

Minor Mention

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lorenz drove out to Glendale, Ore., last Saturday making home her aunt, Mrs. W. C. Levers, who has been visiting here for several weeks. They returned Sunday.

Mrs. H. S. Norton left Tuesday morning for Portland to be with her daughter, Beverly, and the new grandson for a time after they came home from the hospital.

Mrs. Annie Robinson is feeling much better this week and is able to be up and around again.

Mrs. Ralph Hurlbutt left the first of this week for a visit with her mother at Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips arrived here from Tacoma last Saturday evening for a week of two visit with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mackey.

Mrs. John King's brother, Johnny Serrano, who left ten days ago for his home in Brooklyn, N. Y., after a week's visit here with his sister, told her that, "People do not live in this country." It is to be admitted that there is not the rush and excitement in Coos county that is found in and adjacent to the nation's metropolis, but for that reason they live longer in southwestern Oregon and are just as happy.

Margaret Stewart went to Eugene last Thursday and attended the wedding of Gladys May on Sunday.

Phyllis Belloni has gone on a two weeks' vacation trip to Los Angeles, San Diego and San Francisco.

Mrs. Herman Ellingsen and six-year-old son, Dickie, will spend the next three months here in Coquille with Mrs. Pearl Ellingsen. Herman is inspector on a housing project at Sutherlin and has been unable to find a place near his work where his family can live.

Harold Kolkhorst, who is stationed in the intelligence department of the Army camp at Camp Roberts, Calif., came north to attend the funeral of his brother, "Jiggs," at Marshfield on Tuesday and was in Coquille that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stevens went to Portland last Sunday.

Mrs. Edna Carlson, Mrs. Nettie Glaser and small grandson, Pat McAferty, left for their homes in Seattle Tuesday after spending a pleasant week with relatives and friends and reviewing youthful days in Coos county. The ladies who are sisters of Mrs. Willis Neely moved to Washington in 1900.

Mrs. Julius Rubie and daughter, Laura Emily, returned home last Thursday morning after a two weeks' vacation trip to Portland, where they visited friends and relatives. Time was spent with the Jas. Hersey family in Portland and the Ben Herseys at Beaverton. They were guests for two days at St. Mary's where Mrs. Rubie as a girl attended school. Mrs. Rubie's roommate at that time is now Sister Hilda Marie. Mrs. Rubie stated the train was very crowded as far as Eugene with lots of soldiers traveling both ways. It took two days wait to get a berth, she said.

Mrs. F. G. Leslie has been quite ill this week and Mr. Leslie would like to hear of anyone who may be willing to do housework.

Mrs. Chris Terres left Coquille this week to make her home permanently with her daughter, Kathleen, and husband, Dr. Powell, in Oakland, Calif.
