

Meeting Instructive B. P. W. Club

Keyed to the war effort was the entire meeting last Monday evening of the B. P. W. club. Mrs. Lela Elrod, health chairman for the club, was in charge of the meeting. A film on "Keeping Fit" was shown for the first time in Oregon by Mrs. Elrod, who stated that Mrs. Dorothy Bishop happened to be at Corvallis when it arrived and spoke for it. Following this showing another film was run, the subject of which was based on "Hidden Hunger."

Following this, Mrs. Bishop talked on "Foods for Health," and distributed pamphlets on the subject which dealt with food habits and what every normal person needs in food daily.

Helen Landis, nurse at Coquille hospital, gave an exhibition of exercises advised for reducing hips and waist line.

Many expressions of pleasure were heard over the appearance on the program of Muriel Dae. This was the first time Miss Dae has played in public since her accident last summer, at which time she had the misfortune to fracture her left shoulder. Much apprehension has been felt by her friends over the fact during the long months since her violin has been quiet. Two lovely numbers were offered which quite proved a complete recovery for the artist.

Mrs. Chas. Stauff accompanied by Inez Rover on the piano, led group singing.

A book review was read by Mary Virginia Morris, pinch hitting for Lunelle Chapin, also on the subject of "Keeping Fit." This was taken from the national B. P. W. magazine. During the social hour tempting sandwiches and coffee were served by Mrs. Inez Chase and Mrs. Elrod.

Mrs. Chase announced that at the next meeting, on April 5, there will be a forum discussion on "How to Check Inflation." Several local people will be asked to sit in on the panel. All members of the club are urged to make an effort to attend the meeting.

Two special guests on Monday evening were Mrs. Littler, county nurse, and Harriett Brenestall, of Marshfield. Members present were Dorothy Bishop, Edith Walton, Mary Morris, Hazel Hanna, Gertrude Ulett, Viola Newton, Bonnie Walker, Florence Barton, Mattie Lee Hollimon, Ida Oerding, Jennie Price, Inez Chase, Annie Robinson, Arlene Roberts, Edith Dunn, Joyce Owen, Helen Landis, Mabel Wernich.

Past Noble Grands St. Patrick Party

The home of Miss Edith Gruenewald was most attractively decorated last Friday evening for the monthly meeting of the Past Noble Grands club. Mrs. Annie Robinson was co-hostess. As each member arrived, she received a gay ornament for her hair in keeping with St. Patrick's day, the rest of the decorations carrying out the motif.

After a short business meeting, presided over by the president, Mrs. Roy Boober, the evening was spent in playing various games. Winners of the various contests were: Mesdames Harriet Schaefer, Inez Chase, Florabel Boober and Miss Ida Oerding.

Mrs. Birdie Skeels received the award for fashioning the most attractive "St. Patrick" out of one green gum drop and a few tooth picks.

Following a busy and enjoyable evening of games, the members sat down to a most attractive table, also carrying out the motif. The centerpiece was a huge mound of new potatoes while at each plate were cute place cards, centered with tiny replicas of the same. Tiny shamrocks, crepe paper, etc., completed the ensemble. Mrs. Myrtle Benham was the lucky winner of the prize drawing, a lovely plant.

Present were: Mesdames Della Wilcox, Ethel Leach and Kern, Estelle Dunn, Flora Donne, Harriet Schaefer, Jennie Price, Birdie Skeels, Florabel Boober, Inez Chase, Myrtle Benham, Hester Holverstott, Miss Ida Oerding and the hostess.

O. E. S. Grand Officers Honored

Last Thursday evening, Mrs. Maxine Jeub, Grand Electa, and Miss Bess Maury, Grand Representative of Rhode Island, were given a reception by the officers and members of Beulah Chapter, O. E. S., at the regular meeting held in Masonic Hall. There were several visitors from Bandon and Myrtle Point, including the Worthy Matrons of both chapters.

An attractive degree, carrying out St. Patrick's day motif, was tendered the two honored members by officers of the chapter following which they were presented with lovely plants.

Following the meeting, a social hour was enjoyed, after which refreshments were served in the banquet hall. The tables, forming a V, were attractively decorated. Birthday cakes, honoring those whose natal days were in January, February and March, were served.

