

Minor Mention

Keith Leslie, Internal Revenue Department auditor, came down from Salem last Saturday to spend the week-end with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, formerly located on the Fairview road north of town, were up from their ranch near the county line on Highway 101 on Monday.

Al Sweet, from Arizona Inn down below Port Orford in Curry county, made one of his infrequent visits to his old home here on Monday this week.

Dee Brown, of the Biegger Furniture Co., went up to Portland Sunday to take his pre-physical examination and to attempt to learn when he may be called for service.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Custer were guests over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wheeler. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Stevens of Coquille. The Custers formerly lived here at which time Mr. Custer was with Swift & Co. They left here six or seven years ago when they sold their home to Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Willy.

Major F. O. Brasch and Mrs. Brasch were in Coquille last Sunday on personal business. Major Brasch is a dentist stationed at Albany, Oregon.

Geo. Brooks says he doesn't know why he didn't have his youngster disease at the right time, but after being flat on his back three weeks with the mumps, he is now finding it difficult to get his strength back. Mrs. Brooks had it at the same time, both of them catching it from their son who contracted the disease at kindergarten where 24 of the 27 children were out with the mumps.

Lyle Bishop, formerly employed as a Southwestern Motors salesman and also in I. A. Elrod's clothing store, has been here this week from Los Angeles, where he has resided for several years. He says he began to feel better as soon as he arrived in the valley and expects in a few weeks to return and make his home here again. He reports having had three or four offers of employment.

Bill Burg, sailor son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Burg of this city, has recently returned to Maine, after a ten-day furlough here. During his seven month enlistment he has completed his diesel course offered by the U. S. Navy, and has acquired the stripes of a Seaman, second class.

"Buck" Arnold, who formerly drove a fruit and vegetable truck in here weekly, was a Coquille visitor last Friday. He has been stationed at the Bakersfield air base for several months but was given a discharge from the air service last week but with instructions that he would be called back in 60 days. He is past the age for combat or overseas duty and the discharge was really only a 60-day furlough.

Cecil Monroe Anderson, arrested Sunday by the Coquille police for drunkenness, forfeited the $10 cash bail he posted for his appearance in recorder's court on Monday.

Money to loan on good residential property; consult me if you need assistance in financing a loan, or refinancing your old loan—it may save you money. J. S. Barton, Realtor.

Mrs. Leland Peterson Entertains Club

The Coquille home extension unit meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Leland Peterson yesterday with Dorothy Bishop demonstrating point rationing on foods. One item that was stressed and which would help the grocer was to budget points before purchasing; also that the point value of each item is set on a point basis. Mrs. Alma Halter, the bond and stamp chairman, reported sales totaling $185.25. Mrs. Oscar Larson and Mrs. Leland Peterson were appointed to assist Mrs. Halter.

Mrs. Opal Halter and Mrs. Walter Laird volunteered to lead the 4-H canning club this year. Under new business, members decided to exchange surplus plants, etc. There were 17 women present. The next meeting in April will be on cleaning sewing machines. Please watch the paper for place of meeting.

Howard Moy Made Gunners' Mate, Third Class

Mrs. F. C. McNelly has received word that Howard Moy, Coquille boy who is in the Merchant Marine and whose home port is Treasure Island in San Francisco Bay has been advanced and made a gunners' mate, third class. Howard has made several trips to various points in the Pacific.

Miss Phyllis Bunch, who is attending the Seventh Day Adventist College at Walla Walla, arrived home last Friday morning for the spring vacation. Other guests at the Dr. J. R. Bunch home the first of this week were Mrs. Bunch's sister, Mrs. Hazel Peterson, and daughter, Carl, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peterson, all from Walla Walla, and who came in Sunday. Phyllis accompanied them when they left for home on Tuesday. She is taking her two years of pre-training course in one at the college and this next fall will go to Portland for her nurses' training course.

Mrs. Arlan Shaw has been substitute teacher in Junior High this week, while Miss Eilfeda Endsley was at home nursing a case of chicken pox.

Kenneth P. Lawrence, Jr. a student at the University of Oregon, enlisted some time ago in the Aviation Corps and this week received his notice to be in San Francisco tomorrow. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Lawrence, brother, Gordon, and Dorothea Yarbrough left yesterday noon for Eugene to tell him good-bye before he left. He is to receive his training in Texas.

Mrs. R. L. Stewart returned Sunday from a trip north.

