

Baby Show At Guild Party

A gathering of unusual interest on Wednesday was the party given at the Guild Hall in honor of Mrs. Robt. Greene. Members and friends usually kept at home because of small children in the family, were especially urged to come and bring the little folks. As a result the attendance was multiplied with most charming results. A big circle of mothers, grandmothers, aunts and interested friends, with proportionately in importance at least, almost as many babies of varied ages presented themselves. Small boys and dainty little girls did their best to assist in presenting Mrs. Greene with the many lovely gifts which had been brought for the occasion.

Entertainment was offered by groups of school girls. Mrs. Chas. Stauff, assisted at the piano. Bhrans' "Lullaby," sung by Laura Emily Miller, Mary Anne Walker and Bonita Miller, was an appropriate offering, sweetening the occasion.

A second group sang, "Light a Candle in the Chapel." This consisted of Donna Rankin, Phyllis Litzenberg, Vera Bishop and Jeannie Griggs.

A clever skit, planned by Mrs. Ed Stelle, was given by Betsy Stelle, Sally Bonney, Marion Moore, Carol Jean Gray, Ann Harbison and Adrienne Eubanks.

There was a sand pile for diversion outside and clever animal cookies with punch inside. Small entertainers were Nancy Griggs, who sang "and Gerald Garner, who spoke a piece.

Guests were Mrs. George M. Griggs, Nancy Ann and Jean Lee; C. L. Tuttle; Georgia Hanson and Charles; Estelle Harbison and Bobbie; Mrs. R. A. Wernich and George Hennessey; Madalyn Thrift and Clyde, Mesdames Nora Rosa, E. N. Briner, F. B. Hickok, Fred Eljinson, Oran Garner, Raymond Brownson, Walter Litzenberg, O. L. Wood, Bert Folsom, L. H. Hazard, Julius Rubie, L. W. Claver, Elbert Schroeder, George Laird, L. L. Bonney, Ida Owen, Mabel Gollin, Annie Robinson, Anne Mansell, Nell Stewart, Gene Lorenz, Gertrude Lorenz, Ethel Shaw, Susie Martin, Vera Fook, Clara Stauff, Ruth Ax and Harold Withnell.

Gifts for all occasion, at Bergen's.

Southwest Oregon Counties Plan For Post War Work

The speaker, are expected to cooperate with cities and districts within counties and to urge upon them the necessity of asserting themselves toward post-war planning.

Standard blank forms are being furnished by the state highway department to all tax-levying units upon which to tabulate and report contemplated projects covering construction, purchase of equipment and materials, and plans of finances. Compilation of these reports, listed separately, will be made for a general report to Governor Snell for consideration in the statewide post-war planning program.

Visiting county officials Friday were entertained by Coos county with a baked salmon luncheon at the county farm, where, under direction of Mrs. F. C. McNelly, matron, a complete home-grown meal was served, and which was highly complimented. It was an unrationed Coos county meal. The salmon came from the Coquille river and practically everything else was grown on the county farm.

Officials attending the meeting included: Curry county, Judge A. H. Boice, chairman, Commissioner A. W. Cope; Douglas, Judge D. N. Busenbark, Commissioner H. B. Roadman; Jackson, Judge J. B. Coleman, Commissioners A. E. Powell, Wm. Perry, County Engineer Paul B. Rynning; Josephine, Judge W. A. Johnson, Commissioners Pete Frederickson, Lucius Robinson; Coos, Judge L. D. Felsheim, Commissioners Lars Peterson and P. W. Culver, Roadmaster F. N. Robb; U. S. Forest Service, C. D. Cameron, Tom Pierce; state highway department, Engineers C. B. McCullough and Oscar Cutler.

Judge F. L. Phipps, The Dalles, executive secretary of the Association of Oregon Counties, acted as secretary of the meeting. Special local guest was R. H. Lawhorn, former commissioner. Treasurer C. H. Coe and Secretary-Manager Arch Sanders of the Oregon Coast Highway association, attended the afternoon session to present their program of a statewide postwar highway reconstruction and completion program. At request of the Marshfield chamber of commerce, Frank Skewis and Pete Lewis of their post-war planning committee, attended the sessions.

Red Cross Report For This Week

Coquille Red Cross, Unit 764, will hold its first regular work meeting on Friday, Sept. 24, from 1:00 to 4:30 p. m., in Guild Hall. Every one is cordially invited to come and sew or knit, or to take out work to be done at home, if preferred. There will also be other types of work to be done, so please keep Friday afternoon open and come prepared with your scissors and thimble, says Mrs. Kesner, chairman of production.

A number of our workers have specified the desire to have a work room where they may get together and do their Red Cross work as a group. If there is a sufficient number present at these meetings, they will continue to be held.

Mrs. Phil Alborn will display the knitting that is being done at present. She expects a new shipment of yarn within the next day or two.

Mrs. L. A. Lundquist and Mrs. A. N. Gould will cut out work to be taken home and Mrs. K. P. Lawrence will receive finished articles and will check out new work.

On Sept. 17 shipment was made to Coos county headquarters, consisting of the following:

- 3 Table covers (donated.)
- 13 Housewives (sewing kits).
- 16 Ditty Bags.
- 8 1/2 doz. Bedside Bags.
- 28 Pts. Bedside Slippers (all material donated.)

From the knitting department:

- 43 Toe Sox.
- 12 Knee Bands.
- 10 Pts. Bed Sox.

