lusty in singing "My Old Kentucky Home" and "God Bless America."
Rev. W. S. Smith gave the invocation in his usual pleasing and satisfying manner.

The constitution and by-laws, as previously published, were adopted unanimously. This now legalizes the Coos and Curry Pioneer Association as soon as the incorporation papers are duly filed.

The report of the nominating committee was approved and the following officers for the coming year were unanimously elected, two of the directors, as provided in the constitution and by-laws, being from Curry county, all the others from Coos county.

President — Charles Stauff, Coquille.

Vice President — Miss Genevieve Sengstacken, Marshfield.

Sec.-Treas.—Mrs. Inez Chase, Coquille.

Directors—L. H. Hazard, Coquille; Judge Dal M. King, Myrtle Point; J. Albert Matson, Marshfield; Jack Kronenberg, Bandon; H. G. Kern, North Bend; Lex Cope, Langlois; Judge A. H. Boice, Gold Beach.

The audience was very much disappointed at the announcement of the illness of E. J. Simpson, of North Bend, a pioneer, who it had been announced would be one of the speakers.

Mrs. Alice Maloney, now of Berkeley, California, but originally a daughter of Mr. McCormac, pioneer family of Marshfield, gave an interesting talk on the historical research work she is doing on the southwestern part of Oregon. She made an appeal for any information regarding the very early settlers, miners, description of historical trails, historical stories, and even recipes of olden days.

A. G. Beals, father of Mrs. Robert Adams whose husband is one of the state police located here, and Mrs. Beals were here from Tillamook on a visit and were interested guests and observers of the day's activities.

Mr. Beals is really the father of the museum now located at Tillamook, which has between five and six thousand pieces in its collection, 800 of which are photographs.

When called upon to address the gathering Sunday he especially commended the association for its determination to start a museum and pointed out that they would be erecting a monument which would be enduring to the end of time and their efforts more appreciated as time went on and future generations would rise up and called them "Blessed." Many priceless relics are easily and rapidly lost and can never be replaced, he said. They are usually found in cellars or attics, in boxes, barrels and trunks that are often thoughtlessly discarded as being useless. "We often put something old away in the cellar or attic for safe keeping, when, in reality it is put in a place where it is out of the way and would be the last thing to be removed from the building in case of fire or any other destructive force," said Mr. Beals.

He said he was happy to be a pioneer of the Oregon coast—he came west as a boy nearly half a century ago from Pennsylvania—and crossed the Coast range from Salem to Tillamook when there were only Indian trails and the snow was ten feet deep on the summit.

Speaking further of the pioneer association and museum in Tillamook, he said they had between eight and nine hundred members with $800 in the treasury, and that the museum exhibits are housed in the former Tillamook county stone court house, given for the purpose nine years ago. It is second to none in the state except what may be preserved in churches.

The program was over by about three o'clock and the pioneers began to leave for their homes soon thereafter.

Belle Knife Hospital

Grover Gouthier, who lives just beyond Johnson Mill, entered the hospital last Thursday for treatment.

Claud Lemon, employee at the plant here, was quite seriously injured last Friday when he was hit from the rear by a lumber carrier and jammed up against a solid plank. He was brought to the hospital for treatment.

Willis Wilcox, a ten-year old Fish-trap boy, underwent an appendectomy on Sunday.

A seven pounds, four ounces, baby boy, who has been named Cole Wayne, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cordray of this city on Sunday.

A baby girl, who has not yet been named, was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Breedlove, of Sixes river, July 26. She weighed nine pounds.

Mrs. Emma Brown, of Bandon, entered for treatment on Monday.

Julia Cotter, of this city, was volunteer organization, man the Filter Centers, then plot the reported planes so that they may be identified by Army, Navy, or civilian aircraft authorities. If they find any plane, so plotted, unidentified, orders are immediately issued by the Fighter Command to intercept the aircraft in question. This is a 24-hour a day, every day of the week job, without which our air protection could not function.

