

Iris Elrod Joins Bachelor Girls Club

Just how the Bachelor Girls Club lists their newly acquired member, Iris Elrod, into their midst has as yet remained unexplained. Honorary or associate, or any other classification for irregulars that it may be, Iris was the highest bidder for membership in the Bachelor Girls Club at the Bond auction and Sale held at the Community Building last month. Accordingly as was his right, he took his place at their luncheon at the hotel last Friday noon. Margaret Belloni welcomed him and graciously presented him with the usual courtesy for a new member, a lovely corsage.

Before the luncheon was over he was provided with a second corsage from the Rotary Club, delivered directly by Lefe Compton. M. S. Anderson was a luncheon guest and showed travel pictures as well as those of the Myrtle Point Rodeo. Forced to wear crazy hats because of their forgetfulness to do so the week before, Eunice Howe and Lunelle Chapin appeared with head-gears to symbolize their present vocations. Chappie's was made of stationery as might befit a teacher of literature and Eunice, who is assistant to Dr. Bunch, was crowned with suggestions of false teeth.

Girls attending were: Yvonne Kern, Margaret Belloni, Glenda Clinton, Alys June Fox, Maxine Johnson, Margaret Stewart, Dorothy Coffey, Lydia Holstein, Marguerite Robison, Jean Williams, Dorothea Yarbrough, Elsie Forrest, Phyllis Belloni, Lunelle Chapin, Rheo Walker, Eunice Howe.

A. W. S. Not To Be On 24-Hour Duty Hereafter

It has been directed by the War Department that certain elements of the Aircraft Warning Service be placed on an "Alert Status" and from now on observation posts and filter centers will be subject to call instead of operating on a 24-hour basis. Following are the instructions as issued by the headquarters office in Portland:

At 6:00 p. m., October 16, 1943, the Aircraft Warning Service will discontinue its twenty-four hour duty schedule and go on an alert basis.

The Aircraft Warning Service is definitely not being abandoned. The War Department has figured the calculated risk of relieving civilian volunteers from working long shifts as compared to the chances of sustained enemy surprise attack by air and believes that volunteers can now be put on an alert status.

Keys made for all locks. Stevens Cash Hardware, Coquille, Ore.

Calling cards, 5c for $1.00.

B. P. W. Club Seeks Discarded Costume Jewelry For Soldiers

The Business and Professional Women's Club met last Monday evening at the Parish House. War Activities Chairman Viola Newton outlined a plan to collect "Life-Saving Jewelry." Slogan for the drive is to be, "Jab the Japs with junk jewelry." It was stated with authority that a chaplain reported a chapel large enough to hold five hundred men was built by natives in the S. W. Pacific in exchange for gifts of trinkets of this sort, which intrigued them more than any other kind of play. Natives will do valiant service in return for a glittering trinket. Portland recently conducted a similar drive.

Boxes will be placed in stores and offices about town to receive donations of such jewelry. Every woman and girl has some. When collected the jewelry will be sent to the service mens club in San Francisco for forwarding to the South Sea Islands. The club voted to continue membership in the International Federation and to send the dues.

Florence Hallock, president, received special birthday honors, a corsage presented by Vice President Eva Stevens, followed by the salute, "Happy birthday to you." "Music in Russia," was the subject of a paper by Inez Rover played arts chairman.

Words of the Russian national anthem were on a black board for the club to follow as Inez Rover played its music. The Russian folk song, "Volga Boatman" and Russian air, "Hark, the Vesper Hymn is Stealing" were sung by the assembly, led by Clara Stauff and accompanied by Inez Rover.

An interesting letter from Ruth Towne, a former member, was read. Miss Towne is now at Lubbock, Texas.

The next meeting will be Oct. 18, when National Business Week will be observed. Publicity committee, Florence Barton, chairman, will be in charge, with Irene Hartwell, legislative chairman. On the two committees are Mabel Wernich, Ida Owen, Salma Caughell and Georgia Richmond.

Hattie Lee Holimon was acting secretary in the absence of the secretary, Hazel Hanna. Members attending were: Florence Hallock, Hattie Lee Holimon, Frances Skyles, Jennie Price, Bertha Smith, Viola Newton, Georgia Richmond, Jessie Kay, Ida Owen, Eva Stevens, Lelia McClure, Inez Chase, Alberta Tyrrell, Martha Mulkey, Clara Stauff.

Woman's Club To Hear Saidie Orr Dunbar

The October meeting of the Coquille Woman's Club is to be held next Tuesday at the Guild hall. Mrs. Saidie Orr Dunbar is to be the speaker. Everyone will want to hear Mrs. Dunbar, who is to talk on South America, telling about her trip there and much besides. Mrs. Dunbar is a past president of the General Federation, she is a member of the Woman's Division of the Department of War Man Power, being one of 12 women selected in the United States to serve with Paul McNutt. She is also State Administrator, with offices in Portland, of Oregon's sales of war stamps and bonds. Her connection with the sale in Oregon of Christmas Tuberculosis Seals is well known.

Muriel Dae Ardath will present a program of South American music. Miss Ariel Crook, soprano will sing, also Jeanne Griggs and the violin quartette has some special arrangements which will be colorful and in keeping with the subject of the speaker.

The club has received its new song books and assembly singing will start at 2:05 p. m. Ample seating has been arranged for all. Members are urged to come and guests are welcome.

Initiation Pot Luck Dinner

The Junior Woman's Club will hold a 6:30 potluck dinner next Monday evening. All members and especially all new members are urged to come, because there will be initiation. The membership committee, with Mary Stevens, chairman, will be in charge of the meeting.

EAGLE NOTES

Social night next Friday, Oct. 8, for Eagles and their families only promises to be not only good entertainment but also it has been guaranteed that it will drive all troubles away. There will be a minstrel show with a black face comedy troop composed of Eagles members. There will be free cats for all and no charge for admission at the Eagles hall.

Don't forget a corsage for that special date—roses, gardenias and orchids at Bergen's.

Calling cards, 5c for $1.00.

George Oerding Makes Three Deals For Homes

The thirteen acres and two homes owned by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Varney were sold by George E. Oerding, Coquille realtor, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Peterson. The latter reside in their home just outside the city limits of Coquille on Marshfield highway and will now sell their place and will move to one of the homes on their newly purchased property. Mr. and Mrs. Varney live on the North Bank road at their ranch and Mr. Varney works at the Smith Wood plant. Mr. Peterson is employed in the woods.

Two other Coquille homes were also sold by Mr. Oerding. The home owned by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cole, at 227 W. 10th St., was sold to Mrs. Margaret Hare of Myrtle Point. Mrs. Hare has owned and operated an auto court in Myrtle Point and last week sold it to California people. Mrs. Hare will now make her home in Coquille and will move into her new home this week. Mr. and Mrs.

Cole are employed at Smith Wood plant.

The small house at 785 E. Carter street, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Smith, was sold to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Homenyk. Mr. Smith is leaving in a few days for Butte Falls, Oregon, where he has made arrangements to purchase a beer parlor and will take possession as soon as he arrives there. Mr. Homenyk is employed by the Southwestern Motor Co. of Coquille. His family will move into their new home as soon as the Smiths leave.

Mrs. Ora Bell Buried Tuesday

Mrs. Ora Bell, who had resided in Coquille for upwards of 25 years and whose husband, Jas. D. Bell passed away here several years ago, died last Friday and funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. A. Gray at Schroeder Bros. Mortuaries here at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Interment was in Odd Fellows Cemetery, No. 2.

She was about 75 years of age but the place or date of her birth, or whether she has any living relatives is known to no one in Coquille.