Mrs. J. R. Bunch, in charge of surgical dressings, reports sending another shipment to Marshfield and that work is going ahead nicely.

Mrs. Kesner adds: "We are very proud of our record to date and again thank our faithful workers for their consistent co-operation. This week we thank Mrs. E. T. Stelle for her generous check of $25.00, also Mrs. I. A. Elrod for $1.25, and Mrs. Pearl Kelley for her contribution of yarn."

"Mrs. Wm. Barrow's group continue to work on afghans and Mrs. Tom Stevens's new group of twelve will do the same type of work for the present.

"Despite the sudden warm weather, strenuous house work, etc., let us all remember that the boys in camps at home and fighting somewhere overseas are warm and tired and have plenty to do at all times, too; often under the most terrible conditions. Surely there isn't one of us who cannot spare an hour or two once a week at the very least to help provide the needs of our own service men. If we are not ready to do that small service, surely we are not worth fighting for."

C. H. S. Notes

Total registration in the high school is now 243. There are 72 freshmen, 68 sophomores, 62 juniors and 41 seniors.

At the assembly to be held tomorrow, yell leaders, both boys and girls, will be chosen.

The annual junior class play is already being worked upon and Mrs. Ruth Beyers is coaching the cast.

Miss Lunelle Chapin is again faculty adviser for the Hi-Times staff and the first edition is expected to be out next week.

Eagles Notes

The Eagles will give a dance this coming Saturday night for their members and friends; at the Eagles hall.

Mrs. Van Spores, secretary of the Eagles Auxiliary announces that Christmas cards will be sent to service men again this year. Brothers, friends, sweethearts and husbands of auxiliary members will each receive a card if his name is given to Mrs. Spores at once. Tel 123 R.

All members of the Eagles Auxiliary are urged to attend the meeting Friday, Sept. 24, when another class of candidates will be initiated. Birthdays in September will be celebrated also.

C. S. C. Meets

Mrs. Jack Arnold entertained members of the C. S. C. club on Tuesday afternoon at her home on North Taylor street. The ladies visited during the afternoon while busy with sewing and Red Cross knitting. Refreshments were served. Attending were Mesdames Ernest Perrott, J. J. Stanley, Winegar, Nell McGivrey and Maggie Simmons.

spouts for the Community Building was accepted and the work ordered done.

In turning down Geo. Oerding's offer of $1000 for the old Train building, corner of Front and Hall streets, the council pointed out that the delinquent county taxes against the property now amount to $1,023.53 and if the city accepted the offer, it would be out the $23.53 to the county besides losing the $803 owing by the property for delinquent improvement assessments, plus interest.

The council did, however, instruct the finance committee to go before the county court and ascertain what kind of a settlement the county might be willing to make.

The offer of $48.44 for the north 25 feet of lot 9 and lot 10, block 31 of Elliott's Addition—the former Alf Johnson home property on South Henry street, was referred to the finance committee. The sum offered was the amount for which the city foreclosed its lien against the property something over a year ago.

Another offer was accepted, that of $22.09 for a quit claim deed for the east half of lot 12, block 41, on Heath street. The tender was made by Mrs. H. E. Anderson, who secured the property from her father, Mr. Detwiler, and who supposed the city's improvements liens had all been paid. There was no house on this lot.

Councilman Gray brought up a matter of pedestrian protection at the corner of Seventh and Henry streets where the pavement, widened a few years ago, permits auto drivers to cut across, endangering anyone crossing the street. It was suggested that a pedestrian lane be painted and the matter was referred to the street committee and engineer to do whatever would be best. The same action was taken in regard to the intersection of First and Willard streets, at the Liberty Theatre corner, where the widening of the pavement on Willard is encouraging drivers to cut corners.

Sidewalk repairs were ordered made by the city's street department and the costs assessed against the property. One was at Ninth and Heath street, in front of Mrs. Prey's property; another at Seventh and Henry, the lot being owned by B. W. Dunn, and the other on Heath north of Eleventh.

The city officials decided again to participate in the War Bond drive and left it to the finance committee to purchase $5,000 or $8,000 worth of bonds, whatever it was felt could be spared from the surplus cash on hand.

The complaint against the rotting vegetables and possibility of mice-started fires in the old Dillard Market on Front street, was brought up by one of the councilmen. This brought a statement from City Attorney Berg that the local rationing board has taken cognizance of the conditions there and the owner, or his agent, instructed to have the store cleaned out at once. The O. P. A. can take a hand in the matter because of the rationing points involved.

Tax Statements Not To Be Available Till After Oct. 15

A. O. Walker, chief in the county's tax department office, says that the rolls for the 1943-44 taxes will not be turned over to that office by As-essor Forrest until Oct. 15, and that statements cannot be given or mailed until after that date.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Your tires are in good shape, Judge... ought to last you at least another 5,000 miles."
"I've been very careful of them, Jim, since I learned how much the government needs rubber. Only drive when I have to... keep her under 35 an hour and have the tires switched around every 1,000 miles."
"Me, too, Judge. Pretty tough spot we were put in gettin' our supply of rubber cut off just when we needed it most. But, we'll be gettin' plenty of synthetic rubber real soon. Say, is it true, Judge, that the beverage distilling industry has a part in producing it?"
"Yes, a very important part, Jim. That industry's facilities for producing grain alcohol make it possible to include 200,000 tons of rubber from grain in the government's 870,000-ton synthetic rubber program. Pretty important contribution to our war effort, isn't it Jim?"
"It certainly is, Judge. Wonder how many people really realize it?"
