

Minor Mention

Mrs. Bernadean Wilson and daughters, Margaret Ann and Helen, who had spent two weeks at Laurel Lake, were here Saturday and Sunday as guests at the A. H. Grimes home. They went over to Marshfield Monday and after a short stay there will leave for their home in Portland.

A note from Geo. R. Holbrook, former manager of the Western Condensing plant here, who left with his family a couple of weeks ago for Utah, asks that the Sentinel be sent to Milwaukie, Ore. He did not say what he is doing there.

Hal R. Clark, Los Angeles attorney, who has been here several times the past year and hopes to be interested in a development of the Coquille valley which is as yet in an embryo stage, came in by bus Tuesday afternoon to look after some affairs for his partner, J. C. Fryer.

Mr. and Mrs. Tallant Greenough and Mrs. F. L. Greenough left last Friday morning for Seattle where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Greenough. Tallant went up to consult officials in regard to entering the service. They arrived home very early yesterday morning and report a great deal of rain Tuesday afternoon in Washington, the hardest downpour being as they crossed the Longview bridge.

Rex Gaslin, who is in the Army and stationed at Fort Stevens on the Columbia river, spent a short furlough with his sister here recently.

Mrs. Minnie D. Tibbett who left Arago a couple of weeks ago, after visiting her daughter there, says that she stopped over on her way to southern California, at Oakdale to help harvest the peach crop. She says the Modesto business men closed their places of business for a day to help gather the crop as the army and navy want lots of peaches.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Slack and Harry, Jr., left Sunday morning to spend a week at Lava Lake, southwest of Bend, fishing and vacationing. Mr. Slack was to meet his daughter, Judy, who had been visiting in Portland and the east and who was to fly to Eugene to join them, Monday.

Stanley D. Warren, formerly of Coquille, who has been in the Army for some time, was last week made a captain. He is stationed at Fort Douglas, near Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Perrott and daughter returned last Friday from Medford, where he had been working on the cantonment. After a week or two visit at home, he expects to leave on another job and anticipates that his draft number will be up early next year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Oerding enjoyed a week-end visit from Mr. and Mrs. Lester McCann and daughter, Peggy, of Sacramento, who stopped on their way north to Athena, Oregon. Mr. McCann is Mrs. Oerding's cousin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Henningey returned Tuesday evening from a few days vacation spent at the mouth of Rogue river.

Mrs. Ida May Pointer, who has been in Portland for several months, returned to Coquille last evening. Being unable to leave her home, she will be much pleased to have her friends come in and see her.

Mrs. Rosa Naef, of Naef Station, and Mrs. George Parker, of Lakeside, were guests last week at the Harold Stromquist home. Mrs. Naef was here especially for the baptism of her only grandchild, Franklin Harold Stromquist.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Perrott arrived here recently to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Perrott. Lynn enlisted last week in the Marine Corps and is expecting to be inducted into the corps this week. Mrs. Perrott plans to remain here for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Paulson were here Saturday and Sunday from their home in Oswego, stopping to visit the Guy Mauney family on their trip to northern California and Diamond Lake, in Oregon.

Dean Genevieve Chase returned Wednesday morning from a week and a half visit in Portland where she visited friends.

Gwen Elrod spent a day in Portland on business the first of the week. She went up by train.

Attention—Students Coquille High School. To save paper you may now use 3-hole Note Book Paper. Get your covers and paper at Barrow Drug Co.

Dean Genevieve Chase, who has been here for the past three weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. Inez Chase, left Monday morning for Garden City, Long Island.

Mrs. Kenneth Miller and her mother, Mrs. L. H. Williams, returned Tuesday morning from a two-week visit in Seattle with Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. Eldon Kieser. While in the north they spent a few days with Mrs. Williams' son, Harold Williams, a member of the Army Air Corps stationed at Yakima.

Mrs. J. LeRoy Starr and small daughter, Barbara Anne, are spending two weeks at Mofalla, where they are visiting relatives.

Drue Cunningham left Monday morning for Nampa, Idaho, to spend a few days looking after his farm near that city.