Margaret Ann Wilson and Susie Snyder, Reed College students from Portland, are spending the week of their spring vacation at the Wilson cabin at Laurel Lake. They came down from Portland with Keith Leslie, who is spending a few days in town. Mrs. Leslie will return with her husband for a few days in Portland.

Eli Brault, of this city, who has been stationed with the SeaBees at an east coast port, is expected in today on a nine-day furlough.

The 396 Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Edna Rakestraw on the Fishtrap road Friday, April 2. A potluck dinner will be served at noon.

Now is the time to order your grave marker for your loved one if you desire it for Memorial day. See John S. Sanders. Phone 123L-541 West 6th.

NOTICE TO SANFORD HEIGHTS PROPERTY OWNERS

A general meeting on water problem at city hall March 31, at 8:00 p. m. One hundred per cent attendance requested.

See our large display of choice pot plants at Bergen's, across highway from telephone office. Not the cheapest but the best. Phone 64.

A fine assortment of gifts for men in the service, including money belts and sewing kits, has just arrived at Norton's.

Mail your Watch, Jewelry and Optical Repairs to V. R. Wilson, Jeweler, Watchmaker and Optometrist, Expert Service, Coquille, Ore. 10tfs

FOR RENT - Furnished 3 - room House, modern throughout; oil circulator, gas range and water heater; has just been refinished. See B. W. Dunn, 558 No. Coulter, phone 196L.

Andrew Smalley Was Born Before The Civil War

One of Coos county's nonagenarians, who had lived in the Coquille valley for more than half a century, was buried in the Norway cemetery recently. He was Andrew Smalley, who had lived in the Arago section for 53 years and came from Westport, California, by wagon. He was born in the Susquehanna valley in Pennsylvania, April 3, 1853.

Following his marriage to Emma Tillman, they came west and lived for a time in Virginia City, Nev., before moving on westward to Westport. His wife passed away twenty years ago this month.

Thirty grand children and 19 great grandchildren survive him besides his three sons, Charles, of Portland; Ben, of Arago, and Carl, who lives in California, and five daughters—Mrs. Russell Hill, of Arago; Mrs. Earl Shingaby, of Edgewood, Calif.; Mrs. Jos. Bognuda, of Ferndale, Calif.; Mrs. P. F. Bartlett, of Myrtle Point, and Mrs. Claude Freeman, of Fallon, Nev.

Belle Knife Hospital

An eight-pound baby girl, Mary Louise, was born last Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clark, of Bandon. On Friday a baby boy, weighing 7½ pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Moss, of Coquille. He has been named Doyle Ivan.

To Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Crew, of Bandon, a seven pounds nine ounces, baby girl, named Lynda Kay, was born on Saturday.

James Norman is the name given a 7½ pound baby boy, born on Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ingram, of Langlois.

Jeralline Holycross, of Arago, underwent an appendectomy and Mrs. Mabel Finney entered to have her teeth extracted by Dr. J. R. Bunch last Thursday.

Mrs. Henry Baker, Marshfield, underwent a major operation last Friday. On Saturday Mrs. Ray Cornwell underwent a major operation and Mary Lou Matthews underwent an appendectomy. Mrs. E. W. Buchner entered for treatment on Monday and Mrs. Laura Hamilton, of Coquille, submitted to a major operation.

Dismissals the past week were Mrs. Harry Hull on Thursday, Mrs. Ronald Burr and baby, of Coquille, Mrs. Giles Harris and baby, of Myrtle Point, and Martin Sterbenk on Friday; Mrs. Helen Brugnoll, Mrs. John Rhule, A. L. Grinnell and Edgar Duncan, of Powers, on Saturday; Donna Dean Bosserman on Monday; Master Robert Farmer, of Bridge, on Tuesday; Mrs. Earl Hardenbrook and Larry Dorland of Bullards yesterday.

Home Ec Club Party For Mothers

The C. H. S. Home Ec Club, of which Mrs. Dorothy Kemp is adviser, gave a very nice party last Friday evening in the high school auditorium for the mothers of the club. There are 35 members and 25 mothers were present.

The highlight of the hour program was a style show, modeling the clothes made by members of the club.

Refreshments of angelfood cake and ice cream were served and each visitor was presented with a corsage made by the freshmen girls in the club.

Farewell For Mrs. Harold Gould

Complimenting Mrs. Harold Gould, last Monday evening, Mrs. R. E. Cochran gave a surprise bridge party and handkerchief shower. Mrs. Gould is soon leaving for Sutherland to join her husband, whose business takes them away from Coquille as residents.

