Unstinted Praise For Necessities Unit's Demonstration

sheet prepared by Mr. Bedingfield and which was opened by Mr. Stelle, Coquille general chairman of the Necessities Division, at seven o'clock.

After the reading, the various units went into action and all of them efficiently demonstrated what they would do if Mr. Bedingfield's problem, which read as follows, had happened:

Weather: Light northwest wind, clear, hot, low humidity.
Time: Three p. m.

Enemy planes dropped incendiary bombs in East Coquille and along Coast Range last night. Forest fires burning uncontrolled at many places between Roseburg and Coquille and south to Rogue river. All roads east out of Coquille closed. No traffic permitted from Coquille south on either road. Two areas in Coquille, east of city hall are burning uncontrolled but can be kept east of business section of town.

All residents have been removed from area east of Hall street, on account of fire and unexploded bombs.

Eight dead and thirty injured are taken care of by medical section.

Roads to Bandon and Marshfield open but traffic restricted to police, army and relief work.

Power and telephone services are O. K.

Water service crippled—all available water from city system is being used to fight fire.

Housing: Estimated 1,000 to be housed tonight and until fires controlled.

Food: Fifteen hundred to be fed for 24 hours or more. This includes firemen and police.

Clothing: 50 children; 100 women and 25 men; each requires one or more clothing articles.

Mrs. Fred Kunz reported on the canteen's work and the recent serving of 100 people in nine minutes—not months—and Mrs. Clarence Arney told of the splendid accomplishments of the canteen groups of which she was instructor.

George Gratke told of the arrangements made for housing the hundreds whose homes had been destroyed, in halls and in private homes. J. S. Barton reported on the arrangements for clothing for those who had lost their all, and Mrs. Gladys Gano reported on what had been done in the way of registering all those who had been deprived of their homes.

In this connection it should be impressed on the minds of everyone that should a catastrophe strike, that anyone leaving Coquille should register name and where he or she is going before leaving town. This will prevent a "missing" report to inquiring friends or relatives at a distance.

All in all, the reports made by the unit chairmen showed that Coquille is splendidly organized for sustenance and help following a disaster, and the praise given the groups by the visitors here last Friday evening was most deserved. And it has taken a lot of work to line the duties up so carefully that every helper will know exactly what to do in an emergency.

Word Comes From Robert Collier In Australia

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Collier received a cablegram on Tuesday from their son, Robert, who is in Australia. Robert left this coast on Feb. 28 and his family heard from him for the first time on May 2. A letter, however, written June 7, came through in good time when it was received here June 22. In this letter Robert writes that camp conditions are good, the food is good and he is receiving his letters and packages. He says the people are kind to the service men and, as it is in England, there is both morning and afternoon tea. He spoke of the headache which they experienced at first before they became familiar with the Australian money. Gordon Neal, another Coquille boy who is in Australia, is all right and enjoys reading home news in the Sentinel.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. Woodyard And Mr. Ruble Honored By Order Eastern Star

Members of Beulah Chapter, O. E. S. enjoyed a very interesting meeting last Thursday evening, with degrees and reports from Grand Chapter. The Chapter room was beautifully decorated with huge baskets of flowers. Candidates were initiated into the order and expressed their appreciation for membership.

Maxine Jeub, grand Electa, and Bess Maury, grand representative of Rhode Island, were presented with beautiful corsages. Mrs. Jeub gave a short talk which was most interesting. The day was the birthday of the Worthy Patron, Julius Ruble, and five brothers conferred a degree on him, entitled, "The Neglected Men."

Mrs. Maud Woodyard was honored because of her faithful service to Beulah Chapter. As a tribute of affection for her, Gertrude Ulett, in her gracious manner and with an appropriate poem, presented Mrs. Woodyard with handkerchiefs from members of the Chapter. A song, dedicated to Mrs. Woodyard was sung by the choir while she was still in the east with Sister Gertrude. The song, composed by Florabelle Boober, was sung to the tune of "Down the Long, Long Trail."

Following adjournment of the meeting, refreshments of coffee and cake were served in the banquet room. There were three large birthday cakes in honor of Mr. Ruble and the tables were well decorated with flowers.

Pot Luck Dinner and Pinochle

The potluck dinner and card party last Saturday night, held at the home of Mrs. Ellis Martindale, was well attended. Pinochle was played and Ruby Johnson received high score for the ladies and Ernie Johnson high score for the men. Mr. Johnson also won the door prize. Nellie Martindale was low and Mrs. Al Burch won at pinochle. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Ernie Johnson, Al Burch, Mart Sherrard, Guy Torrey, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Mulder, Mrs. Chas. Lewis and Mrs. Wm. Gaffey.

Tauk-an-So Club

Something quite different in refreshment serving was a surprise Mrs. Clyde Clark had last Thursday night when she entertained the Tauk-an-So club at her home. Cellophane bags, with colored candy suckers ribbon-tied at the top, contained paper cups of potato salad, sandwiches and ice-box cookies. Very pretty and tempting we are told they were with coffee on the side.

There was a door prize which went to Mrs. Mart Sherrard. High score and pinochle went to Mr. Ellis Martindale and low score to Mrs. Wm. Jones. Present were Mesdames Lonnie Clark, M. D. Sherrard, Al Burch, Wm. Jones, Tom Erickson, Ellis Martindale, Ernest Batty, Henry Belloni and the hostess.

A picnic party last Sunday was made up of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bosserman, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Zeigler, Jean Laird and Donna Dean Bosserman. The day was spent at the Rock Creek ranch of Mrs. Leona Bryant.

The B. P. W. benefit card party was held last Monday night at the Parish House after a week's postponement because of the dim-out. There were close to sixty people present and socially the party was a complete success. Jean Laird, the Victory Girl, sponsored by this club, the Civic Club and the Junior Woman's Club, appeared and was given an introduction from the stage by Mrs. Bosserman. High scores at bridge went to Mrs. Mary McKeown, Mrs. Frank Thrift and Fred Hudson. At contract rummy Mrs. Chas. Stauff and Mrs. Ralph Taylor won prizes. At Chinese Checkers, Mrs. G. W. Tyrrell, Henry Lorenz and Mrs. Hollimon were winners. Mrs. H. W. Pierce was high at cribbage.

Mrs. Fugelson Entertains Executive Council of W.S.C.S.

Last Thursday Mrs. Joe Fugelson entertained the executive council of the Women's Society of Christian Service at her home in Sanford Heights. The sewing club of the W. S. C. S. attended also and much of the time was spent sewing for the bazaar to be held this coming fall.

A potluck luncheon was served at noon to the following: Mesdames Minard, Garrison, Ireland, Nelson, ... Bogard, Schram, McCurdy, Way, Davis, Herbert Wood, Savage, Taylor, E. Purvance, Wm. Peart, Hattie Shelly and the hostess.

More than 200,000,000 board feet of insulating materials will be needed this year for the cold-storage plants of military cantonments, packing plants, creameries, ice-cream plants and commercial refrigerators.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.