The main efforts in holding a concentrated Aircraft Warning Service Week are four-fold. First, the recognition of persons now serving as volunteers in the vast Aircraft Warning Service for the work they have done. Second, to make it a sustaining program, keeping these full-time volunteers on the job; for they have learned to do their work efficiently, and have spent many months gaining valuable experience. As in any organization these veterans are, indeed, valuable, and must be made to feel that they are still needed. Third, the identity of the wings of the AWS, though familiar to its members, mean very little to the general public. The Aircraft Warning Service is an active part of the Army Air Force, and the members of the Ground Observer Corps and the Aircraft Warning Corps are as much a part of the Army Air Force as any pilot or other military personnel. We would like for the letters "AWS" to be as familiar to the public as are OWI, OCD, or OPA.

Last, but not least, an effort toward recruiting new volunteers will be made. In many of the areas, an acute need for additional volunteers is felt, while in others, a waiting list is quite desirable because there are constant changes in personnel, so it is necessary to make an effort toward recruiting in practically all areas. Thus the policy of AWS Week will be recognition of the AWS by the public, a sustaining program to keep people on the job, identity of the AWS as part of the Army Air Force, and recruiting to get extra personnel.

Assisting in the dining room were Meadames Stanley Ayres, Luckey Bonney and Harry Slack. Receiving with the hostess and guest of honor were Meadames J. A. Berg, George Chaney and Walter Paulson. Opening the door upon the arrival of guests were the two charming daughters of the hostess, little blue-eyed, curly-haired blond Marcia and Karen, looking almost like twins.

Appeal For More Red Cross Help

some sewing, at least, so that by the first of September we will have made a fair showing and be all set for a greater increased fall and winter output. We must all remember that our boys, wherever they may be, are doing their jobs, and we must continue to support them, here at home in every possible way.

Arrangements are still under way toward securing a permanent work room and, it is hoped, to announce some headway very soon. There have now been promised three sewing machines; an ironing board has been generously loaned by Mrs. Jane Martin, an electric iron by Mrs. Wm. Mineau and another by Mrs. Kesner. The Red Cross also thanks those women who have contributed toward the needle and safety pin boxes placed at Lorenz, Slater's and Penney's.

Old wool pieces, cut into squares 4 in. x 4 in. are asked for the making of afghans; also old wool coats, suits, etc., for bedside slippers, pieced quilts, etc. This class of work is particularly suitable for group sewing and the ladies would be pleased to hear from more church, lodge and club sewing groups. Seventy-five completed articles have been turned in to Coos county Red Cross headquarters since the first meeting of July 8th and Mrs. Bunch has already turned in 1050 surgical dressings. As usual Mrs. L. A. Lundquist will have on hand simple, cut-out materials and samples for home sewing.

Mrs. Phil Alborn, 316 So. Heath street, phone 94J, has yarn on hand for knitting; also printed instructions. She will be pleased to help beginners. Mrs. Kesner may be contacted at 139 W. 2nd, phone 163M, for all sewing materials, samples, patterns, etc., or for any information desired. For surgical dressing classes, phone Mrs. J. R. Bunch, 130M.

Make a ring around August third on your kitchen calendar and plan to be at the Red Cross meeting. Your help is greatly needed and is earnestly solicited.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Barber, who have lived here for some time, left Monday afternoon with their last load of household goods for Lebanon, Ore., near which town he owns a 35-acre ranch.

Mrs. Clarence McNair, on Tuesday, and Rose Marie Peart, yesterday, both underwent operations for removal of tonsils and adenoids.

Dismissals the past week were Johnny Wasson and Carl Junior Elvers on Sunday, Robert Doyle on Monday, and O. C. Hollingstead, of Nampa, Calif., yesterday.

