

Miss Muriel Davis Becomes Bride Of Graydon Anderson

Before a large gathering of relatives and friends, Miss Muriel Davis and Mr. Graydon Anderson were united in marriage at the Pioneer Methodist Church last Friday evening, Oct. 8, at 8:00 p. m. The pastor, Rev. C. G. Brown, officiated.

The wedding was very lovely with the impressive caudlelight ceremony and double-ring service. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, Warren Davis. She wore a white organza dress with finger-tip veil fastened in place with a cluster of staphanotis. The dress had been designed to give prominence to a handsome gold chain and locket worn by the bride which had belonged to her maternal grandmother. She carried a bouquet of large gardenias, centered with a purple orchid and interspersed with staphanotis against a frame of wide ribbon loops with a floor length shower, a most beautiful bride's bouquet. Her going away outfit was a blue wool dress, fur coat, brown hat, brown accessories and orchid corsage.

The matron of honor, was Mrs. Jean Bryant, wearing a long dress of old blue and antique chain, also an heirloom. Muriel Herman and Eunice Howe were bridesmaids, wearing long dresses made alike of blue and peach embroidered organidie. Each maid carried old-fashioned nosegays in keeping with the colonial style of their gowns.

Dainty little candlelighters, dressed in white floor length dresses were Marilyn Purkey and Sandra McCurdy. Rodney Creager acted as best man to the groom. Ushers were Gus Gallas and Edell Bryant.

The background for the assembled wedding party was beautiful. Large baskets of mixed white flowers spotted with pink gladioli were before the altar. Glittering groups of candles twined with asparagus fern threw a soft light in pleasing effect. Aisles were marked with graceful streamers and bows of white ribbon tied in with sprays of pink roses.

The beautiful wedding music, played by the organist, Bobbie Burns, deserves very special mention. "I Love You Truly," played with chimes and effects, was given first, followed by "Liebestraum" and "O Promise Me." Lohengrin and Mendelssohn marches were used. An interesting innovation was the singing of "Because" by the soloist, Mildred Tyrrell, to the wedding party, instead of before their arrival as is usually done. This accepted change permits the bride and groom to enjoy the song.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Davis of Coquille. She graduated from Coquille High School in the class of 1940 and took a position in the tax department at the court house, where she has been employed for the past three years and will continue with her position. Mr. Anderson, the groom, is the son of Mrs. Mary F. Rocco. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon.

Following the ceremony, there was a reception downstairs in the church for everyone. The large room was beautifully decorated and there were many wonderful floral arrangements. The lace-covered table which held the large, tiered wedding cake was bright with flowers and silver. Cake and punch were served. Assisting were Geraldine Oerding, Shirley Slater, Doris Bjorkstrand and Avis Ricketts. Miss Yvonne Kern had charge of the guest book.

The young couple will live at Arago where the groom operates a large dairy ranch.

Past Noble Grands Club Met With Mrs. Dunn

The regular meeting of the Past Noble Grands Club of Mamie Rebekah Lodge, No. 20, was held at the home of Mrs. Estelle Dunn on Friday evening, October 1.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Florabelle Boober, who had been called from the city, the meeting was presided over by the vice president, Mrs. Maude Green. After the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mrs. Harriet Schaefer, routine business was cared for. One very interesting item was the inspection of the towels purchased by the club for its Christmas gift to the I. O. O. F. Home in Portland. They were terry hand towels in blue and green of a very nice quality. These will be sent to the home just before Christmas.

The club treasurer, Mrs. Annie Robinson, was reported as being very much improved, but still not strong enough to attend this meeting.

After the business meeting the members enjoyed some seasonal games. Mrs. Jennie Price won the prize in the apple contest. The members had been told to bring "white elephants" with them and these were used as prizes for the "Witch" game, being awarded to Mesdames Flora Dunn, Della Wilcox, Jennie Price, Pansy Ross, Ruth Beyers, Lois Stevens, Harriet and Doris Schaefer, Birdie Skeels. The drawing for the door prize gave it to Mrs. Price, who broke the all-time records by winning three prizes in one evening.

After the games, the hostess, Mrs. Dunn, served refreshments consisting of the delicious homemade pumpkin pie which are looked forward to at her meetings, coffee and fruit.

Those attending were the members Mesdames Ethel Leach, Flora Dunn, Maude, Greene, Della Wilcox, Inez Chase, Jennie Price, Harriet Schaefer, Birdie Skeels, Pansy Ross, Ruth Beyers, Lois Stevens, Miss Ida Oerding, and the hostesses Mrs. Estelle Dunn. Guests of the evening were Mrs. Doris Schaefer and Fern Leach.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lois Stevens on East First street on Friday evening, November 5. All Past Noble Grands are asked to be sure to remember that date.

