

Beulah Chapter's 60th Anniversary

Grand Ruth; Mrs. Viola Bentley, worthy Matron of Doric Chapter, Marshfield; John Quick, Past Patron, who was Grand Sentinel in 1893; Miss Bess Maury, Mrs. Bertha Smith and Willard Bosserman.

Key Joub gave a very interesting talk on the history of Beulah Chapter, No. 6. Mrs. Wanda Cockran, program chairman, presented Mrs. Mildred Tyrrell, who was accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins at the piano. She sang most delightfully, two lovely solos: "Thine Alone" by Victor Herbert and "My Hero" from "The Chocolate Soldier." A reading entitled, "When Ma Rodgers Broke Loose," was given by Mrs. Florabel Boeber. Last but not least, Miss Dae's violin ensemble, composed of Ronald and Maurice Williams, Geraldine Oerding and Ben Howe, were a special treat with an excellent rendition of "Always," and "Believe me if all those endearing young charms." They were accompanied by Miss Dae.

Following the program, about 100 members and guests adjourned to a beautifully decorated banquet room, which also carried out the platinum and ruby motif. Attractive gates and screens, covered with Virginia creepers, formed a lovely setting for the beautifully appointed tea table. The table, covered with a lace cloth, was centered with a large birthday cake in the shape of a star, and a large mirror. The cake, in the Eastern star colors, was inscribed "60th anniversary. At each corner were smaller cakes, star shaped, each one representing the individual color. Antique silver casters, red tapers and silver and red flowers completed the setting.

Those who poured were: Mesdames Jennie Rose, Henry Lorenz, Gertrude Lorenz, Imogene Neal, Bertha Smith, Emma Pierce, Susie Folsom and Catherine Rubie, all past matrons of Beulah Chapter. Mrs. Flora Compton and Mrs. Camilla Rietman, also Past Matrons, cut the birthday cakes.

Red Devils Vs. Bobcats At M. P.

The opening game for the Red Devils football team is this coming Saturday when they will meet the Myrtle Point Bobcats up there.

Coach Leslie had six lettermen with which to start building the 1943 Red Devils squad, they being Jim Howe, senior; Gerald Ulett, junior; Bob Alborn, Floyd DeNoma, George Hurst and Dave Kline, sophomores.

The following about the team is clipped from the Hi-Times, which was out on Tuesday of this week:

A probable starting line-up which is quite hard to tell at the time is: Center, Roy Porter; a boy with experience at Myrtle Point; Guards, Joe Stone, one year experience at C. H. S., and the other guard is Bob Kelly, with no experience, but lots of promise; tackles, Gerald Ulett, a one year letterman and Jim Kimsey, with no experience, from Myrtle Point; ends are Floyd DeNoma who gave us all a thrill at Marshfield and Bob Alborn, one year letterman moved from tackle to end. The brains of the grid machine will be Jim Howe, letterman and all-county quarterback of last year. In the half back position, we have Dave Kline, one year letterman and Harold Train, who played fullback last year. Last, but not least we have "Big" George Hurst in the fullback position. George is the heaviest man on the squad and has lots of power. He is also a one year letterman and played tackle last fall. Other fairly outstanding players are Wayne Chezam, DeWayne Mitchell and Frank Woodward. Two other men that cannot be overlooked are Trepanier and Nichols, our managers, for without them our team would be lost. Of course, the man who deserves the credit for all is Coach "Spike" Leslie, one of the smartest football men in the state. The team consider him as good as Jerry Lillie of Grants High School in Portland, Ramsey of Klamath Falls and Vic Adams at North Bend. The coach has experience this year and with student body co-operation we should be able to have a fine season.

See you all at Myrtle Point, October 2, for the opening game of the Red Devils against the Myrtle Point Bob Cats.

Be there for the kickoff.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

On Sunday morning as you sit in church and see the vacant places in the choir and wonder where the war has taken the young people from your community you may feel certain that they are attending divine services if circumstance permits.

Chaplains and choral leaders are found on the larger ships and even abroad in the Army centers. Millions of hymnals have been distributed to the men and women of all services and you may rest assured that a portion of the savings you are placing into War Bonds is used for their spiritual welfare.

Boy Scout Food Production Efforts Pile Up The Work Hours

Reports now being tabulated show that Boy Scouts of the Wallamet Area Council will surpass their goal of 110,000 hours of work in food production. This figure was set last spring after the Boy Scouts of America pledged to the government a minimum of 100,000,000 hours of labor during the summer of 1943.

