SOCIAL NOTES

Royal Neighbors Lodge Adopt Change in Social Policy

Changing conditions in the affairs of members of the Royal Neighbors lodge have resulted in the new plan for a social hour, following the business session of the regular lodge meeting. This, instead of the continuation of the Tauk-an-so cult, seemed more convenient for the duration. Mrs. Frank Mulder, Mrs. Ernest Batty and Mrs. William Jones made up the hostess committee last Wednesday night. Jello and cake were served at a table decorated with artistic favors, little flower pots filled with spring flowers. Receipts for the cake were sold by the committee.

Anne Montgomery, assistant deputy from Marshfield, was present to help with plans for the county convention in Coquille June 16. Members attending were Mesdames Al Birch, Ernest Johnson, Orville Tharp, Earl Schroeder, Henry Belloni, A. N. Willey, Guy Torrey, Wm. Gaffey, Clyde Clark, Ellis Martindale, J. W. McGuffin, M. D. Sheridan and Anne Montgomery.

Lafalot Club

Mrs. George Gilman entertained members of the Lafalot Club at her home last Thursday afternoon. Her daughter, Mrs. H. D. Jacoby and son, Noel, of Eugene, houseguests for the week-end, were present. Also Mrs. Bill Taninnee, of Eureka, sister of Mrs. W. E. Cross and of Mrs. Maggie Simmons, was an extra guest. The group sewed during the afternoon and were served refreshments by the hostess. Members attending were: Mesdames John Martin, W. E. Cross, Wm. Meyers, Hulda Ellingson, O. K. Rakestraw, Alex Mackey and Maggie Simmons. The club meets with Mrs. John Martin in two weeks.

Justamere Club

Mrs. H. A. Young was a Thursday hostess of last week when she entertained members of the Justamere Club at luncheon. Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman, of Sixes River, and Mrs. Jane Williams were special guests. Members who attended were Mesdames J. L. Smith, F. L. Greenough, J. A. Lamb, Bert Folsom, Leona Bryant, M. O. Hawkins, H. W. Pierce and R. A. Wernich.

Coquille Tom Cats Send Gifts To Ula Leach Shower

In a letter to Mrs. J. A. Lamb from North Hollywood, Mrs. Fred Slagle tells of a shower for a former Coquille lady, Mrs. Ula Leach, who is to be married down there next Monday.

The shower was given by Mrs. H. L. Crosby and until told to unwrap the packages, the bride-to-be did not know the affair was in her honor. There were about a dozen present, including Mrs. Slagle, formerly of Coquille; Mrs. A. E. Neff and Mrs. Gordon E. Neff, formerly of Marshfield; Mrs. Gertrude Bowmer, of Ashland, who before her marriage was Gertrude Butler and who lived in Coquille several years ago, and Mrs. Leach.

The ladies met at the "Lamp Post" for dinner and then proceeded to Mrs. Crosby's home, which had been decorated with beautiful flowers from the garden of her son, Bing Crosby.

Among the gifts was a box of tea towels sent by the Coquille Monday Night club of which Mrs. Leach was formerly a member. It had been labelled as from the Coquille "Tom Cats."

Mrs. Slagle writes that it was a most enjoyable affair.

Baptist Mission Circle Meets

The Baptist Women's Mission Circle met in the church parlors yesterday afternoon. The president, Alice Holverstott, led the devotionals from Psalm 46. A short business meeting followed at which it was decided to meet for the summer months in the evening, beginning in May. A missionary program followed, as follows: "Christian Homes in India," by Mrs. Cummins, who also read parts of letters from her daughter who is a missionary in India; "Christian Homes in South China," given by Mrs. Nolan Finley; "Christian Homes in Belgian Congo," by Mrs. Cleo Capps, and an article from "Baptist Mission," read by Mrs. Wm. Knight. Mrs. Florence Hallock, a guest, sang two beautiful songs.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Dunne to: Mesdames R. B. Cummins, Nolan Finley, Bob Olson, Erickson, Holverstott, Wm. Knight, R. Kuenzll, Cleo Capps, Florence Hallock and Harold McCue, the last two being guests.