Coquille Group Visits Fairview Grange

The Fairview Grange enjoyed a good program of music at their last Friday night meeting. A group from Coquille made up the talent. Mrs. Florence Hallock sang two beautiful numbers, "Pale Moon" and "Indian Love Call," and sang them beautifully. The accordion trio, Leah Rover and Pearl Ellingsen with Inez Rover at the piano, played "Repax Band," "Country Dance," "Accordion No. 1" and "Coming in on a Wing and a Prayer." There was square dancing with Mr. Bayles, who is such an excellent caller. Refreshments were served.

Irving Berlin's "This Is The Army" Starts Wednesday

Motion Picture Version of All-Soldier Hit Show At Roxy Proceeds Go to Army Relief

The motion picture version of the all-soldier musical, Irving Berlin's "This Is the Army," produced by Warner Bros. for Army Emergency Relief, will have its premiere at the Roxy Theatre on Wednesday, Oct. 20.

The film, recently completed in Hollywood, was produced by Jack L. Warner and Hal B. Wallis. Michael Curtiz directed. The entire company of 350 soldiers, who appeared in the musical on Broadway and during its cross-country tour, appears here with the soldiers in their original roles in the picture, which includes the entire stage production of "This Is the Army" as well as additional material from Irving Berlin's World War I soldier show, "Yip, Yip, Yaphank."

Irving Berlin makes his picture debut in "This Is the Army," singing his famed lament, "Oh, How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning," as he did in the stage version. Also included in the cast, for purposes of a slight story content, are George Murphy, Joan Leslie, lieutenant Ronald Reagan, Alan Hale, George Tobias, Charles Butterworth, Una Merkel and Sgt. Joe Louis. In addition, it is in "This Is the Army" that Kate Smith makes her first screen appearance in ten years and new Berlin songs are sung by Frances Langford and Gertrude Niesen.

Screen Play for the picture is by Casey Robinson and Capt. Claude Binyon, based on the stage show Irving Berlin's "This Is the Army," with music and lyrics by Irving Berlin.

Muriel Dae a Professional Name

The addition of Ardath to Muriel Dae's name has an easy explanation after an interview Wednesday with the popular violinist and teacher of that instrument. Ardath has always been her name since her early marriage to Fred J. Ardath, headliner for many years on Keith and Orpheum theatres and at the Palace theatre in New York. A decade ago he was a star in vaudeville and also was a producer. He was starred at the Winter Garden in the Passing Show and was featured with the original production of "The Perfect Fool" with Ed Wynn.

During the time Mr. Ardath was producing in musical comedy, Mrs. Ardath studied music in Philadelphia with Frederick Halm, followed by more study in New York with Yeatman Griffith and Carl Venth, former concert master of New York Symphony and later with David Crocco of Los Angeles. He was first violinist with Los Angeles Symphony and Hollywood Bowl orchestra.

During professional years, as is customary with many musicians and artists, Mrs. Ardath used her professional name Muriel Dae. After she came west to live she kept the name. Now since she is no longer appearing professionally, she has resumed the use of her full name.

Mrs. Ardath has one daughter, Mrs. Clyde P. Lynd, whose husband is a naval officer stationed at Pearl Harbor. He has received recognition during the Pearl Harbor episode. Mr. and Mrs. Lynd have no children.

"Electric power has never been too little or too late. . ."
—J. A. KRUG, Director, Office of War Utilities, WPA.

But here's why Uncle Sam asks you to use your electrical equipment wisely!

1. TO SAVE MATERIALS—copper, steel, tungsten, zinc, rubber and other critical materials used to repair or replace electrical equipment.
2. TO SAVE TRANSPORTATION—Hundreds of carloads of railroad space, over the nation, for electrical materials and for fuel.
3. TO SAVE FUEL—Of primary importance where coal or oil is used to run electric generating plants.
4. TO SAVE MANPOWER—All along the line—from manufacturing lamp bulbs to maintaining electric power service.

What Can You Do? Avoid Waste!

Everyone can help conserve these vital materials and resources just by avoiding the wasteful use of communications, fuel, transportation and electricity. It's your job and yours to look ahead and use everything we have wisely. In the end, it's going to mean fewer burned-out lamp bulbs, fewer replacements; your electric range and other equipment will last years longer.