The Wallamet Area Council consists of Lane, Benton, Douglas, Lincoln, Coos, and Curry counties. With less than half of the Boy Scouts reporting to date, the total now stands at over 75,000 hours of work, K. A. Wells, Scout Executive, said.

Wells urged Boy Scouts who have not mailed their reports to do so at once so that the final total may be secured.

Ask 45-Mile Limit For Buses

How the bus industry could serve wartime travelers better if the 35-mile speed restrictions were lifted as it applies to buses, was stressed today at Pacific Greyhound Lines.

"Under wartime restrictions, buses are now carrying more than half of all intercity passengers and could assume an even greater burden of essential travel if road speed limitations were eased," Mr. Ackerman said.

Many of the restrictions which hampered the bus operators in meeting wartime transportation demands have been partially overcome, the association points out, but the industry could make a greater contribution if the highway speed limit for intercity carriers was raised. The association's report shows that the reduction in maximum speed to 35 miles per hour has failed to produce appreciable savings in either rubber or motor fuel so far as the intercity bus industry is concerned. On the other hand, the slower speeds have interfered with the efficiency of bus operation, by requiring more manpower in driver and mechanic personnel, and causing undue wear upon engines, transmissions, and clutches.

Leaders of the industry contend that if intercity buses were allowed to operate at a maximum of 45 miles per hour on the open highway, a substantially increased number of passengers could be carried without additional equipment or personnel.

Unemployment Payments Near The Vanishing Point

Only 25 persons, less than one one-hundredth of one per cent of Oregon's covered workers, drew unemployment benefits last week, totalling $420, the lowest amount ever paid out by the State Unemployment Compensation Commission in any week.

With harvests, canneries and other war-time production running full tilt, prospects were that this "irreducible minimum" might go still lower as new records have been set almost every week since early summer. Of the $219,834 paid so far this year, two-thirds went out during the seasonal let-down in the first quarter.

A recent statistical study showed that the number of covered workers reached 334,600 in June, comparing with 296,513 the previous June and 200,617 in June, 1940. A slightly higher peak probably is being established during the fall months, the study indicates.

An analysis of average annual earnings for the base year that ended September 30, 1942, put shipbuilding in the lead with $1,329 for all employees and $2,475 for those who worked in all four quarters. The average for all covered workers was $661 but those with earnings in all quarters average over $1,800.

Nearly 60 per cent of the half-million whose wages were reported during the base year had earnings less than $1,000, but only 11.4 per cent of these worked in all quarters. About 125,000 new workers were drawn from other states, from agriculture and governmental bodies not covered by the law, and from housewives and others just entering the labor market.

Land Bank Allocates $12,000 To Coos County Bond Quota

Coos County's War Bond subscriptions have been boosted $12,000.00 by the investment of the Federal Land Bank of Spokane, R. L. Strickle, secretary-treasurer of the National Farm Loan Associations, announced today.

The Land Bank, which serves the four states of Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington, has just invested $3,000,000 in bonds, of which $500,000 has been credited to each state and $1,000,000 to Spokane, home city of the bank, R. E. Brown, bank president, advised Mr. Strickle.

The state allocation, in turn, has been credited to each NFLA group of office county on the basis of the number of land bank borrowers.

"We are pleased to be able to back up the war effort through this bond purchase," Mr. Brown told Mr. Strickle. "In addition to helping our government finance the heavy cost of war now, we consider these bonds a sound investment for the bank."

New Names On Sheriff's Blotter

Howard Hayes, arrested last Thursday, was turned over to the sheriff of Polk county on Saturday. He had been working down here in Coos county and while he was gone from home his wife had sold some mortgaged cattle.

Robert Farmer, of Bridge, was released on Tuesday after he had posted $500 bail for his appearance. The charge of assault and battery was made by his wife and he was bound over to the grand jury by Justice E. A. Dodge at Myrtle Point.

Howdy Folks:

How many Victory Gardeners are wondering about those tomatoes that just don't seem to ripen this year? I was until a good friend told me what to do.

Pick 'em when they have begun to turn white and spread them out on a warm floor, if you have been lucky enough to get wood. In a few days they will ripen.

It is just as easy to save costly repairs on your car if you just start in time.

Even the squirrel, "in the woods," plans ahead!

And remember the automobile tree may not bloom for a few more seasons.