SOCIAL NOTES

Tea for Visiting Young Matron

Mrs. Guy Mauney entertained Wednesday at tea, from three until five o'clock, for the pleasure of her sister, Mrs. John Philip Cahn, who with her husband is visiting here from Stockton, Calif. Mrs. Cahn, nee Margaret Paulson, and Mr. Cahn met while both were attending Stanford University. Both were interested in dramatics and much has happened since. While Margaret was east in a stock company, Mr. Cahn was directing the shows. The first year of their marriage they spent in Hollywood, Mr. Cahn studying and writing. He is a writer by profession and will have a story in Liberty magazine in the August issue. Screen writing is his ambition. He has been in the Navy Air Corps but has fever interferred and he hopes to pass requirements to get into the Army soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cahn's visit here for the past week has included a trip by boat up the Rogue River to Agness, visits to logging camps and swimming parties. They expect to leave in a day or so for their home in Stockton.

Old friends of their mothers and the young friends of their own were included in Mrs. Mauney's guest list of those invited. A very lovely tea table with decoration details in pink and white was presided over the first hour by Mrs. Fred Belloni and Mrs. H. A. Young; the second hour by Mrs. H. W. Pierce and Mrs. J. S. Barton. These were all mothers of "Pirates," of which the guest of honor was a member in her girlhood days.

Assisting in the dining room were Meadames Stanley Ayres, Luckey Bonney and Harry Slack. Receiving with the hostess and guest of honor were Meadames J. A. Berg, George Chaney and Walter Paulson. Opening the door upon the arrival of guests were the two charming daughters of the hostess, little blue-eyed, curly-haired blond Marcia and Karen, looking almost like twins.

Bachelor Girls Club

In the absence of the President, Margaret Belloni, vice president Dorothy Coffee, presided last Friday at the regular luncheon meeting of the Bachelor Girls Club. With no business for transaction there was more time to sing and to enjoy the ever tempting luncheon served by the Coquille Hotel. Girls attending were Margaret Stewart, Alys June Fox, Phyllis Belloni, Lydia Holstein, Donna Dean Bosserman, Maxine Johnson, Marguerite Robinson, Gladys May and Aloha Allen.

Surprise Birthday Party

U. E. McClary was completely surprised on Tuesday evening when following a special family dinner in his honor at his home, a group of his men friends arrived for the evening. July 27 happened to be the date of Dick's birthday. His wife had planned a stag party with him all unaware. Cards of course was the diversion. Frank Greenough and Otto Zentner managed high score for themselves. Those invited were as follows: Claire Gray, D. E. Raekleff, H. W. Pierce, Don McInery, Earl Leslie, Stanley Ayres, Don McCune, Wm. Barrow, Andy Anderson, George Maynard, Roy Booher, Frank Greenough and Otto Zentner.

Patriotic Program at Grange

The Coquille Grange which meets in the Woodman hall, enjoyed a particularly impressive program last Friday evening. Mrs. Florence Hallock had planned the arrangement with emphasis on the patriotic. "The Story of Independence," was the subject of a good paper by Cora Mackey. "The Story of the Flag," by Mrs. E. M. Briner, was followed by "The Story of the Liberty Bell," read by Mrs. Joe Varney. An amusing song was sung with every one taking part in pantomime. Refreshments were served in the dining room with the table attractively decorated in the national colors. Mr. and Mrs. Giles from Tillamook Grange were present.

Soroptimist Committees Named

Members of the Soroptimist Club, with their president Florence Barton, in the chair, enjoyed a fine luncheon Tuesday at their regular meeting at the Coquille hotel. A hit number for the entertainment was the song, "It's a Grand Old Flag," sung by six year old Bobbie Jean Harris and accompanied by Zettie Hawkins. Announcement by the president was made of standing committees as follows: Attendance, Edith McNelly; budget and finance, Bess Maury, Georgianna Vaughan and Leona Bryant; civic and service, May Barton, Mrs. Gertrude Chaney, and Hattie Lee Holliman; club history, press, and publicity, Edith Littler; grievance, Marion Wood, Hazel Hanna; hospitality and social, Flora Compton, Buelah Norton and Susie Folsom; legislation, revision, Wilda Schroeder, Buelah Norton; membership and classification, Susie Folsom, Pauline Pettit, Wilda Schroeder; music, Muriel Dae Ardath and Zettie Haw-

Rebekahs Met Tuesday Evening

Mamie Rebekah Lodge held its regular meeting in the I. O. O. F. Hall, Tuesday evening, with the Noble Grand, Mrs. Florence Hallock, in the chair. Routine business was attended to. The resignation of Miss Edith Gruenewald as Left Supporter of the Noble Grand and as Trustee was accepted. Two new officers were installed: Mrs. Maude Greene as L. S. N. G. and Mrs. Jane Burch as musician; the installing officer being Mrs. Mildred Schaefer, the District Deputy President, and Mrs. Ruth Beyers acting as Grand Marshal. The new finance committee for the term was appointed, including J. P. Beyers, Fred Schaefer, and Mrs. Bonnie Walker.

