

Minor Mention

Mrs. Elizabeth Oden left last Friday morning for Roseburg to resume her duties in the hospital there after a two weeks' visit at her old home here. Her granddaughter, Virginia Oden, who had been out there with her the past several months, came home with her and will remain here and go to school the coming year. She underwent a tonsillectomy at the Belle Knife Hospital after coming home.

Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Clarke, of Myrtle Point, who left last month for Boston and Fall River in Massachusetts and Washington, D. C., were accompanied by Bettie Preston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Preston of Coquille, who went east to see her grandmother at Marble Head in Massachusetts. The party will be back early this month. Mr. and Mrs. Preston drove them to Portland from where they took the train.

Joe Don Estes, who has been working at the plant here this summer, left Monday evening to join his parents at Pensacola, Florida, where his father is stationed at the Navy base.

Eighteen young people from the Church of Christ spent Sunday afternoon at the Hooton place on Croft Lake. Boating, swimming and picnicking were enjoyed.

Beulah Chapfer, No. 840 E. S., will meet Thursday evening, Sept. 9, in the Masonic Hall at 8:00 p. m.

Mrs. Geo. Loveland, who has been in the Consolidated Freightways office at Grants Pass, returned Sunday and is again in the company's office here. She says it is good to be back home as she did not really enjoy the heat.

Mrs. Noble Chowning, left last Wednesday for a ten day visit at Tacoma, Wash. She was accompanied there by her niece and nephew, who had spent their summer vacation with her here in Coquille.

George Chaney, Jr., returned home Friday from summer school at Corvallis and will spend the remaining weeks before the fall term starts at his home here.

Mrs. O. E. Molthu and two small daughters Linda, age 3, and Nadine, six, returned a week ago from a two weeks vacation visiting Mrs. Molthu's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Coleman, at Rice, in Lewis county, Washington. While there Nadine had the misfortune to receive a fractured arm. It did not, however, interfere too greatly with her good time and she is recovering nicely.

Sergeant John R. Steele, grandson of Mrs. Mary Burns spent a three day leave from Camp White at Medford, visiting here and in Myrtle Point with his mother, Mrs. Cora Steele. J. R. enlisted about two years ago in the U. S. Medical Department, and until his recent transfer to Oregon he has been stationed at Letterman General Hospital at San Francisco. While stationed there he took several trains of patients to government hospitals in the east, and stated he enjoyed that post very much.

Howdy Folks:

Well, we know now why people buy their own homes and business locations! If it is ever necessary to make another move, we hope it is post-war enough that we can leave all Model T and E. M. F. parts behind.

Our patrons have been very considerate, in fact, they marvel how we work at all with the plumbers, a carpenter, the telephone man and the power company all working frantically, (that's a good word isn't it?) to get us fixed up.

Dan Brown said he thought "ate one" would be a good phone number for us—we told him we had just bit it off.

Mrs. M. S. Anderson arrived here Saturday from Chicago to join Mr. Anderson, who is manager for Cranberry Cannery, Inc., and the company's plant here. They are living in the Coquille Hotel and he expects to remain on the job here until after the first of the year.

Miss Alice Fish and Miss Jean Young, who spent a week of their vacation at a cottage near Waldport, returned to Coquille Saturday evening and Sunday morning the latter left to resume her job in the Housing Administration office of the shipyard at St. Johns in Portland. Miss Fish, who is girls' physical education instructor in the Hillsboro schools, will leave for there soon.

Mrs. Sara Southwick and her granddaughter, Miss Louise Hall, are here from Pasadena, Calif., spending a few weeks with Mrs. Florence McElwain at her home on Fifth street. Mrs. McElwain and Mrs. Southwick are sisters-in-law.

The Bible school held at Pioneer church closed last Friday evening with a fine demonstration which revealed the careful work of the corps of instructors. Mrs. James Bishop was in charge of the entire school and program.

Townsend Club No. 2 will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Buckner September 9 at eight p. m. at their home, the first house on the right after crossing the bridge toward Bandon. All are welcome.

"STORMY WEATHER" SEASON'S TOP MUSICAL PICTURE

They say it with songs—and say it with dances! That's Bill Robinson, Lena Horne and Cab Calloway in a scene from the carefree new musical, "Stormy Weather," which is slated to open Sunday at the Roxy Theatre. The 20th Century-Fox hit has been hailed as one of the most dazzling shows in many a moon.

"Stormy Weather," Cavalcade of Rhythm At Roxy Sun. to Tue.

Something new in film musicals is scheduled to be shown Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Roxy Theatre, when "Stormy Weather" arrives. Headlining such famous names in the show world as Lena Horne, Bill Robinson and Cab Calloway, the film is a cavalcade of rhythm.

Old songs . . . new songs . . . blues songs . . . solid jive . . . "Stormy Weather" has all kinds, combined with some of the most sensational dancing and production numbers ever filmed.

Against the backdrop of an ingenious story, the melodies that have become part of American folklore spring to vivacious life. "Aint Misbehavin'," "I Can't Give You Anything But Love," and "Diga Diga Doo" take on new meaning, as they are sung by lovely Lena, with the ingratiating music of Cab Calloway providing a torrid accompaniment.

The highlight of the show is the famed title number, "Stormy Weather" which Lena Horne sings in her own inimitable style, which has skyrocketed her to fame almost overnight. And a new number that is heading for top popularity is "My, My, Ain't That Somethin'," a tricky number born of the blues. Another headed for hit parade fame is "There's No Two Ways About Love."

The entertainment in "Stormy Weather" goes right down the line—in the cast of the film are Katherine Dunham and her troupe, Fats Waller, whose magic fingers make the keyboards jump with jive, and those amazing Nicholas Brothers, whose sensational dancing has stopped many a show. Also featured in the cast are top comedians Ada Brown and Dooley Wilson.

Wm. LeBaron produced "Stormy Weather," which was directed by Andrew Stone.

Frederick Jackson and Ted Koehler authorized the screen play. The adaptation was by H. S. Kraft, from an original story of Jerry Horwin and Seymour B. Robinson.

Dances were staged by Clarence Robinson, and costumes were designed by Helen Rose. The musical numbers were supervised by Fanchon.
