Thursday Bridge Club

Mrs. T. K. Foss entertained at her home last Thursday with a luncheon for members and guests of the Thursday Bridge club. The use of hydrangeas for decorations gave a striking effect. Substitute guests were Mrs. Tallant Greenough and Mrs. Don McNery who won first and second high score in the order named. Members present were Mesdames George Maynard, E. L. Peterson, Stanley Ayres, L. B. Gould and Henninger.

Dorcas Division Meets

The Dorcas Division of the Church of Christ met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Walter Newton. The meeting started with a pot-luck luncheon. In the absence of Mrs. Vern Bailey, the vice president, Mrs. Amos Payne presided. Three more quilts were started, to add to the store of quilts this group plans to have on hand for local emergency need. Mrs. McCullough led the devotions with the subject, "Faith." The class will meet again the first Thursday in September, when they will start three more quilts.

Present were Mesdames Guy Kelley, Harold McCue, C. R. Butler, Irvyn McKee, Paul Simpson, W. A. Sloan, Brockmann, Luther Daniels, Lena Harmon, Miss Jennie Lafferty.

Birthday Surprise

Mrs. Harriet Osika was pleasantly surprised at eight o'clock last Wednesday evening by a group of her relatives who came bearing gifts and refreshments to help her celebrate her birthday. A lovely pink and white birthday cake received special attention. The group was made up of Mesdames Pauline Harvey, Grace Hatcher, Inez Chase, Georgia Richmond, Peg Gould and Miss Genevieve Chase.

Mrs. Lillian McLarrin Wins In Two-Club Golf Tournament

Ladies' day at the Golf club was last Friday when members spent the day and competed in a two-club tournament. Mrs. Lillian McLarrin won the prize. At the noon luncheon meeting, plans were made for a picnic to be held this coming Friday evening at the club house. The occasional is to be one at which it is hoped the new members will make a special effort to take in. This will be a good time to get acquainted and also to help with some of the work on the course to be undertaken the same evening by the men members. The women's work for the evening will be that of providing a good pot-luck supper.

Mrs. George Oerding Hostess At Dinner Party

Mrs. George Oerding gave a dinner party for her niece, Miss Marcia Swerking, last Thursday evening at her home. Fifteen friends and relatives were guests. Miss Swerking, whose home is in San Bernardino, California, has been visiting at her aunt's home here for the past six weeks. She left for her home on the Friday midnight bus in answer to a telegram to report for duty Monday morning for her new position in the Civil Service. Miss Swerking graduated from San Bernardino high school last June.

Anne Harbison Has Birthday

A really wonderful time was had by all who attended the birthday celebration for Anne Harbison last Saturday afternoon and evening. A scavenger hunt which started at two p. m. kept the girls very busy until five o'clock the hour when dinner was served. A game which called for pinning blindfolded, the paper candles on a paper cake was won by Alene Hunt. The birthday cake was pink and yellow with table decorations in the same two colors.

Following dinner the group went to the show and for wearing there a yellow and pink corsage was presented to each girl. Sitting at the table with the other guests and enjoying the party with gasps and exclamations was no other than Bobbie, baby brother of the honor guest. When he is old enough to know we hope he reckons with some for the Zwieback he ate while the others did justice to a banquet.

The girls present were besides the Hostess, Sally Bonney, Joan Savage, Marion Moore, Alene Hunt, Betty Steele, Rosa Marie Peart, Betty Pruesler. First prizes for the scavenger hunt went to Anne and Sally and second prizes were won by Joan Savage and Marion Moore.

Four Year Old Has Party

A red, white and blue color scheme was in keeping with the times in which little Sharon Kay Irwin celebrated her fourth birthday last Tuesday. The little honor guest was charming as she opened her gifts. Invited were Nancy Fry, Le Anna Pownder, Sharon Giles, Joan McNair, David McNair, Wayne Hartley, Beverly Hartley, Valitia Batty, Janie Hawkins, Mesdames Constance Pownder, Edith McNair, Zoe Livingston and Mrs. Dorothy Irwin, the hostess.

Good Crowd At Eagles Picnic

The Coquille Eagles picnic last Sunday, at the Cherry creek park near McKinley, was well attended, several Eagles' families from Marshfield being present also. Ice cream, pop and coffee were furnished by the lodge and nearly everyone came early and stayed late.

Defense stamps were given as prizes for the races which included both grown-ups and youngsters as contestants. The Eagles reporter says that the umpire was so biased in his decisions that the ball game was called off before the nine innings had been played.

The next social affair will be tomorrow (Friday) night, for which the committee has prepared a good program. There will also be dancing and a feed and as it is guest night each member is expected to bring a guest.

Several new members are to be initiated and all members are urged to come out. Prizes are also being offered in the membership drive which is now on and the reporter suggests that each member bring a candidate.

West Coast Romance Culminates In East

Interesting news from the east came Tuesday morning in a telegram to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Barton from their son, Second Lieutenant Jesse Barton, Jr. The wire told of his marriage to Miss Frances Hosey of Astoria on Monday morning, Aug. 10 at St. Peters Cathedral in Columbia South Carolina. Miss Hosey visited the Barton family for a week just recently and it had been hoped the wedding might have been on the Coast. However, as Jesse received his commission as Second Lieutenant on Aug. 5, with no furlough privilege, Miss Hosey flew east and following the ceremony the young couple left for Ft. Buckley at Durham, North Carolina, where they will be stationed. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Barton enjoyed a telephone call from their son last week from South Carolina.

Aileen Kendall Married In South

A recent wedding of interest to Coquille friends was that of Miss Aileen Kendall to LeRoy Fitzgerald, which occurred last Saturday night at San Diego, California. The marriage was solemnized in the Normal Heights Methodist church with Rev. E. H. Longbreak officiating, with the double ring ceremony. Miss Kendall was attended by her sister, Mrs. Leo Stamper, the former Audrey Kendall, who acted as matron of honor. She was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. Leo Stamper. Mr. Harry Pick, of San Diego, was best man.

The bride wore a costume of Unity blue velvet and carried gardenias and brides roses. Mrs. Stamper was costumed in an ensemble of rose color.

The church was decorated with white gladiolus, white dahlias and white tapers.

Mr. Fitzgerald is a P. B. X. telephone operator for the Southwestern Telephone company. The young couple went to Laguna Beach for the honeymoon and will be at home at 4734 East Mountain View Drive, San Diego.

Firemen Honor Geo. R. Holbrook

After the Control Centre session last Friday evening the firemen of the Coquille department gave a party in the firemen's room in honor of the retiring assistant chief, Geo. R. Holbrook, who is leaving today for Birmingham, Utah. Mr. Holbrook has been a very valuable member of the department, and he was presented with a gift by the fire boys.

To succeed him as assistant chief Pat McLarrin has been named; the department heads now being Ted Snyder, chief; Pat McLarrin, assistant chief; LeRoy Swinney, second assistant and secretary.

Rotary Party At Laurel Lake

Seventy-five or more Coquille men were in attendance at the Rotary party held at the cabin of J. Arthur Berg on Laurel Lake last Thursday evening. Besides the Rotarians, the Coquille Lions Club members and other business men here had been invited, and it was a jolly affair which lasted into the wee small hours. As was to be expected the vocalizing was led by D. E. Rackleff, with many others helping make the air ring with patriotic, popular and old time songs.