Dr. T. De La Rhue returned several days ago from Great Falls, Montana, where he spent three weeks visiting Mrs. De La Rhue and other friends and relatives. Mrs. De La Rhue had planned to return here with the doctor but changed her plans and will not be here for several weeks.

Several local couples enjoyed a day of boating, swimming and hiking Sunday, when they drove to Lakeside. In the party were Messrs. and Mesdames Stanley Ayers, Ludwig Scharfer, Clarence Arney, Ted Foss and Rev. and Mrs. George Turney, of Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Lanis Bosworth left Tuesday morning for Seattle, taking the former's grandson, Jeffrey Wood, home to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wood. They expected to return to Coquille today.

The J. A. Berg family enjoyed a visit of a couple of days last week from his mother, Mrs. A. Berg, of Portland, her daughter Miss Sue, and granddaughter, Miss Susan Wilkes.

Mrs. Alma Halter, who has been staying with her son, Raymond, at Seattle for the past five months, came home last week. Her daughter, Mrs. Vernon Brockmann whose husband is in the Navy, will stay with her for the present but will later join her husband when he is located where he will be sent to school for eight months as radio technician.

Mrs. Jack Dolan, chairman of the Coquille Salvage committee, went out to Klamath Falls on Monday, expecting to return Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Allen returned Tuesday evening from a week's visit in Portland with their son, Lloyd Allen and his family.

Ellen Braxton returned Sunday from a visit of several weeks with her parents at Boise, Idaho. During the trip, she spent some time at Sun Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Eaton left this morning on a jaunt to Vallejo, California, where their son, H. A. Eaton, and family live. The Eatons expect to be gone a week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mather returned Tuesday evening from a week's visit in Portland and Seattle. They were joined at Portland, after a visit with their son, Francis Mather, by Mrs. Mather's sister, Miss Winifred Doyle, who drove on to Seattle with them, where they visited their son, Bernard Mather, who is taking naval ordnance instruction at Sand Point Naval Air Station.

For the information of her friends here, it can be stated that Miss Jean Young who has been employed in San Francisco for several years, is moving this week-end to Portland, where she will be employed in a Pontiac agency office.

Robert J. Jarger, formerly cashier in the local Mt. States Power Co. office, but for the past two years in Albany, has enlisted as a yeoman in the Navy and is waiting his call.

The state police picked up George Glen Rigby, of Bridge, on the highway near Norway Monday, charging him with being drunk on the public highway. After a night in the county jail he was taken to Justice Dodge's court in Myrtle Point where he pleaded guilty and made arrangements to pay his fine.

Nice fat 2-year old Beef, reasonably priced if ordered now; by the half or quarter. Phone 56R. J. L. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Oerding and Charles Oerding left Monday morning for a visit of several days in Portland. Business and the prospect of a visit with John Oerding took them north.

Phyllis Belloni will leave Assessor Chas. Forrest's office this week to start work Saturday in the Mountain States Power company office. She is taking the place of Sara Margaret Anderson, who will teach at Riverton this year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Barton returned this morning from a business trip to Portland and Seattle, on which they left last Thursday.

School books and supplies at Barrow Drug Co. Leather Zippers and heavy cover loose-leaf Note Books.

Jim Richmond returned Sunday from summer school at the University, where he completed a course in physics, preparation for Air Corps communications. He plans to spend several weeks here with his parents Dr. and Mrs. James Richmond.

James Calkins is a new employee of the O. K. Rubber Welders on Taylor street.

Mrs. Oliver H. Clarke, accredited music teacher of Myrtle Point, will teach in Coquille on Thursdays. Location of studio will be announced next week. Anyone desiring to arrange for lessons can call Mrs. Clarke at Myrtle Point, 90J, or leave word with Mrs. Hazel Hanna, Coquille, 11*

Mr. and Mrs. Les Child are over here today from Grants Pass, where they spend the major portion of the time.

Just arrived—New sixteen gored school skirts in good sturdy materials and only $2.98. See them at Hallocks Dress Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Biegger returned Monday evening from a business trip of several days in Portland.

