and races are sought, and it is hoped to have a large list of entries registered.

L. W. Claver reported that on his recent trip to Portland he contacted Ed Chaney, dancing master of renown, and the latter agreed to bring four or five girls from the dancing school there to present dancing acts as often as desired during the three days. This show, which will take place in the Community Building basement, is a high class, clean and artistic presentation of the dancing art and a small admission price is to be charged for it, but one payment of the fee will be good for the entire day.

Mr. Claver also reported that the orchestras for the dances had been secured and contracted.

Among the organizations which have offered to be here for the Monday parade, which starts at 11:00 o'clock, are the Myrtle Point ambulance corps, 100 State Guardsmen from Bridge, Remote and the upper valley, the K. P. drum corps of ladies from Roseburg, the Eagles drill team both ladies and men, and, of course, the Coquille Eagles drill team.

The Victory Girls, one of whom will be queen of the celebration and who will be crowned at the starting ceremony of the celebration Saturday evening, will have the place of honor in the parade preceding the crowning Saturday evening. They will also take part in the river parade on Sunday and Dr. J. D. Rankin has offered his power boat for the royal barge.

Treasurer Caughell reported that the Victory Girls had so far turned in $301 from the sale of tickets and that the finance chairman, W. H. Fortier, had turned over $1,063 to the celebration fund.

Ray Jeub, chairman of the Monday street sports committee, was given the amount he considered necessary for this feature of the celebration and, at his request, Evan Alborn and Charley Briggs were appointed on the committee to assist him. The offer to name Lefe Compton on the sports committee also was declined by Mr. Jeub!

Interest in the celebration all over southwestern Oregon was reported to be increasing, and prospects for a large attendance are good.

Right now the chief concern is to get the registration of riding horse owners and of woodsmen and loggers who will take part in the river sport features.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. McKeown Honored
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Slack entertained friends on Wednesday evening, June 23, at their home, when Mr. and Mrs. Joe McKeown of Marshfield, were honor guests at a delightful dinner party. Mr. McKeown, prominent young attorney, has been another Coos county professional man to close up his office and don a uniform. Mrs. McKeown is the former Barbara Bradford, and is accompanying her husband east to his new post on the Atlantic coast, not far from where she attended school before her marriage.

The Slack dinner table looked inviting with its centerpiece of pink and white sweet William arranged in a crystal bowl. Dinner was served at eight.

The following couples attended: Mr. and Mrs. Joe McKeown, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Adelsperger, Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dimmick, Opir, and Mr. and Mrs. Luckey Bonney.

Neighborhood Club

Mrs. Fred Hudson entertained Wednesday at her home with a beautiful luncheon for members of her bridge club. Roses used on the small table and gorgeous iris and painted daisies in arrangements about the living room were a charming sight to see. High score was won by Mrs. Frank Jameson and second high by Mrs. Geo. Johnson. Mrs. Jamieson and Marjorie Throckmorton were guests. Members attending were Mesdames Geo. Johnson, Frank Martin, Kennet Lawrence, Irving Larson and J. D. Gillespie.

Arrests By The City Police

Vern Thomas Norris, on Sunday, and Fritz Winkleman, Saturday night, were arrested by the local police and notified to appear before the recorder June 26.

Robert Roland Owens was picked up last Saturday but as he had his induction into the Army paper and his ticket to Portland, the officers did not hold him.

Clyde Harold Morgan, out after hours, said he had been working in Portland but did not like it up there; that he had funds with which to secure a room, so no charge was filed against him.

Hearing June 28 On Hunting Regulations

Regulations governing the taking of game birds, game animals and furbearing animals were tentatively formulated by the Oregon State Game Commission at its meeting in Portland on Saturday, June 12. The meeting was adjourned until June 28, at which time the final regulations will be formally adopted. This will enable the Commission to give publicity to the proposed regulations and provide an opportunity to hear any objections before final action is taken.

Deer and Elk—October 1 to November 3, open season for mule deer and blacktail deer having forked horns, entire state except as otherwise listed.

California or Valley Quail—October 16 to 27 in Coos county.

Sooty or Blue Grouse—All counties in eastern Oregon closed. In western Oregon, same coastal counties will be open as last year including Columbia, Clatsop, Tillamook, Curry Lincoln, Coos and parts of Lane and Douglas. Bag limit, 2 birds a day but not more than 6 a season.

Pheasants—October 16 to 27, inclusive, open season in Polk, Marion, Benton, Linn, Lane and Coos counties. Bag limit, 3 cocks a day, 6 in possession.

Norton's have just received a fine new stock of boxed papers—white, colors and florals—monogrammed or with the name in gold, there's no finer gift.

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

Let peanut butter be the home front standby

It's time we realized the importance of peanut butter as a nutritious food, and not as a delicious snack food. Its flavor is only one of the things in favor of peanut butter. It is a protein food and that means that it can take the place of meat on the menu. It is a food high in energy value, the kind of food that gives that power needed for heavy work. As for minerals and vitamins, peanut butter scores high. It is particularly high in some of those all-important B vitamins.

PEANUT BUTTER CUTLETS—Combine 1 cup hot medium thick white sauce and 1/2 cup peanut butter. Add 1 well-beaten egg and mix well. Add 2 cups soft bread crumbs and seasonings and mix well. Form into cutlets or patties, dip in beaten egg, then cracker crumbs and fry until well browned. Serve with cheese sauce.

PEANUT BUTTER IN SOUPS—Add 2 or 3 tbsps. peanut butter to cream soups for additional nourishment and tempting new flavor.

PEANUT BUTTER SAUCES—Blend in 1 to 2 tbsps. peanut butter into white sauce, tomato sauce and gravies. It adds extra richness and intriguing nutty goodness.

PEANUT BUTTER SALAD DRESSINGS—Mix peanut butter and salad dressings or mayonnaise in proportions to suit your taste. Serve on vegetable and fruit salads. It's simply luscious.

PEANUT BUTTER PUDDING—Mix 1/2 cup of cornstarch with a dash of salt and 1 tsp. sugar, and 1/2 cup cold water. Combine 3 tbsps. honey or corn syrup with 4 tbsps. peanut butter. Mix with cornstarch mixture, and cook in double boiler for 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Then cover and cook 15 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Cool, pour into sherbet dishes and chill.
