

Minor Mention

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Miller, who said they had been conserving gas for months in order to make the trip to Coquille for the Fourth, came in Saturday from Portland and were guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. Anna Rooney. John quit his farm in the Tule Lake section a year ago for the duration. Mrs. Miller is employed as teller in a bank in Portland and John is employed by a hardware firm next door to the bank. They enjoyed meeting their many old friends here and left for Portland on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip E. Johnson, formerly of this city but now residing in Glendale, Calif., where he is manager for the Dollar oil interest and who are guests this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Johnson at the Johnson mill in the canyon this side of Camas Valley, were in Coquille on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Les A. Greene, formerly of Coquille when he and Fred Jensen operated the store here opposite the hotel, came up from Oakland, Calif., last Friday and next day continued on to Portland. Les said they could not stand it in Oakland any longer and if their house here had not been rented they would have remained in Coquille rather than to try out another large city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Fitzpatrick were two more ex-Coquille people who came in for the celebration. They arrived Saturday night from Newport where they have been since "Fitz" sold the City Cleaners plant here last year. They said it was the first day off Fitz had had since last Thanksgiving. With all the service men stationed along the coast near Newport and at Camp Adair over near Corvallis to serve, their shop is swamped with work most of the time. They had a most interesting time renewing old friendships and taking in all they could of the big celebration. They left for home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Fensler, formerly of Myrtle Point, where he was in the drug business, came over from Tule Lake last Thursday and were guests at the Theo L. Clinton home till after the Fourth. They have been over south of Klamath Falls for the past 13 years, operating a ranch, but with their three sons in the service Mr. Fensler has shut down most of his operations, confining himself to raising onions.

Corp. Ted Peterson and Mrs. Peterson were Coquille visitors over the Fourth. He is stationed at Camp White near Medford and she is employed in the Consolidated Freightways office in Roseburg. Their store, the Dillard Market on Front street, was closed last year when Mr. Peterson enlisted in the Army.

Ray C. Brownson, who is employed at Morris Ray's logging camp on Bear creek, was brought up to Dr. Gould here last Thursday with a broken arm, and other contusions and bruises suffered when a chocker jerked, flew back and knocked him down a declivity into a rocky ravine.

N. C. Kelley and his daughter, Mrs. Nina Nosler, intend leaving this evening for San Francisco, where they will visit the latter's son, Elwyn, who is a cook in the Naval Hospital at Oakland.

Muriel Dae left yesterday morning for a two weeks' visit with her brother in San Francisco.

Advance Reservations On S. P. Must Be Made After July 16

Advance reservations for Southern Pacific coach trips will have to be made by those planning journeys on and after July 16, it was announced today by F. S. McGinnis, vice president in charge of passenger traffic for the railroad.

Under the new arrangement, coach reservations will be made for definite trains but not for specific cars or seats, except on trains where seat reservations have been previously required such as the Beaver between Portland and San Francisco, McGinnis stated. The new arrangement will apply to the Rogue River, overnight train between Portland and Southern Oregon and Coos Bay.

"We will not be able to make coach reservations by telephone because of the load on telephone lines," McGinnis stated. "And no coach reservations will be made unless a ticket has been purchased."

Miss Patricia Berg, runner-up in the queen contest, had the place of honor and Miss Marilyn Sage substituted as a princess for the occasion. Betty was better the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Johnson and two children, aged three and 1 1/2 years, are visiting Mrs. Johnson's aunt, Mrs. Bill Foote. Mrs. Johnson is the former Lillian Bower, who attended high school here and left to live in Portland in 1939.

Mrs. Eileen Kern Alder was a guest from Eugene at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Kern, from Wednesday evening until Saturday last week.

Rotary Club Reports Successful Fourth

Reports on the activities of the club at the recent Fourth of July celebration were made by J. S. Barton and Jess Bayers at the meeting of the Rotary Club at the hotel on Wednesday.

Bayers, the new program chairman, made a very humorous talk and Barton's financial report was even couched in a whimsical vein. Bayers stated that after a session of twelve hours sleep he was ready to go again but O. L. Wood said that he thought it would take him several years to catch up to where he was ready to serve as general chairman.

President Larry Lundquist was in the chair for his first regular meeting and Lois Holimon was introduced as one Baby Rotarian.

Pet Berg, Rotary Club Victory Girl candidate, was a guest and presented a letter of appreciation for the loyal support given her.

Rotarian Clark Fensler, formerly of Myrtle Point, but now of Tulelake, Calif., was present as a guest as were also Fred Ingham and Gordon Ingham, of Seattle, and W. L. Weyler, of Kansas City.
