

Senior Women Give Program For Juniors

Highlight of a program presented to the Junior Women at their regular meeting last Monday evening was an inspiring talk by Mrs. O. C. Sanford, state president of the Federated Clubs of Oregon. She stressed the importance of the ideas and demands club women would have toward the making of the lasting peace to come.

Mrs. G. W. Tyrrell sang, "Deep in My Heart," followed by a song of spring. Both numbers delighted her audience. She was accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins. Mrs. Roy Boober gave a laugh-provoking reading entitled, "A Cheerful Little Earful." Mrs. Wm. Mansell, senior club president, arranged and announced the program.

During the short business meeting, which followed, announcements were made on the outcome of the Spring Opening Dance, sponsored by the Juniors. Some of the proceeds will go toward the Milk Fund for the children in the Washington School.

Hostesses for the evening were: Mary Stevens and Faye Waggoner. Those attending were: Mesdames O. C. Sanford, Wm. Mansell, C. V. Smith, Charles Stauff, George Sherwood, G. W. Tyrrell, M. O. Hawkins, and R. E. Boober, from the Senior club. Junior women present were: Jane Williams, Hazel Scharfer, Mary Stevens, Evelyn Russell, Yvonne Kern, Mary V. Morris, Grace Withnell, Vi McBride, Faye Waggoner, Gertrude Swinney, Eunice Howe, Georgia Hansen, Lucille Walker. The next regular meeting of the Junior Women will be April 12 at the home of Hazel Scharfer.

More WAACs Are Needed from Oregon

Who May Join The WAACs
To be eligible for enrollment in the WAAC applicant must:

- Be a woman citizen of the United States.
- Be between the ages of 21 and 44 years, inclusive.
- Submit satisfactory proof of date of birth and citizenship.
- Have an excellent character.
- Pass a mental alertness test.
- Pass a physical examination.
- Must not have financial dependents.
- If married, must not have children younger than 14 years.

Where You May Go To Join
Most cities and towns have local WAAC recruiting volunteer committees who can furnish information and application forms. Larger cities have army recruiting stations which can furnish the necessary information. If unable to secure information elsewhere, write WAAC Section, U. S. Army Recruiting Station, 614 S. W. 11th Ave. Portland, Oregon.

No Expense Involved
Upon acceptance of the application, applicants living more than 50 miles from Portland will be furnished transportation to Portland to complete the enrollment process. Their meals will be furnished and if necessary, hotel accommodations.

Duties In The WAACs
Here is a partial list of duties of the WAACs—accountants, aircraft warning service bookkeepers, bookkeeping machine operators, cadre clerks, camera technicians, cashiers, chauffeurs, classification specialists, clerks, draftsman, librarians, machine record operators, message center clerks, musicians, statisticians, stenographers and weather observers. Remember that each WAAC will replace a soldier for combat duty.

Point Values For Meats, Cheese, Fats Effective March 29

Meats
Bacon, rind on, by the slab or piece.
Pork sausage, weiners, bolonga, and liver sausages.
All fish in hermetically sealed containers, including sardines, salmon, tuna fish, crab meat, fish roe, caviar, mackerel, etc.
Tins or glass jars of beef, lamb and veal tongue, and Vienna sausages.

Six Points Per Pound
Standing blade rib roast (10-in. 1/8 cut); chuck or shoulder roast (bone in); brisket, neck, heel of round, and shank—when boneless; beef livers and tongues; veal shoulder chops and veal rump and sirloin roasts (bone in); leg and shoulder roasts of veal (bone in); boneless breast and neck of veal; ground veal and patties; veal sweetbreads and tongues; leg and shoulder of lamb and lamb sirloin roasts (bone in); boneless neck of lamb; lamb patties and lamb tongues; pork bellies, fresh and cured only; pork shoulder (shank halfbone in); pork tongues; ready-to-eat spareribs; meat spreads in tin and glass containers and pork tongues in tin and glass containers; salad and cooking oils (1 pt. equals 1 lb.)

Five Points Per Pound
Rump roast of beef (bone in), plate beef (boneless), flank meat and beef neck (bone in); hamburger (hamburger is defined as "beef ground from necks, flanks, shanks, briskets, plates, and miscellaneous beef trimmings and beef fat"); veal flank meat and neck (bone in), veal hearts and veal kidneys; pork regular plates, jowls, and pork livers; smoked hams and jowl squares; lard, other shortening, and oleomargarine.

Four Points Per Pound
Beef short ribs, plate, brisket and shank (all bone in); veal breast and shank of veal (bone in), and calves brains; lamb neck and shank (bone in), and lamb sweetbreads; pork spareribs, fat backs, clear plates and leaf fat; chitterlings, scrapple and tamales, souse and headcheese; tin or glass containers of potted and deviled meats and sausage in oil.

Three Points Per Pound
Beef brains, ox tails and tripe; lamb breast and flanks; lamb brains, heart and kidneys; pig hocks and knuckles; pig brains, hearts and tails; tin or glass containers of brains; boned pigfeet, and chile con carne.

Two Points Per Pound
Pork kidneys and snouts; pork neck and backbones; and ready-to-eat pigs-feet (bone in).
Tin or glass containers of pigfeet (bone in); and tamales.

One Point Per Pound
Fresh pigfeet (bone in), and pig ears.

Only one cut of beef—boneless sirloin steak—has a point value above eight. For this cut the point value is nine per pound.

Other items priced at nine points per pound are boneless ham; ready-to-eat ham (bone in), either whole or half; and hard dry sausage such as hard salami, hard cervelat and pepperoni.

Five items on the official consumer chart have a value of 10 points per pound. These are boneless pork loins, fresh and cured only; pork tenderloin; ready-to-eat boneless ham, whole or half; ready-to-eat picnics or shoulder, boneless; and whole or half hams or picnics packed in tin or glass containers.

Two items—ready-to-eat boneless ham slices and Canadian bacon—command values of 11 points per pound, while dried beef, either loose or packaged, at 12 points a pound is the most expensive item on the entire list of terms of points.
Except for the various types of bacon, according to the official explanation printed on the chart retailers must charge the same point value per pound for any of the rationed foods, whether fresh, frozen, cured or smoked and none of the foods involved may be sold or transferred without points.
The housewife is informed that the dealer will weigh and determine the point value of her purchase. If she then has the dealer "bone" or grind or "dice" an item, the point value will not be figured again. The customer is entitled to the entire purchase; that is, if she has a roast boned, she is entitled to the bones since she has paid points for them.

A WOMAN'S IDEA OF WHAT BREAD SHOULD BE
—It's more delicate, richer flavored!

Yes, wives and mothers worked with home economists in developing the recipe. That's why this "woman's" recipe bread tastes so different from usual man-created bakery loaves.
Why it's so fine textured—and tastes so beautifully.
Try Julia Lee Wright's bread tomorrow. It's fresh as Grade A milk. Money-lack if you don't agree it tastes better!