Library Benefit Parties Held

The generosity of local people toward the completion of the Public Library continues. At the request of Mrs. Roy Boober, Library chairman of the Coquille Woman's Club, a good list of names has been compiled of women planning to give one or more benefit affairs. Either bridge or sewing parties are in order. Anyone not already contacted but interested in the idea, may call Mrs. Boober for particulars. The following parties have transpired recently:

A week ago last Friday, Mrs. Ed McKeown gave an evening bridge party. Mrs. Frank Thrift won high score. Those attending were: Mesdames H. W. Pierce, Jas. Brady, E. E. Leslie, Fred McNelly, U. E. McClary, and Don McCune.

Mrs. George Maynard invited friends to make up two tables of bridge on Thursday afternoon, March 11. Mrs. Ed McKeown received the prize. Attending were Mesdames F. L. Greenough, Tallant Greenough, U. E. McClary, Don McCune, A. B. Collier and R. A. Wernich.

Mrs. Frank Thrift was a hostess on Tuesday evening of this week. Dessert was served at 7:30, followed by an evening of bridge. Mrs. E. E. Leslie won high score. Guests were Mesdames Walter Litzemberger, Jas. Brady, H. W. Pierce, U. E. McClary, Roy Boober, E. E. Leslie, and Ed McKeown.

Roy Mothers' Club Resumes Sessions

A well attended meeting of the Roy Mothers' Club was held at the Teaherage Tuesday evening, at which time it was voted to resume the evening sessions which had been discontinued during the winter. Several members of the club are employed in defense work and can not attend the day sessions.

Mrs. Bertha Cross brought the "blackout curtains" which the club purchased for the gymnasium. The quilt which the club is making is nearing completion. Plans were discussed for holding an old time dance in the gymnasium.

The St. Patrick's idea was carried out in the refreshments eaten at a candle-light table. Mrs. Cora Mackey, teacher at the Roy School, was hostess.

Members present were Mary Johnson, president; June Green, secretary; Hulda Ellingsen, Bertha Cross, Alva Green, Frances Delfesen, Patricia Griffin, Lenore Stevens, Maude Anderson; a guest, Mrs. Ben Walton, and the hostess, Cora Mackey.

The club will meet in two weeks at the Teaherage.

N. O. M. A. Club Meeting And Shower

The regular Tuesday meeting of the N. O. M. A. club at the home of Mrs. Howard Delfesen was the scene of a surprise shower in honor of Mrs. W. Matejka. Club members and guests played court whist until a late hour when delicious refreshments were served. Favors at each place were dainty pink and white corsages of spring flowers.

Former Bandon Girl Is Prisoner Of Enemy

Bandon friends received a message from Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Endicott of Eugene, Tuesday stating that their daughter, Miss Delilah Endicott, is alive and well in the Philippines. This is the first word received by the parents in more than a year. It came through the Red Cross. Miss Endicott spent her childhood days in Bandon. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon and at the time the Japs took Manila was professor of English in the University of Manila. She is believed to be a prisoner in a concentration camp at Manila.—Western World.

Monday Night Club

Mrs. Pauline Pettit entertained the members of her bridge club last Monday night. Members present were Mesdames Edna Hartson, J. A. Lamb, Jane Williams, Ed. W. Lorenz, Bert Folsom, J. L. Smith, H. W. Pierce and Lloyd Rosa.

Gretchen Clinton Weds Jack Laird

Two well known families in Coquille were represented in an interesting marriage recently at Pensacola, Florida. Miss Gretchen Clinton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Clinton, was united in marriage to Jack Stanley Laird, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Laird. The wedding was held at the Navy Base Chapel on March 3, at 8:00 p. m. The Episcopal ring ceremony was conducted by the Camp Chaplain.

The bride wore a dress of white starched marquisette and shadow lace, with sash of white velvet; also a seed pearl Juliet cap trimmed with a white bow. She wore a string of pearls which was the wedding present from her father, and carried her white prayer book.

The bride was given away by Donald B. Estes, who is also stationed at Pensacola. Best man was Jack McElhinny, of Salem, stationed at Pensacola.

Gretchen flew down for her wedding and it was her first experience in plane travel. The wedding guests were all cadets and because the bride was unacquainted there, there were no girls or women present at the ceremony.

