

Minor Mention

David B. Biegger, who enlisted in the U. S. Coast Guard last year, recently received his orders to report and expects to leave next Wednesday for Portland to take his physical examination.

M. F. Pettit returned Sunday evening from Portland, where he went last Wednesday to attend a meeting of hardware and implement dealers. He says it was quite a different sort of meeting from what such sessions formerly were. In the other days the wholesalers and manufacturers were all trying to sell; this time the retailers were all trying to buy.

Rev. and Mrs. Brown and Mrs. E. O. Waite, Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Persing and Rev. Mr. Parrish, attended the Coos County Ministerial meeting held in Marshfield last Monday. They report an unusually helpful and inspiring program. The next meeting of the association will be held in Coquille, March 15. Plans are already under way for the program at that time. Lay members will be invited to attend the afternoon session.

Mrs. Norma McNair left last week to join her husband, Clarence McNair, who is stationed at Fort Knox in Tennessee, where he is in an armored tank section. She stopped over for a day in Palm Springs, southern California, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Buell, former Coquille residents.

A cousin, whom he had never before seen, was a guest over the weekend at the Dr. C. A. Rietman home. He was Rudy Mateer, whose home is in Eureka, Calif., and who is in training at Camp White.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Selbig left Wednesday for Eugene. Mrs. Selbig will remain in Eugene for a visit with friends there and in Portland. Mr. Selbig will board the train carrying other Swift managers to San Francisco for the annual managers' meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Selbig expect to return Sunday or Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. James Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Leslie and Frank W. Martin drove out to Eugene last Saturday in the former's car and all were pleased to see their favorite win the basketball game that evening by a 50 to 35 score. They returned Sunday.

Mrs. E. O. Waite and children of Toledo, left for their home on Wednesday. Mrs. Waite has been visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Brown, for the past couple weeks.

The Women's Society of Pioneer church is planning a food sale for Saturday, February 20, in the Shelley building, starting at 10:30.

Mrs. Rosa Coleman returned to her home last Sunday after two weeks visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Molihu, and their children. Mrs. Coleman is from Lewis county, Washington, and really enjoyed the few days of lovely weather we had last week as she had left 14 inches of snow at her home.

Mrs. Ray Mattoon and baby arrived in Coquille Tuesday from Long Beach, Calif., to spend a month visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor, and other relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Geo. McClellan and daughter came in last Saturday from their home in Lebanon for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Folsom, and other friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Farr left Sunday evening on a business trip to Portland, expecting to return to Coquille today.

Mr. and Mrs. John Purkey left for the north on a buying trip Sunday evening. They expect to be in Portland, Seattle and Tacoma before returning home the latter part of this week.

Lieut. Clarence A. Bean, who is in the Motor Transportation section of the Army and located at Fort Mason on San Francisco Bay, came home last Saturday in response to word of his father's accidental death. His sister, Clare, and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Burnett, arrived here Friday evening from their home in Redmond, Ore., and left yesterday morning for home. Mr. Burnett was called to Portland last Saturday because of the serious illness of his father and return to Coquille on Monday.

Preston May left last Friday night for Santa Ana, Calif., where he has been called to report for duty as Aviation Cadet. Mrs. May will join him as soon as he knows where he will be stationed for a reasonable length of time.

J. A. Moore left Tuesday for Ontario, Oregon, where he was called because of the passing of his father.

Shower Monday Evening For Bride-to-Be

Miss Gretchen Clinton was the inspiration for a lovely party held last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. George Johnson. Phyllis Belloni, of Myrtle Point, was the hostess and the shower was a complete surprise. Spring flowers used about the rooms gave a fitting background in which to entertain for a bride of the coming season. Pink camellias, daffodils and sprays of plum blossom were used. The diversion of the evening was the game, "Down the River." Maxine Johnson won the prize.

A beautiful wedding cake, adorned with a bride and groom figurine, was cut by the bride-to-be and shared with the guests during the refreshments. The date has not yet been set for the wedding of Miss Clinton and Jack Laird.

Invited guests were Alys June Fox, Julius Freeman, Fay Dement, Margaret Belloni, Lurene Laird, Rheo Walker, Margaret Stewart, Maxine Johnson, Delores Furman, Della Belloni, Leta Arnold, Rosanna Leavers, Donna Bosserman, Georgianna Perott, Mrs. Theodore Clinton and Mrs. George Johnson.

Nurses Association Met Last Night

The District Nurses Association met Wednesday night at the Coquille Hospital with Lucille Livingston, club president. Due to the sudden illness of Mrs. Virginia, one of the Myrtle Point members, the group from that town was unable to attend.

Coquille members present were: Lela Elrod, Ethel Littler, Naomi High, Alice Richardson, Helen Landis, Winnie Epperson, Verna Burch and Lucille Livingston. Mrs. Selma Kopanger, of Hillsboro, North Dakota, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. High, was a guest at the meeting.

Plans, which are to be completed at the next meeting, were discussed for the organization's 1943 civic project. Games were played and refreshments served. The next meeting of the group will be held at Myrtle Point on March 17th.

Royal Neighbors

The Royal Neighbors lodge held their regular business meeting last night at the W. O. W. Hall. Mrs. Al Burch, oracle, conducted the meeting. Anne Montgomery, District Deputy, was a visitor from Marshfield. Mrs. Ed Shaas, oracle from Marshfield and Mrs. Mast, oracle from Myrtle Point, were also present. Routine business was transacted and during the social hour a delicious luncheon was served.
