

Minor Mention

Mrs. T. B. MacDonald left the first of this week to spend a month with her sister in Ashland. When she returns she will live in the house she and Mr. MacDonald had built and were fitting up for occupancy before his death.

Misses Lunelle Chapin and Marjorie Jones, C. H. S., instructors, arrived here Saturday morning, after leaving Salem at four o'clock, in time to ride on the Bachelor Girls' float in the parade.

Miss Ann Hawkins, who was here for the double holiday, was accompanied Sunday afternoon on her return to Salem, by Rolfe Fuhrman, who had been down on the Sixes ranch and was going to Portland to get a job for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Lawrence arrived here Sunday from Oakland, Calif., to spend his two weeks' vacation at the home of his brother, K. P. Lawrence. Due to Mrs. Lawrence's recent operation, they came up on the train and "Count" met them at Eugene. It was 19 years ago that Ned left Coquille and he has been with the same concern, the Smith Lumber Co., in Oakland ever since. He says that 95 per cent of their business now is filling government orders and that every order is for spot delivery, wanted "right now."

Loren Salisbury, who has been working in a body shop at Puyallup, Wash., for the past two months, came down last Thursday to move his family up there. He had to buy a place in order to have somewhere to live.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Greenough had expected their son, Harrison, and wife here for the Fourth but after receiving a wire that he could not get away they decided to spend the holiday at Mrs. Greenough's old home in Astoria. They left Friday evening and Frank says that on the 33-mile stretch from Newport to Otis there was a continuous flow of traffic southbound, with only one or two times when the oncoming cars were as much as 500 feet apart. It was practically a continuous string with 50 feet or less clearance between cars.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Brown returned from their vacation Thursday of last week. Mrs. Erwin Waite and children accompanied them.

Wm. Pook, brother of Frank A. Pook, Southern Pacific agent here, came in last Friday from Seattle for a week's visit at the Pook home here.

Mrs. Maud Woodyard and Ray moved this week to Eugene, where they will make their home henceforth. The latter is feeling much better all the time since his return from Salem, more like the Ray of five years ago.

Geo. R. Witter, formerly manager of the Safeway store here who has been in the Roseburg store for the past year or more, has been transferred by the company to its Dallas store.

Dick Vinton, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vinton who formerly lived here on South Coulter street, was a Coquille visitor from Portland on the 4th.

The county court on Tuesday granted a leave of absence for the duration to Kenneth Lane, employee in the county highway department, who will join the army.

Charles Henry Carson, charged with disorderly conduct, was given a 30-day suspended jail sentence by Justice Barton here last Friday. His was the only name on the blotter in the sheriff's office the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Graham were greeting old friends here on the Fourth. They are now living at Charleston on the Bay, where he is engaged in deep sea fishing.

House guests over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Butler, Lynn Black and Lewis Bradford, all of Eugene and old friends of Mr. Ruble.

Mrs. Ed McKeown received a telephone call from her son Patrick, last week, telling her that he was leaving for Virginia.

Jim Agostino, arrested a couple of weeks ago by the city police after he had been driving at excessive speeds, ignoring a stop sign, pleaded guilty to the charge of reckless driving in city police court Monday morning and was fined $50 by Recorder Leslie, which he paid.

For Sale—Nice, fat, dressed beef, (Whiteface and Durham), reasonable price by the 1/4 or 1/2. J. L. Smith, Phone 568R.

Mrs. George Chaney and son, Paterson, left on Tuesday for a short stay in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dimmick were in Coquille and Marshfield during the weekend. Mr. Dimmick is starting a new fir operation in northern California, 50 miles this side of Eureka. Mr. Dimmick left for California today.

Lee Roy Kolkhorst who came in last Tuesday from Chico, Calif., where he is with the air force, and surprised his mother, left again on Friday, taking his fishing boat back with him.

Neil McGilvery, who has been in the Army for the past year and at several forts and posts, is now stationed at Fort Lewis. He was able to get a short furlough last week, arriving home Saturday evening and leaving for his post again Sunday afternoon.

Ernest Clausen, who was here from his Broadbent ranch Monday morning, said that he was making the most of the present dry days getting in his hay, although he has to do it alone, help on the farm being practically extinct.

George Ulett, Jr., and Miss Pearl Lawrence, both of whom are attending the medical school in Portland, came in last Friday night and were guests at the Ulett home on Second street until Sunday.

Gordon Lawrence and Jack Axtell were taken out to Eugene last Friday by K. P. Lawrence to attend the Scout camp east of Eugene for a couple of weeks.

C. G. Caughell and Larry Lundquist will represent the Coquille Rotary club at the district conference to be held in Bellingham, Wash., this coming week-end. They intend leaving for there tomorrow night.

Miss Pat Holverstott was in Coquille for a few days the last of the week, having come down from Seattle on Thursday.

Marianne Axtell with her cousin, Anne Michener, arrived from Portland Wednesday morning. Marianne will be home for the rest of the summer. Miss Michener will be here for a week's visit. Betty Axtell returned home also on Wednesday. She has been employed in Salem, but expects to leave soon for San Francisco.

Mrs. Joe Knight was here from Eugene last week-end. Joanne Knight has started work in the Tip Top.

Glenda Ginton will leave for Portland as soon as Dr. Bunch returns. She will enter Northwestern School of Business. Evelyn Gano, daughter of Mrs. Gladys C. Gano, is already registered at Northwestern, having left here for Portland a week and a half ago. The girls will be together in the Whitney Apartments which cater exclusively to business women. Both Glenda and Evelyn were 1942 high school graduates. Glenda is the daughter of Mrs. Minnie Clinton of Sanford Heights.

Mrs. Joe Knight was here from Eugene last week-end. Joanne Knight has started work in the Tip Top.

Resurfacing The East Fork Road

Rapid reconstruction of the East Fork road, the old Coos Bay Wagon Road, has been going ahead since the rains stopped and it will be surfaced its entire length in Coos and Douglas counties before fall, thus furnishing an emergency route, if it is ever needed, for leaving the Coquille valley. The road has been widened and trucks are now hauling gravel from the quarry near Sitkum to the reconstructed roadway.
