

Jr. Woman's Club Gives Welcoming Tea

A friendly and beautiful Tea last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Berg was held by the Junior Women to welcome new girls in town and instill interest in them toward a desire to join the group as new members. For the past few years the club has had the good fortune to retain Mrs. Berg of the Senior Womans' Club as their contact chairman. For as many years, Mrs. Berg has given over her lovely home for the purpose of holding the annual welcoming tea.

With many new young women in town Mrs. Withnell, president, states she is quite hopeful of a rather large increase in membership. Many attractive women between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five were noted in attendance for the first time last Saturday. Invitations had been extended with this idea in mind and also honorary invitations to a few representatives of the Senior Club, among whom was the president, Mrs. O. C. Sanford.

In line with Mrs. Berg and Mrs. Withnell were Mrs. R. G. McBride and Mrs. Bob Harris, who greeted arrivals at the door. Assisting about the rooms were Mesdames Stanley Sherwood, William Walker and Miss Yvonne Kern.

Tea, punch, sandwiches and cake were served from an exquisite setting in the dining room. The lace-covered mahogany table was centered with a colorful arrangement of pink and purple asters. Sally Bonney, Marion Moore, and Joan Savage in formals, which almost carried out the colors in the centerpiece, took charge of serving. Mrs. Luckey Bonney and Mrs. John Moore poured the first hour, followed by Mrs. Marlin Brandon and Mrs. Elbert Schroeder.

The day was perfect so guests sauntered out to the south terrace, where were comfortable chairs and swings and a garden view.

The executive committee with Mrs. Withnell as chairman was in charge of arrangements.

Surprise Shower For Mrs. Lancaster

Mrs. Hugh Lancaster was the inspiration for a pleasant afternoon party last Thursday, given by a group of her friends at the home of Mrs. George L. Maynard. As a surprise feature of the affair, Mrs. Lancaster was presented with some very lovely gifts. A few hands of bridge were played and refreshments were served at tables where a dainty pink and blue color scheme was worked out. The living room was bright with arrangements of zinnias from the hostess' garden. Attending were Mesdames Ted Horn, Hal Buus, Norman Carlson, U. E. McClary, Dale Flippo, Stewart Norton, of Marshfield. Friends sending gifts were Jacquiline and George Norton and Mrs. De Barr.

Norton's have a few new Rand McNally globes and Atlases in stock. If you want any for Christmas gifts, you should buy now.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Moving Pictures In Lieu of a Visit

Films of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schram, Jr. and their daughter, Merrily Kay, were shown at a gathering last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Gladys Gano, at which Mrs. Gano and Mrs. Frank Schram, Sr. were joint hostesses.

The Frank Schrams Jr., have been residents of Minneapolis, Minn., for the past four years. Frank is an instructor there at Minnesota University. He is at present engaged in Naval instruction work. The films were in the nature of a substitute visit with family and friends, inasmuch as the war makes travelling inadvisable.

W. P. Laws was the "movie operator," and besides the films of the Schram family, showed some beautiful pictures of the Oregon country, taken by himself, as well as some shots of a Shriners' convention and Coquille's last Fourth of July celebration.

During the Schram film, (in which Frank Jr., certainly proved the model papa), there was much discussion as to whether Merrily Kay has really red hair—or does she?

Friends invited were: Messrs. and Mesdames Stanley Ayers, W. P. Laws, J. P. Beyers, Ray Detlefsen, Harold Dey, Denton Ellingson, Geo. Gilman, Eldon Gilman, Harry H. Hunt, Fred Kunz, L. W. Oddy, Craig Perrott, Frank Pook, Paul Snyder, Josh Rubie, LeRoy Swinney, Grant Wilcox, Ernest Purvance, Mesdames Geo. Kloster, Inez Chase, C. H. Alderson, Nellie Frey, Etta MacPherson, Miranda Way, Frances Skyles, Beatrice Rhule, Hubert Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Collier, Wm. Lammey, Mrs. A. B. Davis, H. C. Getz and Frank Schram.

Three Truck Drivers Before the J. P.

Glen Irwin Putnam paid a $9.00 fine and costs in Justice Bull's court last Friday for having a combined overload on his truck when stopped by the state police.

The same day Harold Warren Davis was summoned to appear for an overload.

Elmer William Lander paid $5.00 on Monday for having an over-height load.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

Details of Dudley Walton's Wedding

Mrs. Edith Walton hands the Sentinel a clipping from the Seattle Times which tells of the marriage of her son, Dudley, in Seattle on Monday of last week:

Monday evening Miss Alice Ann Harford became the bride of Lieut. (J. g.) Dudley Campbell Walton, U. S. N. A. R., the son of Mrs. Edith G. Walton of Coquille, Oregon. The ceremony was held in the Mount Baker Park Presbyterian church in the presence of friends and relatives, with the Rev. Lorin A. Ridings officiating. For her wedding the bride wore a violet suit with brown accessories and carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Mrs. Norman G. Morse of Mount Vernon was matron of honor and Miss Helen Margaret Codington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Codington was bridesmaid.

Lieut. (J. g.) Richard Glaspie U. S. N. A. R., was best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harford. The bride attended the University of Washington, where she was a member of the Alpha Phi Sorority. The bridegroom attended the University of Oregon, where he was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity.

Junior Woman's Club Expanding

The Junior Womans Club is already giving good promise of a successful year. With fewer social activities of necessity in war time, organizations of this kind fill a need peculiar to the trend of the times. Last Monday night Mrs. Grace Withnell, president, welcomed several new girls at the regular meeting held at the Guild Hall. Vi McBride and Dorothy Harris, captains of the two teams named to contest for new members, are both hopeful of an extra large increase in membership.

During the business session plans were discussed for a Sadie Hawkins dance, Nov. 6.

M. S. Anderson, here from Chicago and connected with the local cranberry industry, showed films on this subject and interesting views of other localities, as well as Myrtle Point Rodeo pictures.

Jeannie Griggs, accompanied on the piano by Lunelle Chapin, sang Schubert's "To the Moon" and "Stormy Weather."

Refreshments were served by Dorothy Harris, Bernice Molhu and Ardit Sherwood. Attending were Grace Withnell, Dorothy Harris, Vi McBride, Bernice Dorman, Frances Skyles, Gertrude Swinney, Beverly Price, Ruth Creager, Bessie Borrell, Margaret Wylie, Mary Stevens, Letha Summers, Marie Silvertown, Lucille Walker, Jean Anderson, Mavis Tyrrell, Ernestine Batty, Annabelle Martindale and Lunelle Chapin.

Soroptimist Club

Mrs. J. S. Barton returned from her trip south in time to preside at the regular meeting on Tuesday of the Soroptimist Club. It was Founders' Day and emphasis was made of the fact. Mrs. Agnes Duncan, president of the Marshfield Chapter, was in attendance and gave an interesting paper on the origin, purpose and history of the organization.

Mrs. Leona Bryant, accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, sang the following, "Wind and The Rain in Her Hair," "Absent," and for an encore, "The Last Time I Saw Paris." There was an extra large attendance, both tables being filled and a growing enthusiasm for the meetings.

Don't forget a corsage for that special date—roses, gardenias and orchids at Bergen's.