The matter of the annual summer picnic with the Oddfellows was discussed and arrangements were made to meet with their committee for further planning. Announcements were made that the sewing club would meet with Mrs. Katharine Erickson Tuesday afternoon and that the Past Noble Grands club would meet with Mrs. Ethel Leach on the Bandon highway on Friday, August 6. Mrs. Ruth Beyers is transportation chairman for the latter event and Past Noble Grand needing a way to get to the meeting is asked to make her needs known.

For the next regular lodge meeting it was decided to have a potluck supper in the lodge dining room. That will be on Tuesday, August 10, at 6:45 p. m. The committee appointed to take charge of the supper consists of Mrs. Myrtle Benham, Mrs. Joyce Owen and Mrs. Bonnie Walker. After the meeting was closed there was a short social hour, including an interesting game in which prizes were won by Mrs. Merle Kellenberger and E. C. Briner.

Ten Merchants To Display Relics

All people in or adjacent to Coquille are urged to cooperate in making the Historic Exhibition Week a success. This is a plan which the Old Oregon Trail commission wish to have observed in every town and city in the state, to celebrate the centennial and to honor the memory of the early pioneers who settled in the Oregon country.

Starting on Sunday, August 15, the exhibition will last throughout that week. Everyone who has relics of the early days should bring them out of hiding to one of the merchants whose name appears below. Articles to be displayed should be brought in a few days ahead of the time of showing. Early day pictures, spinning wheels, old guns, utensils, old shawls, hand-made chairs and what not, are a few items of interest among the many things which should come to light at this time. Merchants who have agreed to have display windows are: Lorenz Dept. Store, Purkey Furniture, Cow Bell Dairy, Geo. Oerding, J. C. Penney, Fuhrman's Pharmacy, Miss May's Dress Shop, Excel Dress Shoppe and Hallock's. Any merchant who may desire is urged also to display as many articles as he wishes and to decorate in the spirit of early day. Any person in doubt or wishing further information please feel free to call any one of the following committee members Mrs. R. A. Wrnich, O. C. Sanford, Mesdames Inez Chase, Annie Robinson, M. O. Hawkins, Pearl Ellingsen or Mr. S. M. Nosler.

J. P. Is Lenient With Truck Drivers

Justice of the Peace Fred R. Bull, in order that there be as little interference as possible in the hauling of logs and production of needed lumber, permits the drivers of trucks who have been summoned to appear before the J. P. by the state police, to come in later and settle for all charges at one time during the month. The following are the names appearing on his record for the past week: July 23, Edward LeRoy Mattin for combined overload, and Harley LeRoy Miller for trailer overload. July 27, Otis M. Kirkland, driver axle overload; Vernon R. Cottrell and R. L. Wilson, trailer overloads; Wm. Howard Stumbaugh, combined overload.

Howdy Folks:

It's going to be kinda tough, besides how hard mowen is, to leave this old place. Did you ever feel like you had taken root? Reckon it might be easier if we don't stop to pack.

It will be three years in a couple of more months since we uncartered our initial shipment of Motor Rebuilding equipment—"The Finest Money Can Buy."

It's no secret but a long story why we are the sole owners of such fine equipment in Coos county.

We have bored over 700 motors, corrected (ground, if you please) over twice that many sets of valves, and laid the foundation for a smooth running motor by line boring the main bearings of all our motor rebuild jobs.

This equipment is still like new and receives only the simple care that we advise for your motor equipment and machinery.
