of Mrs. Birdie Skeels of Coquille. Miss Skeels returned from several years study in Europe in 1937, and has been continuing her music career in the east since then. Some time ago she was singing in light opera in New York. The program just received is one from a recital series, featuring jointly Marvel Skeels, contralto and Norman Foster, pianist. It carries also a lovely photograph of the singer, showing that in her more mature years she retains the same beauty as was hers as a young girl here in Coquille.

The members are in three groups, the first are arias from opera "Orpheus" in Italian; the second group of four in German and third group, five selection in English.

The recital was held in Barbizon Recital hall on Lexington ave, at 63rd street, a most reminiscent address to anyone familiar with down town New York.

The kind of music you like to dance to, at Eagles Hall every Saturday night. Eagles, their families and lady friends invited. tt

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

You ought to meet my friend, Will Dudley. I suppose Will must be seventy-eight or nine... but you'd never know it. He's tall and lean and hard as a hickory. And although the only formal education he ever had was a few winters in the old red schoolhouse, I think that he's the wisest man I know in many ways.

For one thing, Will taught me the value of what he calls "Just a-settin'!"

Come upon Will in the evening, when his hard day's work is done, and you'll find him "just a-settin'," in a rocker on his porch. In one hand he'll have his old briar pipe and in the other, a tall cool glass of beer.

"Wholesome, appetizing beer," says Will, "is standard equipment for proper settin'! Puts a feller in an easy-goin' peaceful mood."

You see, Will holds the theory that in our present mixed-up world, a man needs a quiet hour every day. An hour in which to sit down quietly and restore his strength and courage.

Will thinks, and I agree with him, that a man ought to forget all his own and the world's worries during that hour-of-peace. And Will feels that a glass of fragrant melow beer helps most to bring you quiet relaxation.

Show me the man who sits down quietly at an evening with his glass of beer and I'll show you a man who is wise in the ways of living. Such men, like Will Dudley, live to a ripe old age, unembittered by the troubles of the world. They seem to remain, all their lives, sweet-natured and kindly.

Time has a way of rendering accurate judgments on the value of all things, and one can enjoy the world. And time... thousands of years of it... has handed down the verdict that beer is a pleasant and worthy companion for all men of good will.

Joe Marsh