The rooms were decorated with spring bouquets of narcissus. Mrs. Wm. Barrows held high score at bridge. The guest of honor, Mrs. Gould, was second high. The shower surprise was tendered Mrs. Gould after bridge followed by the serving of refreshments. Attending were Mesdames L. B. Gould, Hazel Hanna, Wm. Barrows, Mona Inman, George Jenkins, Elbert Schroeder, Harold Gould and the hostess.

Tuesday Duplicate Club

Mrs. Jas. Brady entertained the Duplicate club at her home on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Albert Powers, Jr., of Marshfield, was a substitute guest. Winners of the high score were Mrs. Don McCune and Mrs. Roy Boober. Second high score went to Mrs. E. E. Leslie and Mrs. H. W. Pierce. Others attending were Mesdames Frank Thrift, Ed McKeown, U. E. McClary.

Guild Meeting

Mrs. Wm. Mansell was the hostess on Wednesday at the regular weekly meeting of the St. James' Guild. Attending were Mesdames H. N. Lorenz, E. W. Lorenz, Jas. Watson, J. E.

Axtell, Chas. Seibig, A. J. Sherwood, Chas. Stauff, J. A. Moore, Jennie Price, Annie Robinson, Bert Folsom, Ida Owen, Guy Stem, F. S. Shaw, C. L. Tuttle, J. W. Ruble, R. L. Stewart, Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Greene.

MONEY TO LOAN

Money to loan on good residential property; consult me if you need assistance in financing a loan, or refinancing your old loan—it may save you money.

J. S. Barton, Realtor

Keys made for all locks. Stevens Cash Hardware, Coquille, Ore. 1t

ROXY

THUR - FRI - SAT March 25 - 26 - 27

BOGART BERGMAN HENREID

A new hit from WARNER BROS. A story as exciting as the landing at Casablanca!

They had a date with fate in CASABLANCA the city that rocked the world!

Latest News Events ★ Admission Children 11c Adults 40c

LIBERTY

FRI - SAT - SUN March 26 - 27 - 28

From Conan Doyle's gripping books!

From your favorite radio program!

The Master Minds of Mystery

... leap to life to challenge the menace of modern crime!

BASIL RATHBONE Nigel Bruce SHERLOCK HOLMES AND THE VOICE OF TERROR

Based on the story "His Last Bow" by SIR ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE

Evlyn Ankus Reginald Dwyer Thomas Gomez Montagu Love Henry Daniell

FEATURE NO. 2

IT'S HILARIOUS! IT'S NEP!

It'll Live Your Heart Alive!

GET HEP TO LOVE

with JANE FRAZER ROBERT PAIGE PEGGY RYAN CORA ENE COLLIER THE JIVIS JACOB and HILLS and starring GLORIA JEAN Donald O'CONNOR

SONGS SWEET AND HOT! "Shoney" - "Sings Like" "Her With a Mouth to the Mountains" - and Many More!

LATEST NEWS POPEYE CARTOON

Matinee Sat. 1:45

ADMISSION

Matinee 11c - 25c

Evenings 11c - 35c

SUN - MON - TUE March 28 - 29 - 30

Shout out the happy news! That glorious romance of the show world is here! Judy at her joyous best! A screenful of entertainers! Take your gal to see it!

JUDY GARLAND FOR ME AND MY GAL

GEORGE MURPHY with GENE KELLY MARTA EGGERTH BEN BLUE

Latest News Events

Matinee Sun. 1:45

Mat. 11-25c Eves 11-40c

19 GREAT SONGS!

GENE KELLY of "Pal Joey" stage fame! new screen star!

WED. March 31 Bargain Night!

ADULTS 25c

Varsity Show

See college life in the RAH!

FRED WARING AND HIS PENNSYLVANIANS

NEWS - COMEDY

with DICK POWELL PRISCILLA LANE ROSEMARY LANE A WARNER BROS. release

Never Such A Rush For Appointments

Miss Nan Lorraine is giving the famous Cara Nome Facial during our Beauty Week!

That's news greeted with joy by Coquille's smartest women. They're hurrying to make appointments! Not for anything would they miss the opportunity of having Miss Lorraine's beneficial 45-minute consultation, including the restful Cara Nome Facial, individual skin analysis, glamorous make-up and outline of daily complexion care.

Miss Lorraine comes at our own expense to demonstrate the distinguished Cara Nome Beauty Creations. The facial is our special courtesy to you, the beauty-conscious women of our town.

There is no charge or obligation.

Make your appointment now! Only 10 consultations can be given daily, 9 A. M. to 4:45 P. M.

Fuhrman's Pharmacy

Open every night until 8