Weldon Smith vs. Lura Smith.

While it is not required by law that auto drivers have
Auto Liability Insurance

Under the provisions of the new state law, which becomes effective on June 10, it is highly desirable, from the autoist's point of view that his car be fully covered by Liability Insurance to make sure that, in case of an accident or collision, for which he may not be responsible, that the license of his car is not suspended, pending court action to determine where the fault lay.

B. P. W. Club Has Fine Meeting

The good neighbor policy, of which we hear so much nationally, was put into effect locally on Monday evening when the Coos Bay Business and Professional Women's Club were guests of the Coquille club. All but four of the bay organization responded to the invitation. The War Activities committee, with Viola Newton, chairman, assisted by the Program committee, Bertha Smith, chairman, deserve the credit for the unqualified success of their meeting and party.

The program was presented the fore part of the evening. Clarence Osika, high school principal, spoke on material to do with the state program of the Civilian Defense Council. He gave the ten points of the Victory home. The seriousness of observance of these ten points was discussed by Mr. Osika in no uncertain terms. There is nothing new in any of the ten points but grouped together as a requisite for emergency preparedness, it is doubtful that many homes in town are yet one hundred per cent ready in the event of disaster.

Mrs. Viola Newton's report on War Activities for the past year on the part of members of the B. P. W. club was a revelation. After listening to it, no one could ever say again that the Coquille women are inactive in the war effort. It is hoped to have the report published in full in order that readers of the Sentinel may know what B. P. W. is contributing, and also the importance of and stimulation from the presence of a War Activities committee within an organization.

Three songs by the Girls' Chorus from the high school, accompanied by Harold Withnell, were: "White Christmas," "Smilin' Through" and "Grand Old Flag."

Mrs. G. W. Tyrrell, popular soprano, sang "Will You Remember" and "My Hero." Mrs. Tyrrell was accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins. Mrs. Clara Stauff led in the group singing with Inez Rover at the piano. The presence of several talented singers in that group produced a more than ordinary result, especially in the singing of "America the Beautiful," with Mrs. Stauff and Mrs. Hallock carrying the descant.

During the social hour the games led by Mrs. Hazel Hanna and Martha Mulkey created real excitement and broke down all possible existing formality. Mrs. M. O. Hawkins was high for Coquille in a guessing game, with Marion Dillenbeck, high for Marshfield.

The decorations in the hall and on the supper table were beautiful; pink seemed to predominate in the flowers and candles used. Lace cloths and crystal candelabra helped to make the effect festive. The outgoing president, Ida Oerding, and the incoming president, Florence Hallock, presided at the tea and coffee urns. Inviting refreshments, trays of pretty open-faced sandwiches, home-baked cookies and coffee with ice cream, were served by the committee.

Ida Oerding and Florence Barton, together with four new delegates to be appointed by the president, will attend the state convention at Eugene May 15 and 16.

Coos Bay B. P. W. members attending were Mesdames J. H. Mills, Sam Thompson, Emil Matson, Wm. G. Wylie, Harry Rosencrans, Wm. Smith, E. K. Littrell, Harry Creitz, Misses Alice Cox, Ellen Rudnas, Ellen Ogren, Jessie King, Marion Dillenbeck, Mary Richter, Lois Gusenburg.

Other guests were Mrs. Eugene Tice, of Taosima; Mrs. A. N. Gould, formerly of the Hood River B. P. W.; Mrs. W. G. Tyrrell and Mrs. M. O. Hawkins.

Surprise Party For Bride

The members of the Roy Mothers Club, as a group, came into town last Friday evening to surprise Mrs. Jo Rocco, who formerly lived for years in the Roy district. Mrs. Rocco, the former Mrs. Mary Anderson, was recently married and is now living in the Sperry house on Hall street. Mrs. Mary Wimer and Mrs. Aurora Willard were early callers at the Rocco home to hold the bride until the others arrived. They came bearing beautiful cakes and coffee to be served later. Attending were Mesdames Hulda Ellington, W. E. Cross, Ray Green, Howard Detlefsen, Ronda Johnson, Alec Mackey, Ray Detlefsen, Earl Green, O. K. Rakestraw, Ray Cuckles, Walter Krantz, Benjamin Walton, Aurora Willard and Mary Wimer.