Jack received his commission as ensign the day before the wedding and rated top man in a class of two hundred. He was one of three men chosen to instruct at Bronson Field. The young couple will live for the time being at Pensacola.

Dinner Honoring Fred And Henry Lorenz

Fred Lorenz and Henry Lorenz were honor guests at a pleasant dinner party held Wednesday night, March 10, at the Coquille Hotel. Fred Lorenz left yesterday morning for Princeton, N. J., where he will take a three months' course, preparatory to receiving a commission as captain in the U. S. Army. His father, Henry Lorenz, will return to business management from which he retired at the time Fred took over the Lorenz store.

The guests represented the personnel of the store. The dinner table was attractive with arrangements of daffodils and gay yellow candies. Following dinner the party spent the remainder of the evening visiting at the Henry Lorenz home.

Mrs. Lorenz accompanied her husband as far as Portland and will spend a week there before returning. Attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thrift, Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Lund, Mesdames Edna Hartson, Patzy Barkwell and Irene Boyle.

Church Class Honors Those Having Recent Birthdays

Loyal Women's Class of the Church of Christ met Thursday for regular meeting and also for birthday dinner at 12:30. This was to honor those having birthdays in January, February and March. A short business session was held and then a social time was enjoyed.

The following were present: Mesdames Belle Hooton, Gus McCulloch, A. F. Wilson, Archie Hatcher, Harold McCue, W. A. Sloan, May Tyrrell, Earl Mitts, A. N. Foley, Pearl Cardwell, O. O. Wilson, Fred Schaefer and Miss Jennie Lafferty.

Mrs. Oberman Buried At Dora

Funeral services were held at Dora last Wednesday for Mrs. O. W. Oberman, a resident of that section for the past 19 years, and coming to Oregon from Oklahoma in 1918. She was 70 years of age last November 25, and was born at Canton, Ills.

Besides her husband to whom she was married Aug. 29, 1897, she is survived by six children: Rex, of Forest Grove; Mrs. Fern Kellogg, of Portland; Charles, of Myrtle Point; Frank, of Oakland; Ray, of Myrtle Point; and Mrs. Reba Alford, of Sitka; one brother, N. B. Spencer, of Oakland, Calif., and 17 grandchildren.

Day of Prayer Observed Here

The World Day of Prayer service was held in the Methodist Church parlor on March twelfth, with Mrs. L. P. Fugelson as leader. It was a heart-searching, comforting, season of prayer and meditation. Mrs. Withnell and Mrs. Couden each sang an inspiring solo, and Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Skeels and Mrs. Withnell sang a trio, "Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me."

At the end of the service an offering was received, which will help to continue the work begun twenty-five years ago, when the World Day of Prayer was originated. There are four divisions of this work, namely: Sending Christian Literature all over the world; spiritual guidance of American Indians in government schools;

Work among migrants in sixty or more rural areas; and by helping eight Oriental Colleges, where tomorrow's nurses, doctors, teachers, social workers, and housewives are trained.

Coos Ministerial Ass'n Met Here

Coos County Ministerial Association met this week in Coquille at the Pioneer Methodist church. Representatives from the various parts of the county were present. A most interesting program was conducted. Rev. Mr. Lindsay, evangelist, conducted the devotional hour in the forenoon. Rev. Gilbert Newland spoke on the subject "The Church and Peace," and Miss Hill, a missionary of the Baptist church, recently returned from China, spoke relating some of her experiences. She was asked if the stories of hardship suffered at the hands of the Japanese were true and gave it as her opinion that they could all be duplicated many times over. The next meeting of the association will be held at Myrtle Point, April 19. Any minister residing in Coos county is welcome, and urged to attend.

Townsend Club

A good crowd attended the meeting Tuesday evening. President Tilghman was back in the chair and three new members were reported at this time.

Keep in mind the all-county caravan meeting to be held in Coquille March 28, with Marshfield as host.

E. Buchner gave a short talk on "Triple Tee Tickets." Mr. Tilghman was lucky at drawing the door prize. A short program of readings was enjoyed, those taking part being Mrs. Westbrook, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Schroeder, Mrs. Hatcher, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Roth, and Messrs. Snyder, Buchner and Tilghman.

All sang "God Bless America" at the close. Pie and coffee were served by the committee in charge. Salad and crackers are to be served at the next meeting.—Press Cor.
