Golf Notes

At a meeting held at the club house, Friday, May 28, Mrs. George Chaney was elected president of the Ladies Activities of the Coquille Valley Country Club; Mrs. Ralph Kring of Myrtle Point was elected vice-president and Mrs. Peter Norton, secretary-treasurer.

Golfing was enjoyed both in the morning and after the lunch and meeting.

It was decided to have a pot luck dinner at the club house on Friday, June 4. The men are urged to work on the course, as the golfers from Marshfield are to play here next Sunday.

The lady golfers expect to have a beginners' day soon.

Miss Marion Flannery
To Be Married Friday

Miss Marion Flannery and her sister, Mrs. G. E. Kaiser, left last Sunday for Mrs. Kaiser's home in Missoula, Montana. Miss Flannery hoped to pick up reservations at Missoula for her journey to Shreveport, where upon her arrival she is to be married to Corporal Samuel C. Adams. Miss Flannery's first plans were to go south by way of Los Angeles but she was told that because of flood conditions she could not be sure of reservations and might have to wait over two or three days.

Miss Flannery was in the office of the Moore Mill from Oct., 1941, to Sept., 1942, when she became connected with the First National Bank in Coquille, which position she recently resigned because of her approaching marriage.

Mr. Adams was employed at Smith Wood Products Co. up until last October when he entered the service.

Social Notes

Farewell Party

Miss Marion Flannery entertained a group of friends last Friday evening as a farewell before leaving for her marriage at Shreveport to Mr. Samuel Adams. Bridge was the diversion of the evening. High score was won by Phyllis Belloni. Delicious refreshments were served. Invited guests were Margaret Stewart, Allie Best, Catherine Littlefield, Peggy Hennessey, Phyllis Belloni and Catherine Kaiser.

Kathleen Collier Here

Miss Kathleen Collier and her guest, Miss Myra Black, of Berkeley, have been visiting with Miss Collier's family. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Collier, since their arrival May 23 from the south. They left on Tuesday morning. On Monday evening Mrs. Fred McNelly, assisted by Mrs. Jas. Brady, gave a charming party in honor of the visitors.

McKinley News

The McKinley Grange held its regular meeting Saturday night, with most officers present. Leland Harry was voted in as candidate for new member and Archie Shepherd was voted in as re-instated member. Grange voted to pay up the debts on the Juvenile Grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Churchill was elected as alternate delegates to the State Grange meeting to be held at Eugene.

Visitors Saturday night at the meeting were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trigg, Mr. and Mrs. Clinard Mast, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, all of Myrtle Point Grange.

In order to raise enough more money to pay off the Juvenile hall debt, the McKinley Grange is going to sponsor an old-time dance and box social on the 19th of this month. All ladies are invited to bring well-filled boxes. Little girls' boxes will be sold first and not mixed with grown-ups' boxes. Everyone is invited. Old-time music. A great improvement, by way of new hanging lights were installed in the hall just before this meeting.

Mary Lu Patton and John O'Sullivan left Tuesday morning for the 4-H summer school at Corvallis.

John Nodine Sentenced To Penitentiary For Life

Judge King last Wednesday, at Gold Beach, sentenced John Nodine to be confined in the state penitentiary for the rest of his life for the killing of his sister, Catherine, last December. The jury was out for 22 hours a couple of weeks ago before bringing in the verdict of second degree murder. Nodine was taken to Salem last Thursday, after indicating that an appeal to the supreme court would probably be made.

Howdy Folks:

We wonder if some of you have received the helpful information one of our customers got alarmed about. A young lady at a lub. rack told him she was almost sure, absolutely positive he had trouble or there was something wrong with his car that their mechanics should look after.

Seems like some one was more interested in repairs than eliminating trouble.

Vacation Bible School

A Daily Vacation Bible School will begin Monday at the Emanuel Baptist Church, and will continue for ten days, at June 18.

Miss Mary C. Ayres, state missionary, and currently in charge of the Baptist work at Bandon, will conduct the school. The school opens at 9:00 a. m. and closes at 12 daily. Mrs. Ned Griffin is in charge of the Beginner Department, ages four and five. Mrs. Nolan Finly conducts the Primary department, ages six to eight. The Junior department, ages nine to eleven, has Mrs. Alice Holverstott, as leader. Rev. Menno Rempel, of the local church, is in charge of the High School department.

There will be stories, songs, handwork, Bible Study, and various special projects to make it worth while to all. All boys and girls interested should report early Monday morning.

Coquille And Myrtle Point
Boys Graduate At O. S. C.

Among the 608 students receiving degrees in the O. S. C. War class at the seventy-fourth annual commencement May 29, seven were from Coos county and one was from Coquille, Charles F. Leatherman, who obtained the bachelor of science degree in agriculture. Sam Dement, of Myrtle Point, received the same degree.

Ward McReynolds will be at the Coquille city hall again next Tuesday, June 8, between nine and four o'clock to receive applications of those desiring drivers' licenses and to conduct examinations.
