

"Candles To Light" Topic At B. P. W. Club Monday Evening

Ruth Beyers, chairman of the legislative committee, presented an interesting program last Monday evening at the second regular January meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club. "Candles to Light," subject of an article in the magazine, Digest was read by Cherie Mae Hartwell. Five lighted candles dramatized the reading, which was chosen to exemplify the subject, "Democracy in Action." Each candle was a symbol of the following: endurance, discernment, culture, justice and love.

Chairman of Membership and Emblem committee was Hazel Hanna, who explained to the club members the emblem of the national B. P. W. club. An emblem, framed, was displayed on an easel and Mrs. Hanna called attention to the symbols, explaining that each was representative of an ideal. Mrs. Hanna led the group in giving the club pledge. Mrs. Stauff led the singing of the state song accompanied at the piano by Inez Rover.

Amusing games were played and the word game was won by Inez Rover. Wanda Cochran, a new member, was present and received a gift. The singing of rounds and group singing preceded the social hour with tea and cakes. On Feb. 1 there will be a potluck dinner.

Attending were Lois Fenn, Cherie Mae Hartwell, Inez Rover, Clara Stauff, Florence Barton, Lela Elrod, Ida Oerding, Bess Maury, Jennie Price, Florence Hallock, Hattie Lee Hollimon, Joyce Owen, Wanda Cochran, Ida Owen, Georgia Richmond, Annie Robinson, Arlene Robertson, Hazel Hanna, Eva Stevens and Ruth Beyers.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Los Angeles Dry But Not Shivering

Leslie Kline, who left here several years ago to make his home in Los Angeles, writes to renew his subscription and adds:

"I received the Sentinel today and was very much interested about the flood up there. I sure am glad that I am not in it. The weather here is just like your summer weather there. Los Angeles has had one of the driest seasons in years. The rainfall here is 33 per cent less than the sixty-year record. We have had only two rains this fall and winter so far and Coos county would laugh at both of them. "Hope this finds you and all the people I know in Coos well."

Riverton Trojans Won Friday From Arago

Coach Kemp's Riverton Trojans defeated a scrappy Arago five at Riverton Friday night, 43-13. Bosco and Thompson were high point men for Riverton with 14 and 12 pounds respectively. Bishop was high for Arago with six points. This victory follows one chalked up over Bandon the previous week, leaving Riverton with a record of two wins and one loss at the half way mark in the Coos county B league. One game with Coos River was postponed due to floods.
