

Minor Mention

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fitzpatrick, formerly operators of the City Cleaners here, spent the holiday in Coquille, coming down from their home in Newport Saturday evening and leaving Monday afternoon. They were guests of her sister, Mrs. L. C. Maschon. "Fitz" says business is pretty good with him, although he doesn't know where it all comes from.

Charley McIntee and Bob Arnold, who enlisted at the Navy station in Marshfield on Tuesday, left last evening for Portland to take their final examination. Except for "Wimpy" Holmstrom, they are the last of the 1942 C. H. S. graduating class to enter the country's service and "Wimpy" is scheduled to go in the next selective service call.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fox left Saturday night to make their home near Salem. He has been an engineer on one of the Crown-Willamette tug boats on the Columbia and Willamette rivers for some time and the Salem residence will be nearer his work.

Mrs. W. H. Wimer has been enjoying a visit with her daughters, Mrs. Ivan Gregory, of Seaside, and Mrs. John Darrow, of Portland, the past week. Her daughter, Mrs. Lyle Harless, who has been with her the past ten months, left Monday for Seattle, where she will meet her husband, who has been working in Canada this summer.

Clarence Shoemaker, pressman in the Sentinel office, and Mrs. Shoemaker and their daughter left last Friday evening on a week's vacation trip, intending to visit Crater Lake, Reno and an aunt in California. A card from La Pine, on The Dalles-California highway, says they had plenty of thunder and lightning at Bend the night before.

Carl Johnson who is leaving with the valley group of selectees for Portland this afternoon, helped out our short-handed crew yesterday.

Mrs. E. W. Lorenz enjoyed a visit over the week-end from her niece, Miss Virginia Wilhelm, of Portland.

Mrs. M. McCarthy, who returned last week from a five weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. T. L. Thornton at San Jose and Sunnyvale, Calif., says that Mr. Thornton, formerly employed in the Southwestern Motors and Bosworth garages here, is now employed at Moffett Field as a mechanic and expects to be there for some time.

The most excited young lady in southern Coos county last Sunday was Sally Bonney, who caught her first fish, on the lower liver. It was a 12 pound silverside and following dad's instructions she pulled it in alongside the boat where Lucky could gaff it. She caught it in half an hour after Lou Hazard had hooked and landed a 23-pound Chinook but Papa Lucky had no luck not even a strike.

Mrs. M. A. Carroll, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. L. F. Allen, of Southgate, Calif., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Matney, Mr. Matney and Mrs. Carroll were school-mates back in Oklahoma fifty years ago and this is the first time they have met in all these years. The visitors are very much in love with Oregon, the cool climate and the genuine hospitality of their hosts. Their next stop will be in Seattle.

The many friends here of Mrs. Mabel Wilhelm, sister of Mrs. E. W. Lorenz and who left here for Portland some months ago, will regret to learn that she is in the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland with her knee in a cast. She and others were running to catch the bus for Van couver, where she is employed, and was thrown by a rope which the driver had hanging from the window, with a noose at the end. She fell on the knee, injuring it quite seriously.

Eugene Davis arrived here on a twenty-day furlough from Bremerton Navy yard. He has recently been transferred from San Francisco to Bremerton and is on furlough to recuperate from a session in the sick bay.

Mrs. Charles Lewis will entertain her Pinochle club this coming Monday evening.

Norene McKeown spent the week-end at Medford with Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Brandon. Due to the bridge out at Bridge, Miss McKeown spent more than ten hours on various buses, before she finally reached Medford. Coming home was considerably easier, for by Sunday evening, the bridge was repaired.

When Mrs. Leona Bryant and Mrs. Hal Pierce returned from their trip to San Francisco last week-end, they were accompanied by the latter's daughter, Elizabeth, Mrs. E. W. Gallagher, and baby, Jean Maury. They will be here for three weeks and Mr. Gallagher will be up the last week of their stay to take them home.

Anne Barton drove up to Eugene Thursday to spend the week-end with Mrs. Maud Woodyard. While there she saw Dr. and Mrs. Marshall Kennedy, who are spending a few days on leave from Bremerton with Mrs. Kennedy's parents. Dr. Kennedy has been placed in charge of a fire fighters' hospital several miles from the Navy hospital, where he was originally assigned to duty.

Ross Mintonye is spending his furlough of ten days visiting his brothers, Amzy, Oscar and Keith Mintonye, here. Ross has been in the heavy artillery for nineteen months but will be transferred on his return to the air corps where he will train to be a pilot.

When Mark Seeley arrived in Knappa, near Astoria, where he had a contract to teach this year, he found it impossible to secure a place in which to live so he and Mrs. Seeley returned to Coquille and he intends going to work in some defense industry.

Miss Lauraine Stewart, of Portland, spent the week-end here visiting friends.

Pooks Left Tuesday On A Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Pook left Tuesday morning on a two weeks' vacation trip, not knowing just where they would spend it. They went first to Portland and might visit in the Willamette valley, or might go down to Fort Ord, Calif., where their daughter, Jeanette, Mrs. R. F. Roake, resides.

B. H. Cardwell, accompanied by his wife and daughter, came in from Burbank, Calif., to act as Southern Pacific agent during Mr. Pook's absence.

Geo. E. Oerding Office Sells Fairview Ranch

The 261-acre ranch in the Fairview district belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Rhule has been sold by Geo. E. Oerding to Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Beavers, who came from Arvin, Calif. The Beavers had looked at many farm properties along the Pacific coast before deciding to locate in Fairview valley. They have already moved on to the place.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhule have moved to Roseburg where he is employed.
