

Minor Mention

Six Coquille members of Hillah Shrine Temple at Ashland went over to Klamath Falls Saturday for a ceremonial there that evening. Those who went and returned Sunday were M. F. Pettit, W. P. Laws, Dr. G. E. Stark, K. P. Lawrence, F. C. Hudson and Dr. C. A. Rietman.

Geo. E. Oerding left last Saturday for La Grande in response to a wire that Mrs. Oerding was quite ill in St. Joseph's Hospital there with pneumonia. She had gone over to Union, Ore., to visit her mother, a couple of weeks ago and when she became ill was moved to LaGrande. George returned last evening and reports that Mrs. Oerding is improving, although still weak and that she will be in the hospital for a week or two yet.

Mrs. E. D. Webb returned Wednesday morning, after spending nearly a week with Mr. Webb in their splendid home, recently purchased, in Gardiner where Mr. Webb is cashier of the bank. Mrs. Webb is hoping to sell their home on Hall street here soon so that she may move to Gardiner. Coquille guests at the Webbs' Gardiner home last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lamb, Mrs. Jennie Williams, Mr. and Mrs. A. Young.

Mrs. Maryette Morse, who was up here from Bandon Monday, said it was pretty nearly as warm down on the coast that day as it was in Coquille, where the thermometer reached 81 or 82.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Foote came up from McClellan Field, near Sacramento, last Thursday, on a six-day furlough. Mr. Foote is one of several hundred civilian police guards who are under army regulations at the field.

Virgil G. Halter, a petty officer in the United States Navy who is stationed in a southern state, was thrilled when he received a telegram from the Knife Hospital at Coquille on May 21, that his wife had presented him with an eight and one-third pound baby boy, named Howard Virgil.

Mrs. Lucy Blum left Saturday evening by train for Kansas City, Mo. She will visit relatives there but primarily she expects her son, Lawrence Blum, of the air force and now stationed at Homestead, Florida, to meet her at Kansas City, where he will enjoy a short furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kyle received a visit from Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pranger, their daughter, Fay, and son, Roy, for a couple of days early this week. They stopped here enroute home from a visit in Los Angeles with a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wells, of Forest Grove, spent last Monday in town as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lewis.

A baby boy, named Ernest Gerald, and who weighed six pounds, five ounces, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Zeleny of this city at the Mast Hospital in Myrtle Point yesterday.

L. R. Hickenbottom, who has been with Smith Wood-Products here for seven years, has had to sever his connections with the company because of his health. He and Mrs. Hickenbottom left Monday for Eugene, near where his brother has a farm on which he is going to rest. If and when his condition improves, he will be back here with the company for he has been assured that there will be an opening for him.

Two Coquille young men, Charles McIntee and John Barrette, who have just finished their training course at Corpus Christi, Texas, have been made petty officers, both being aviation machinist mates.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kester of the Igloo Market expect to leave Saturday for Junction City to visit their children and look after property there. The Igloo Market will be closed during their absence and will reopen Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Harriman have as their house guest Mrs. E. A. Beebe, of St. Paul, Minn. She is a cousin of Mrs. Harriman.

Corporal John Cary, who had been stationed at New Orleans, came in last Thursday for a short visit at home and with his father, Leo J. Cary. The latter left Sunday for Portland to be another day with John, who left Monday for a camp about 100 miles from Camp Ogelthorpe, Ga., where his sister, Mary Ella, is stationed with a WAAC attachment.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Blum and sons left Sunday for a week's camping trip on the Rogue.

Miss Glenda Clinton, Ernestine Batty and Betty Lou Donsted will spend this week-end in Portland, going up on the bus.

Mrs. May Barton left last Sunday morning for Fort Lewis, accompanied by Ben Barton, Joe Estes and Bob Kline. Joe left for induction at Portland. Ben will return this week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Barton, who will visit at Perrydale with their daughter and attend to business in Salem.

Harold LeRoy Robison, arrested last Saturday by the city police, forfeited the $10 bail he posted for his appearance before City Recorder Leslie on Monday.
