Mrs. Gaffey Hears Son Bud's Voice

Mrs. Wm. Gaffey, of this city, received quite a thrill last Friday night when she heard the voice of her son broadcasting from Tokyo, where he is a prisoner. The recorded re-broadcast which she heard had been sent from Japan earlier in the evening when she could not get it, but about eleven o'clock that evening 15 ladies assembled at the Geo. Burr home and the recorded broadcast came in plainly. It was Bud's voice, without doubt, she says.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaffey have also received 18 cards from people in other states who heard the broadcast and sent cards in case his parents did not hear it. Bud's message was:

"This is William Ivan Gaffey, 29, U. S. N., taken prisoner at Kiska, speaking from Tokyo. Dear Mother in the U. S.: I am calling from Tokyo, Japan. I am in good health, so do not worry. I am in a camp near Please write to me soon." Then followed the names of To School At Fargo, N. D. other prisoner young men whose Maury Williams, who enlisted in parents should be notified of their safety. He then continued:

"Good-bye for now. I will write as soon as I can. Your loving son, Bud. Anyone hearing this message, is taking an adminitrative course at McCloud entertained the members of please forward to my family." His the agricultural department. He did the Spurgeon Hill birthday club last ute. address is: Camp No. 2, Information not know when he wrote his mother, Friday, Aug. 20. #### Carl Torrey Has Been In Six Major Engagements In Pacific

Carl Torrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Torrey who has been in six From The Aleutians major engagements in the Pacific war zone, arrived here Monday from San Francisco on a week's leave from his vessel. Carl graduated from Coquille High in 1939 and enlisted in the Navy in 1941. He has been at sea since Pearl Harbor and, if permitted, could doubtless give many an interesting account of encounters, with the Japs.

J. H. Schroeder, Jr., Leaves Monday To Rejoin Vessel

John H. Schroeder, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schroeder at Johnsons Mill, left Monday morning to rejoin his vessel at Oakland, Calif. He had enjoyed a 20-day leave after returning from Navy patrol in the Pacific and says his vessel was in some engagements and had an experience with a Jap sub.

Here From Fort Leonard Wood

Richard A. Hennessey has been in Coquille on furlough for a five-day forefinger while working at the son, George, at the R. A. Wernich home. Private Hennessey enlisted in April and after a short period at Fort Lewis was sent to Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri, where he has just completed his basic training in an engineering division. He left Tuesday evening for Fort Leonard Wood, day, Mrs. Grant Hartwell and baby where he expects to get his orders to leave for a port of embarcation.

"Coug" Moy Home For Two Days This Week

Howard C. (Coug) Moy spent a couple of days at home here this week, from Monday morning until yesterday. His vessel docked last week at a California port and after a visit in Tacoma he came to Coquille. "Coug," who graduated from C. H.

S. in 1941, enlisted in the Navy shortly after Pearl Harbor. He is now Gunner's Mate 3d clas, and is a member of the Navy gun crew on a merchant ship. He expects to go out again soon after he reports for duty.

One of the things he mentioned here, and it is not censorable news, larger Jap subs have smaller subs fastened fore and aft on the decks, which carry but two torpedoes and have a cruising radius of less than 200 miles. They are, of course, manned by "suicide crews" and probably are not really expected to return to the mother sub.

Billings - May Nuptials Sunday

The marriage of Miss Gladys May and John S Billings, of Ashland, Ore., was solemnized last Sunday afternoon at two p. m. in the Salt Creek Baptist Church near Dallas. A particularly interesting fact is that Miss May's grandfather, who was a Baptist minister, founded the church in which the ceremony was performed.

The bride, a pretty brunette, wore a white silk moire dress with long train and a finger tip veil, which fell from a triple pointed tiara. She was given in marriage by her brother, Edward May. Luella May was her sister's bridesmaid. Wearing a dress of soft rose pink sheer, she carried a bouquet of roses and bouvardia. Cecil is the opinion of Naval men that the Laws, private first class, was the groom's best man. The marriage ceremony was read by Rev. Mr. Schnei-

Mrs. Ron Endicott Loses Life In Siltcoos Lake

Services were held at Myrtle Point on Monday for Mrs. Ronald Endicott, who was drowned in Siltcoos lake, near Florence on Tuesday of last week. Rev. Richard Cochran of the Presbyterian church officiated at the services and interment was in the family plot at Bandon.

The accident which resulted in herdeath by drowning occurred when the boom stick on the sail boat in which she and Mr. Endicott were riding knocked her overboard and before he could bring the boat around she had disappeared and the body was not found for several days.

She was the daugther of Mr. and Mrs. George Huther of Riverton and besides her husband is survived by two children by a former marriage.

Dessert diary summer 1943

When hot-weather appetites make light dinners appropriate, reinforce the menu with a hearty desertone that will tempt the family into getting its full share of nourishing food. Good desserts can carry plenty of food values, you know, including vitamins, minerals, and energy-pro-ducing essentials. Our Diary of Desfinales to lightweight menus

OLD-FASHIONED PEACH COSSLER-Prepare biscuit dough as usual Roll it out to a thickness of 1/4 inch. Cut strip to fit around the sides of a pan about 2 inches deep Arrange fresh, sliced peaches, sugared to taste, in pan Dot with butter Add 1/2 cup water to create steam Cover peaches with remaining dough, press edges to-gether and seal; cut large slits in top to allow steam to escape Bake in hot oven (450° F.) for 15 minutes, then turn down heat and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 15 minutes longer

PRUITED FLOATING ISLAND - Place fresh berries or sliced fruits in tall sherbet dishes, cover with icy cold, soft, boiled custard. Top with meuntil stiff, then adding powdered sugar and blending. Put a fleck of jelly or jam on top of the meringue and chill.

PRUIT SETTY - Combine 114 cups moist breadcrumbe with 1/4 cup sugar and 11/2 taps cinnamon Place alternate layers of fresh fruit and breadcrumbs in casserole, beginning with fruit and ending with breadcrumbs. Dot with butter or other shortening, add ½ cup of fruit juice or water, cover casserole and bake in moderate oven (375° F.) for 45 minutes. Serve with light eream or thin custard sauce.

OR DO SANDWICHES WORRY YOU? If your dessert problems are straightened out, but sandwich fillings are a bore, then read Julia Lee Wright's article in this week's Family Circle. It's packed with ideas.