Probate Court Items

John G. Mullen was last Thursday named as executor of the will of Wm. Dolan, who died at North Bend, April 23. C. P. Kibler, M. E. Everett and Reta C. Smith were appointed appraisers of the estate which is estimated to consist of $5000 in real property and $4500 in personal.

State President Legion Auxiliary Talks To Units

Mrs. Nota Frances, state president of the American Legion Auxiliary, gave a very inspiring talk to the Coquille and Powers units on Monday, April 26. It was a talk not only for Auxiliary members, but information which all American citizens should know and be interested in.

The first of several important points was that any soldier or sailor who has been honorably discharged should by all means have a copy of both his army or navy papers and his medical papers made and filed on record at the court house of his home city, so that he will always have a record to refer to. So many men from the first war have experienced trouble in locating their papers or having copies made, which record can be used for medical attention in future years or for checking on insurances.

A second important point was that government insurance at a very reasonable rate is available for men in the service but many times the men have not been informed or have paid little attention to the opportunity. Mrs. Frances urged that all service men take out this insurance and that families check with their service men to see whether they have done so.

There are many of our young men being returned even now to the government hospitals, which are filled to capacity with patients from World War No. 1. Extra beds are needed in every hospital. Many of these young fellows recover quickly and feel that they should be out and busy again. However, Mrs. Frances urged that families do all they can to keep these men in the hospitals until they are entirely well, for a time spent under proper care and supervision there will probably keep them from needing to return later.

Since candy and gum are so limited, even to hospitals, she suggested that groups get together to make candy and send out a box now and then to the Veterans hospital to help cheer up the men. The men need to be kept busy, so that rags for rugs are always welcome. Also they need cushions and cushion covers.

The making of poppies occupies the time of the older men and for each one made the patient is paid so much, thereby helping in very small way to earn a little money for himself or his family. This past year the veterans made 185,000 poppies. Of these 5,000 were made for another state where no veterans hospital is located. The money from the sale of these poppies is used entirely for the care of veterans and their families. The various auxiliary units have been asked to build up a reserve fund as well, to help care for these cases. There have been so many from the past war and will be so many from the present war that all available funds will be necessary to help as the boys are brought home.

Some of the units have been fortunate in securing two bulletins which they have been passing out to the boys as they leave for service and to the families. One is entitled "Fall In," which tells a service man what he is supposed to know about insignia, officers in charge, certain duties and many other items of help. The other bulletin is entitled, "At Home," and gives information to the families as to how they should address mail to men in the service, how to locate men through government channels and answers to various other questions which often puzzle the family of a service man. The Coquille unit is hoping to have some of these bulletins for use.

The National Auxiliary has appropriated $50,000 to be used in helping girls from the ages of 18 to 25 years to finish any nurses training which they may not have been able to complete. There is such need for nurses at this time that the auxiliary is hoping for a federal bill to be passed which will allow and encourage more to finish their courses and be available in this course. Anyone in our own community who is interested should contact Mrs. Harold McCue, who is in charge for the Coquille unit.

Mothers, wives, sisters or daughters of service men who have been killed in this war are eligible for membership in the Legion Auxiliary. Later when the war is over and the men have returned home the relatives of those men will be eligible.

A new unit of the auxiliary has just been formed at Beaverton with 23 members who feel that the armed service needed the help of all, and this was their way of showing they were behind the boys. Women have a very important part to play in the development of things at home. Let us not sit back when our men are gone and have them return with the question—"well what have you been doing while we were away."