Chadwick Lodge, A. F. & A. M.

W. C. T. U. Hears Startling Figures

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Harold McCue for its regular business meeting this week, with Mrs. Richmond in charge of devotions and program.

Topics for the day were: "The Place of Youth in Today's Living" and a striking topic, "Women and Drink," taken from the Outlook of the Church of Christ. Quoting the American Baptist: "The morning paper carries the story of a terrible sadistic murder. A little girl who was allowed by her mother to frequent a liquor tavern, slain by a man who has a long record of sadism."

"There is a wave of such news in our dailies. There are more women drunkards in the United States than ever before and their number is constantly increasing."

"There are 437,000 licensed liquor dealers, one saloon for every 300 persons."

"Eleven saloons for every church and one saloon for every seventy-one homes."

"There are 1,350,000 girls employed in the liquor traffic in the United States."

"Of this staggering number we have not taken into consideration the thousands who are selling liquor illegally. Girls of 'teen age habitually loaf and drink in saloons."

The chairman for the Children's Farm Home had a nice display of gifts for the Easter box for the home. Stamp chairman reported $13.00 in defense stamps sold.

Refreshments were served by hostesses Eva McCue and Martha Mulkey to Mesdames Richmond, Laws, Ellis, H. Schaefer, Harriman, Skeels, Couden, Cardwell, Gray, Nelson, DeNoma, Dunn, Purfance, Erickson, D. Schaefer and Persing.

Townsend Auxiliary Meets

The Ladies Auxiliary of Townsend Club, No. 2, met at the home of Mrs. DeNoma on April 8, at two o'clock. The president and vice president were absent and the secretary presided. Mildred Miller paid $2.25 for rugs received. Letter was read from Ollie Moss. Blocks were distributed for names to be worked on them for Lillian Roth's name quilt. The club received a donation and the ladies talked of articles to be made for a bazaar some time in the future. They also sewed rags for rugs. A quilt is to be tied at the next meeting. A card was sent to Viola Liday. The club will meet with Mildred Miller on April 2. Please come early to tie a quilt, and bring scissors.—Press Cor.

Clean as a whistle

Spring cleaning seems to be more important than ever this year because most of us are spending more of our leisure hours at home. But that's not the only reason that this cleaning job has taken on greater proportions. Most of us have to do practically everything ourselves. It's our job now.

Thank goodness for those grand upholstery cleaners on the market today. They are really a salvation to the busy homemaker, for the results are close to miraculous. The dirt that's been collecting all year on those upholstered pieces seems to evaporate into thin air, and the colors become alive again with a freshness akin to new.

UPHOLSTERY CLEANING TECHNIQUE

The directions for cleaning upholstery are usually given on the product. But we've a few hints that might prove helpful.

If you're an amateur at this cleaning job, then start out on an inconspicuous spot, say under one of the cushions or on the back of the sofa. A little practice on these hidden surfaces, and you'll see just how to go about cleaning the whole piece. But don't try to cover the whole cushion or sofa at once. Take a small space at a time and clean it thoroughly before going on to the next surface. It takes a little patience and time, but you're well-paid for the trouble. Usually, one application is quite enough, but if the piece is quite soiled, then give it a second cleaning when thoroughly dry.

CLEANING NON-WASHABLE DRAPERIES

This same upholstery cleaner is also grand for draperies which can't be washed. Shake the draperies and air them well, but keep them in the shade while they are airing. Then clean as you would upholstery, pressing when dry.

BLOSSOM OUT WITH SPRINGTIME MEALS

Give a spring lift to eating with the colorful crisp blending of springtime flavors as suggested in Julia Lee Wright's article in this week's Family Circle. It's free at Safeway.
