Letter Tells Of Harry Gisholt

Following is a letter just received from a buddy of their son, Harry, by Mr. and Mrs. Hans Gisholt of this city, From Sicily one which they were very happy to receive and which was written from Texas:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Gisholt-I think Harry told you that one of the boys who was with him had come back to the States and I promised him I'd write to you. I feel that I know both of you well be cause Harry and I were very close friends. I like him so much, he was the best buddy I ever had and, when this is over, we plan to get together again. He's showed me pictures of you.

I'll try to tell you a few things that Harry was unable to write because nsorship regulation. I first met him when he came up with five other men last August (1942) to Dinjin. That's in Assam, up in the far northeast corner of India. In February of this year he and I came south to Chakulia, where he is now. From April till I came home he was crew chief of the phane I flew in.

There's not a smarter mechanic in the army air corps and that's the truth. He knows B-25 bombers as few other people in the world do. Chakulia, where he is stationed now. is northwest of Calcutta. Our planes from there bomb Japanese-occupied Burma. Up at Dinjon we were bombed three times by the Japs but neither Harry nor any of us were hurt in any way. We all had to laugh at Harry be cause he was so excited he tried to put the shells into his rifle sideways. Where he is now, he's safe from Japs or bombing.

We took some pictures and I'm having them developed now. I'll send them to you when they get back. In South Pacific I came back to the States three weeks ago and now I'm on a 30 days furinite but I can only say he will almost positively be home before he has een two years overseas. This war houldn't last too much longer.

Harry has always been in good health since he went overseas and I left him in fine health and spirits. left him in fine health and spirits. Mrs. Finley's son, Jimmy Agostino, They're getting plenty of cigarettes and things they need now and the a letter she received this weak. food is pretty good.

I just want you both to know how very much I think of Harry and how proud I am to call him my friend. Sincerely yours, Lloyd A. Klor.

From Sicily

Erwin Place sends the Sentinel V-Mail letter which he wrote while in Sicily after going through the African campaign, as follows:

Dear Friends-I receive the Seninel regularly and derive much enjoyment from it as it keeps me informed on the whereabouts of my former classmates and friends The people here have quite dif-ferent habits than we. ### Ray Rowland Now At Corpus Christi

Mrs. Les Child came in Sunday from Grants Pass for a short stay at her Excel Dress Shoppe here. She had just recently returned from a five her son, J. Raymond Rowland, at the Norman, Okla., training school. Ray, a C. H. S. graduate, finished the course at Norman ahead of the rest of His class and has been transferred to Corpus Christi, Texas, for further training in the Navy Air Corps. He expects to receive his commission in November and hopes to be home on a 21-day leave over the holidays. In a letter to his mother he wrote that at the Texas camp he had found four boys of the 1940 Coquille high football squad --- Charles McIntee, Bob Arnold, Jim Barrett and "Bud" Trendell-and also a number of boys from other Coos county schools against whom the Red Devils played. all squad at the University of Ore-

Howdy Folks:

Even though we are unwork that comes to us, we still have an interest in the fellow who is interested in eping his car in good repair.

In years past free grease jobs and various FREE ser-vice on automobiles have resulted in very costly reairs. Most car owners now there ain't no Santa Claus but many still ac-cept this gracious service.

But now with wages what they have to be and help sometimes. I smell wood in the rat pile when I read some of these appeals for your automobile service work.

Just reason it out for yourself for we have a job to do.

Lorin Schroeder Here For A Day On Leave From Seabees

Lorin Schroeder, chfef electricians mate, first class, of the Seabees, was home for a day the past week-end. He had recently been transferred from Camp Peary in Virginia to a camp in Rhode Island and was on what is called his "embarkation leave." He left Sunday for Cottage Grove, where he was with the power company before entering the service, and was due to leave Portland for Rhode Island on Monday.

Lorin was looking extremely well and said he enjoyed his work, which consists in laying out electrical plans for camps and stations.

He did not know which ocean he would cross but the probability is he will go to Europe.

Seabee Finds Iceland Cold

Iceland is a land where the wind blows from 45 to 75 miles per hour about 28 or 29 days each month, and while the temperature rarely dropped to ten above, . It's cold all the time. This is the story of George Somer-ville, fireman first class, Penditon blue jacket, enjoying his first leave after more than a year on the island just under the Arctic circle. He reported frequent raids by nazi planes, based only three hours away in Norway, German-occupied territory.

Somerville is a brother of Mrs. Joe Sayre of Coquille, and she expects her brother to visit her before returning to his base on the east coast. ight or two.

Thoughts on the care and use of meat real problems in how to keep meats at home, and what kinds to buy so they will keep.

I've discovered one simple little formula. When I shop, I buy a quick-cooking meat for use that very evening and a longer-cooking

Sometimes, when they're available, I get chops or ground meat to use right away. At the same time, I get lamb or beef ribs for long cooking, and wieners or sausage to keep. Any meat that I want to keep for a day or two without cooking, like larger pieces of beef, pork, veal or lamb, I handle this way: After un-wrapping it, I cover it loosely in wax paper and pop it right into the re-frigerator. I've learned that if it's wrapped too tightly, it may spoil. Some I know store meat in the Some, I know, store meat in the freezing unit of their refrigerator, or else have a special container for meat. I've tried putting meat right in the freezing unit, because it keeps well for a long time there—but I had a terrible time getting it out again unless I defrosted the refrigerator. I've been preparing meat for our dinners in a variety of ways, re-cently. Here are some of the ideas 1 have found specially good.

Oven Berbesued Bhs-Use breast of lamb or pork spare ribs allowing about a half pound per person. Place whole or half rack of ribs in pan, meat-side up, and cook it about one hour in a 400° F. oven or until brown and done. Turn when halfway through cooking and season with salt and pepper.
