Seattle Wedding Brings Charming Bride To Coquille

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hale returned recently from their honeymoon trip to make their home in Coquille. Mr. Hale is an inspector for the Weyerhaeuser Lumber Company of Tacoma with large interest in this section. The wedding of the young couple was solemnized in mid-June at the University Lutheran Church of Seattle and was the scene of a beautiful candlelight wedding service.

The bride was Miss Olga Maria Mazur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mazur. Mr. Hale, the groom, is the son of Mrs. Titus Hale. The wedding was formal with one hundred and seventy-five invited guests. Solos preceding the ceremony were "Ave Maria" and "God Gave Me You," with organ accompaniment.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. Her gown was white slipper satin, made on princess lines with long train and lace-edged finger-tip veil was caught up to a tiara of rhinestones and pearls. She carried a white satin prayer book with an orchid and shower of Stephanotis. For her going-away gown the bride chose a powder blue suit with white accessories and orchid corsage. A reception was held in the church parlor.

Mrs. Hale was a high-school and business college graduate of Seattle schools and was employed by the Port of Seattle Embarkation Secret Service Signal Corps.

Miss Dorris Compton and Mrs. Cecil Laws, attractive daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Compton, received with their mother on Tuesday afternoon at a tea given in their honor in the Compton Apartment of the Coquille Hotel.
