The bride, wearing a suit of Airforce blue with blue fox collar, matching hat and navy accessories, was given away by her father. Pinned to her suit was a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds. Miss Myers was attended by her sister, Gladys Myers, who wore a red suit with black accessories and back hat and a corsage of white gladioli and red rosebuds. Bill Parry was the best man.

Elwyn Nosler, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Harry, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." The altar was banked with candles and bouquets of pastel shaded gladioli.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the apartment taken by the young couple at 120 East First street. Wedding and reception guests included Messrs. and Mesdames W. H. Myers, L. E. Eighty Masons Hear The Grand Master

There were upwards of 100 members of the Masonic order who sat down to the enjoyable banquet in Masonic Temple here last Saturday night after the official visit by Grand Master Clarence D. Phillips, of Portland, in the lodge room above.

The grand master was accompanied on his visit here by Grand Master Enoch B. Carlson and Elbert Bede, editor of the Masonic Analyst and was met here by Ray McNair, district deputy grand master for this district, from Bandon. The more distant lodges in the district were not represented at the meeting, probably due to the dim-out regulations and possibly to the tire situation, but the Myrtle Point, Bandon, North Bend and Marshfield lodges were represented.

The grand master made a very interesting talk touching on various subjects relating to the order and to the worldwide conflict in which so many Masons are taking part. He suggested that each lodge should have an honor roll displayed in the lodge rooms showing the names of members in the service.

A Solider Writes About Conscientious Objections

"I am a conscientious objector to warfare, to fighting. Fighting is probably the most detestable of the barbaric traits which have continued to be prevalent through all stages of civilization. Fighting serves no good purpose and is an act in defiance of Divine will for it is an attempt to incapacitate either wholly or partially, the human body; the temple of the soul which should be protected and revered as an organ for Divine service.

"We find that these objections must at times be relegated to a place of secondary importance for reasons. Since fighting is still common there are times when one must fight in order to defend his honor. One of these times is when security of one's country is imperiled. If we have so lived as to bring about conditions making a war inevitable then we must accept the consequences without regard to individual ideals.

"One may judge a war to be unjustified or unnecessary but the opinion of an individual must necessarily be ignored and the decision of those in authority respected. It is to be assumed that the nation's leaders have acted according to their best judgment. Each person is obligated to assume his position in defense of his country and to be ready to do all within his capacity to prosecute the war effort to a successful finish.

"So I am a Soldier."

Howdy Folks:

Here's a touchy question, so keep your flame at a safe distance of you attempt a repair.

Question— Is there a way to repair gasoline tanks without taking them off the car?

Answer— Yes, we often solder tanks without removing them but they must be drained down below the leak.

With some practice you can sweat a patch on the bottom of a tank as well as if it was off the car.

There are some precautions to heed when working on gas containers with heat. First of all, keep the FLAME away, more than 10 feet, for in case a draft shifted gas fumes toward it, a flash back will cause an explosion.

The heat of the exhaust pipe, "which is often burned out," presents a fire hazard if there is any trace of a gasoline leak. Therefore if a temporary patch of laundry soap is plastered over the leak, it will save the gas and perhaps the car. We won't even mention the occupants!

H. S. Boy Thought Japs Were Bombing

The opening of the 1942-43 rainy season in southwestern Oregon, Tuesday morning, was accompanied by phenomena which is most unusual for this coast section. In fact we hear of one high school boy who was awakened by the repeated blasts of thunder and who thought the Japs were bombarding Coos Bay so little had he seen of lightning and heard of thunder during his life.

While the rain which fell for three hours or more is not so welcome to the logger, it is beneficial to the farmer and will start revivifying the dried-up lawns in town. It will also decrease the probability of fires in the woods.

City Police Cases

J. T. Kelley, of Klamath Falls, arrested last Saturday by the local police for speeding 45 miles an hour on Taylor street, posted $5.00 for his appearance on September sixth. This was Sunday and Judge Leslie told him when he appeared that his case could be heard neither that day nor the next, which was a holiday.

His bail has not yet been forfeited, nor has he made another appearance before the judge.

SAFeway Homemakers' Guide

NUMBER 66 ★ 2 wonderful lunches for 2 wonderful lunches ★ Some prices that save you real money ★ How one Dad got to a ball game

Put this column in your cookbook under "hunches for lunches"

It takes very little longer to prepare an interesting, well-balanced noon meal than it does to eat whatever the refrigerator happens to offer. Besides, with the "keep fit" program on throughout America, you owe it to Uncle Sam to make lunch as much a "Victory" meal as breakfast or dinner. Here are two menu ideas that were planned and tested by the Safeway Homemakers' Bureau.

LUNCHING ALONE

Grilled Open-face Cheese Sandwich on Whole Wheat—Stripped with Bacon Sliced Tomatoes with Favorite Dressing Baked Apple with Cream Oatmeal Cookies Milk or Tea

NOTE: It's well to be prepared for days when you chance to eat home alone. Cheese, bacon, and oatmeal cookies can easily be kept on hand; tomatoes can be scalded and stored in the refrigerator ready to peel; and extra baked apples make good solitary desserts.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S LUNCH

Vegetable-beef Soup in Large Soup Plates Whole Wheat Crackers Peas, Pear, and Cottage Cheese Salad Whole Wheat or Enriched White Bread Butter Jam-filled Cup Cakes Milk

NOTE: With an hour or less for lunch, school children naturally want food to be ready the minute they get home and don't want to be bothered with complicated dishes. Soup, salad, and dessert meals like the one above are nutritious, quick to prepare, and easy to eat.

More "Hunches for Lunches" Hunches for lunch box meals is the subject of the feature article in the Family Circle of September 11. This magazine comes out every Thursday—in free at Safeway.