New School Sweaters 100 per cent Wool, Slip Over and Coat Styles and in a wide color range. Buy them at Hallocks-Dress Shop.

Gifts for men in the service must be compact. Norton's have just received a stock of useful kits in khaki for the boys. Shop early and pick out your gifts now. Button shining kits, shoe shining kits, toilet articles, service memory books, writing portfolios, mending kits, money belts, etc.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Bill MacKnight Buys Paper At Preston, Idaho. Mrs. R. E. Harbison this week received a letter from Mrs. W. F. MacKnight informing her that Mr. MacKnight, for a year associated in the publication of the Sentinel, has purchased a weekly paper, The Citizen, at Preston, Idaho, where they are now making their home.

Get your School Books and Supplies at Barrow Drug Co. Three hole Note Book covers may be used this year.

Glass Brick Vases at Gregg Hardware.

Headquarters School Books

SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Fountain Pens - Pencils - Tablets - Inks
School Lunch Kits - Note Book Covers
Leather Zipper Covers

LOTS TO CHOOSE FROM

OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL 8:00

Fuhrman's Pharmacy

We're Never Just Out

FRI. SAT. SUN. . . . . AUGUST 28 - 29 - 30

2 Class A FEATURES!

Something New Has Been Added to a Great Young Star!

She's a rug-cutting jitter bug who's hep to the jive... she's the grand new Queen of the 'Teens, dancing, romancing her way right into your heart!

ANNIE ROONEY
SHIRLEY TEMPLE
WILLIAM GARDAN - GUY UMBRICH
DICKIE MOORE and PEGGY BRAD

FEATURE NO. TWO

WICH WALL ST. WIDOW IS STRANGELY SLAIN!
PLAYBOY IS SUSPECT IN MOTHER'S MURDER!
Cops Grill History, Hurdles to Top Mystery Case!

RALPH BELLAMY
MARGARET LINDSEY
AS MIMI POSTER

It's his biggest one... and your biggest thrill!

NEWS - CARTOON - MATINEE, SAT.

LIBERTY

ROXY

THUR. FRI. SAT. . . . . AUG. 27-28-29

PEOPLE LIVE IN SHANGHAI FOR MANY REASONS... most of them bad!

Rich in its lashing action... set against the lurid background of Shanghai, the City of Sin. Here is great entertainment! Don't miss it!

Dr. Omar—unscrupulous, fascinating—planning Poppy's destruction!

ARNOLD PRESSBURGER presents

THE SHANGHAI GESTURE

From the celebrated play by JOHN COLTON
starring GENE TIERNEY
WALTER HUSTON • VICTOR MATURE • MARY MURPHY
with PHYLLIS BROWN
ALBERT BARKMAN • MARIA GUSPENSKAYA
Directed by JOSEF VON STERNBERG
RELEASED THROUGH UNITED ARTISTS

Plus MARCH OF TIME
"Men in Washington"

SUN. MON. TUE. . . . . AUG. 30-31-1

EVERY ECSTATIC MOMENT WRITES A BOLD NEW CHAPTER IN SCREEN HISTORY!

Im taking you for better... Drake... I've seen the worst there is... What was the strange secret of the girl who could never have what she wanted?

ANN SHERIDAN
ROBERT CUMMINGS-REAGAN-FIELD making every word, every scene live on the screen, in

KINGS ROW

The Town They Talk of in Whispers

WARNER BROS. NEW SUCCESS with CHARLES COBURN
Claude Rains - Judith Anderson - Nancy Coleman
KAAREN VERNE - MARIA GUSPENSKAYA - HARRY DAVENPORT

MATINEE SUN. 1:45
LATEST NEWS EVENTS

WED. SEPT. 2 BARGAIN NIGHT

HIT TUNES LAUGHS
THE CAMPUS ROMANCING & DANCING

"Sweater Girl"

With "Fleet's In" EDDIE BRACKEN
Betty Rhodes June Preisser

ADULTS 11c 25c * LATEST NEWS CARTOON