E. T. Stelle Resigns As Local Red Cross Chairman

Now that this year's annual Red Cross membership drive has been so successfully completed, E. E. Stelle, Coquille chairman, has written the county chairman, L. A. Blanc, repeating the request he made last fall that he be relieved of duty on the Red Cross committee in Coquille. As chairman of the Coquille War Bond campaign this month, Mr. Stelle has had his hands pretty full with war activities as well as with the bank's business, and now that the Red Cross drive is over, a successor will probably be named when the county committee meets in May. With the $85 contribution this week by Swift & Co. patrons, the total Red Cross membership drive in this section now totals $3800.

Mrs. M. McCarthy's Mother Buried At San Francisco

Mrs. M. McCarthy returned last Thursday from a month's visit in San Francisco. Mrs. McCarthy was called south by the passing of her mother, Mrs. Johanna O'Connor, on March 18 in the bay city. Mrs. O'Connor had been in good health and her death was sudden and unexpected. She had visited her daughter here in Coquille many times and was well known among the friends of the family here. Two other daughters were present in San Francisco for the funeral: Miss Agnes O'Connor, who resides there, and Mrs. Albert Theil, who came from her home in Indiana. Mrs. McCarthy's two sons, Lt. Jack McCarthy, stationed at Camp Swift in Texas, and Lt. Edward at Camp Sibert in Alabama, were unable to come because of the distance.

Mrs. McCarthy spent several days with the family of her daughter, Mrs. Theron Thornton, her husband and two children, of Los Altos.

Miss Agnes O'Connor arrived in Coquille last Saturday to remain for a visit until after Easter, during which time she and Mrs. McCarthy plan a trip to Portland and return.

Church Choir To Present Unique Easter Service

At the Easter Sunday evening service the choir of the Church of Christ will present a unique service. The life of Christ from His birth to His resurrection will be presented in song and scripture. From the great Christian music appropriate songs to the life of Christ have been chosen and woven in with the scriptural account to present a resume of the life of the Master. Everyone is invited to attend this service which begins at 8:00 o'clock.
