

B.P.W. To Entertain Marshfield Club

The B. P. W. Club met at the Parish House last Monday evening with Ida Oerding, president, in charge of the meeting. Opening songs were led by Clara Stauff, accompanied by Inez Rover at the piano. The flag salute was led by Ethel Roop and the club collect by Georgia Richmond.

Regular routine business was conducted, at which time the nominating committee reported. Election of officers comes up at the April 6 meeting. A sum was voted to donate to the milk fund. A tentative date of May 3rd was set to entertain the Marshfield B. P. W. club.

An interesting letter from Ella Braxton, who is connected with a government hospital at Brigham, Utah, was read.

An invitation to the open meeting Monday night of the Junior Woman's Club was read. The Big Surprise committee consisted of Ethel Roop and Hattie Lee Holimon, who served tea and cookies at the close of the session. Attending were Ida Oerding, Bess Maury, Clara Stauff, Annie Robinson, Inez Rover, Florence Barton, Ida Owen, Hattie Lee Holimon, Eva Stevens, Lela Elrod, Cherie Mae Hartwell, Joyce Owen, Georgia Richmond, Ethel Roop, Irene Hartwell, Bertha Smith, Florence Hallock and Hazel Hanna.

Supper Party And Bridge For Bride-to-Be

Margaret Smith, who will leave the first of next week for Phoenix, Ariz., to be married to Dick Sherrill, will be the guest of honor at a pleasant party Monday evening. The hostesses were Mrs. Richard A. Hennessey and Mrs. Harry Claterbos, Jr. An inviting spread on a table in the R. A. Wernich yard with everyone cooking their own wienies on a stick over the open fire was leisurely enjoyed by the girls. All of this speaks well for this year's first day of March. Following the out-of-door supper the guests spent the evening at bridge before the fireplace in the living room. Arrangements of white spirea and daffodils from the garden were used about the rooms. The guest of honor won high score at bridge and Donna Dean Bosserman received a prize for second score. Invited were Margaret Smith, Margaret Stewart, Donna Dean Bosserman, Marion Flannery, Norene McKeown, Alberta Brandon and Ina Sherrill, of Marshfield.

Justamere Club

Members of the Justamere Club were guests for luncheon last Thursday with Mrs. R. A. Wernich at her home. Those who attended were:

Mesdames A. J. Sherwood, J. A. Lamb, Jane Williams, F. L. Greenough, H. W. Pierce, Leona Bryant, Bert Folsom and M. O. Hawkins.

Bachelor Girls Initiate Four

At a special meeting last Friday evening four girls were initiated as new members into the Bachelor Girls club. Donna Dean Bosserman and Eunice Howe were the hostesses at the W. E. Bosserman home. The party was strictly a social affair. The new girls had been told to come without glamour and with their hair braided into seven pig tails tied with red and yellow ribbons. After the refreshments they were required to wash the dishes.

Girls initiated were Rheo Walker, Yvonne Kern, Marianne Axtell and Lois Robison. Members attending were Margaret Belloni, Aloha Allen, Gladys May, Marguerite Robinson, Maxine Johnson, Norene McKeown, Dorothy Coffey, Margaret Stewart, Alya June Fox, Donna Dean Bosserman and Eunice Howe.

Junior Women To Hold Open Meeting Next Monday Night

The Junior Women are planning an open meeting next Monday evening at 8:00 p. m., at the Parish Hall. Everyone is invited. Mr. Withnell, instructor of music in the Coquille schools, will give a lecture on Public School music. There is to be a musical program consisting of instrumental solos by Claire Gray, trumpet; Gerald Ulett, trombone; Mary Borel, the bells, and Jerry White, bass horn.

Woman's Club Next Tuesday

The March meeting of the Coquille Woman's Club will be held next Tuesday, March 9th, at the Parish Hall. There will be an interesting program and Mrs. C. V. Smith is program chairman. Members who have not yet contributed their dollar for the club budget, please do so this meeting if possible. Please try to attend.

Saturday Night Pinochle Club

The Saturday Night Pinochle Club met last week with Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Stevens. Prizes were won by Mrs. C. V. Smith and Don Gillespie for high score and consolation went to Mrs. Ralph Taylor and C. V. Smith for low. The traveling prize was won by Mrs. Taylor. Members attending were: Messrs. and Mesdames C. V. Smith, Don Gillespie, Ralph Taylor, and the hosts. Mrs. Ralph Taylor will entertain the club in two weeks.

Remember Norton's for all school supplies.

Four New Members Of Beulah Chapter Initiated

At the regular meeting of Beulah Chapter, O. E. S., held last Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Balm and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Farr were initiated into the order. John Martin received the attendance award.

Under good of the order, Mrs. Bertha Smith, assisted by several other Past Worthy Matrons exemplified a most impressive flag ceremony. As a fitting climax, Ray Cub, Past Patron, read, "The Flag Speaks." This was followed by the singing of the national anthem. Refreshments were served in the banquet hall.

Several members from Beulah Chapter drove over to Marshfield Tuesday evening, February 23, to attend the potluck dinner and meeting of Doric Chapter. There was also a school of instruction conducted by the Associate Grand Matron, Mrs. June Martin. Those going from here were: Mesdames Ralph Taylor, Gertrude Ulett, Bertha Smith, F. C. McNelly, Harold Gould, Lyle Beyers, Geo. Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boober.

Howdy Folks:

We wish to remind you that strict attention to the Differential and Transmission should be exercised.

The gears for these units are extremely hard to get nowadays.

Neglect and carelessness are the cause of nine out of ten gear case failures, so start today with proper preventive service measures.

MOVING MANPOWER

That's Our War Job!

TO MILITARY CENTERS

TO WAR PLANTS

TO SHIP YARDS

TO BUSINESS CENTERS

TO RURAL COMMUNITIES

The nation's highways have gone to war. Over them the bus lines are moving vital manpower—military personnel on important missions—selectees to induction centers—farmers on their "must" trips—workers to war plants and shipyards—business men and women on their essential activities.

Greyhound is concentrating on this wartime job, keeping its buses rolling over a vast network of routes. At the same time we are saving precious rubber, fuel and steel by mass transportation of war travelers and by expert maintenance and operating efficiency.

We are putting everything we have into the war effort... glad that our broad experience, widespread facilities and skilled personnel are available for the vital job of moving manpower.

With your cooperation, we shall continue to keep the highways at work for Victory.

WARTIME TRAVEL SUGGESTIONS

You will help the war effort and will have a better trip if you will follow these suggestions:

1. Consult your Greyhound agent in advance for useful travel information.
2. Avoid delay by purchasing your ticket well ahead of time.
3. Travel in mid-week, rather than on week-ends.
4. Carry as little baggage as you conveniently can.
