

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman were Monday morning visitors from their ranch on Sixes river.

A baby boy, Harry, Jr., who weighed seven pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Christensen at the Belle Knife Hospital last evening. Harry senior, who formerly was cashier at the S. P. depot here, is now in the Navy and stationed at Seattle.

Mrs. A. J. Browning arrived here last Thursday from her home in Portland to visit her mother, Mrs. A. J. Sherwood, and sister, Mrs. L. L. Bonney, and her many other Coquille friends.

Mrs. J. E. Norton, who last year taught part time in the Myrtle Point schools, is this year teaching at River-ton and says she enjoys the work there very much. She also reports that Mr. Norton is showing improvement every day now, although obeying his doctor's orders he is not able to be up yet, nor have company.

Mr. and Mrs. John Purkey left last Thursday on a week's buying trip to the furniture markets in Tacoma and Seattle.

Mrs. Bernadean Wilson and daughter, Helen came down from Portland last Friday and have been visiting friends here the past week. On Saturday Mrs. Wilson accompanied Mr. and Mrs. George H. Chaney down to their cottages at Laurel Lake and Wednesday went down to Langlois to spend several days at the Culver ranch. She has been doing considerable canning, some of it at the county farm. Helen has been a guest at the George Taylor home.

Mrs. George E. Oerding arrived home Saturday from eastern Oregon where she had been visiting her mother and sister at Union for the past four months. She was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. Ralph Swerking, of San Bernardino, Calif., who expects to visit a week or ten days here. Mrs. Oerding is much improved from her recent attack of pneumonia while away.

Jim Bunch returned Sunday evening from the Silver Creek recreational area near Salem, where he had been for two weeks acting as counselor at the Boys and Girls camp there. He also taught photography to the assembled youngsters.

Erwin Waite arrived here Saturday for a brief visit with his wife's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Chas. Brown. Mrs. Waite arrived a couple weeks ago and will return with Mr. Waite to their home in Toledo, some time this week.

Allice Oerding drove to Portland over the week-end to attend to business matters.

Will person who found purse at Roxy Theatre Saturday night return gloves and billfold and check, may keep money. Betty Sturdivan, 620 East First.
