

Announcement Party at Bachelor Girls' Club

The luncheon at the Coquille Hotel last Friday was the regular meeting of the Bachelor Girls Club. But the occasion was of more importance than usual because Phyllis Belloni chose it as a time to announce her engagement and approaching marriage to Jack Caughell, nephew of C. G. Caughell of this city. Mr. Caughell and Phyllis are to be married on New Year's day. The groom-to-be is a sheep rancher on Sixes river and so the centerpiece of gladioli and baby crysanthemums, arranged in a low bowl also had two lambs to make it complete. The table had added bouquets of pink carinations and gladioli. At each place there was an attractive announcement in verse on a card decorated with lambs. Phyllis was chic in a becoming black dress and small hat and wore a stunning corsage of gardenias.

Following the meeting several invited guests joined the group for dessert. They were Mrs. J. E. Belloni of Myrtle Point, mother of the honor guest; Jean Bryan, Kay Littlefield, Alberta Brandon, Boris Sayre, Leila Rochell, Salma Caughell, Birdie Summers, Allie Best and members attending were Norene McKeown, Lunelle Chapin, Maxine Johnson, Alys June Fox, Dorothea Coffey, Margaret Belloni, Elsie Forrest, Glenda Clinton, Jean Williams, Margaret Stewart, Eunice Howe.

Howdy Folks:

The time has come that those who have not taken preventive automobile service seriously long ago, will have to pay dearly for repairs and perhaps lay their cars up for long periods waiting for parts.

Lubrication every 500 miles or once a month and an occasional inspection by a mechanic will forestall many repairs.

Letter Tells Of Former Coquille People In The South

Piper Johnson this week received a letter from his brother, Albert W., who formerly operated a pop factory in Coquille but has been in Arizona for many years. He mentioned that their brother, Dave, well-known here some 40 or 50 years ago, is in failing health and now makes his home with his son, Dwaine, and wife, or did until Dwaine was sent out somewhere in the Pacific.

The writer also mentions two other former Coquille men, Claud Moon and Fred Slagle. Moon had recently seen Slagle and stated that the latter is far from well.

He also enclosed a clipping from a Phoenix paper telling of the death of Mrs. Thad A. Gillum. The latter was the wife of a Coquille barber, who had a shop here many, many years ago. She was formerly Emma Whetstone and her death occurred in Hollywood, where she was an actress. She had been making her home with her daughter in Phoenix.

George E. Oerding Agency Sells Acreage

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hansen, of San Francisco, came to Coquille several months ago and arranged through the George E. Oerding agency for the purchase of property and a deal has been completed for the home and 4 1/2 acres, owned by Mrs. Ella Boone, just outside the city limits of Coquille on the Marshfield highway. This is the second trip the Hansens have made to Coos county and each time they have purchased land through Mr. Oerding. They will leave San Francisco for Coos county when Mr. Hansen can get released from his defense job when the war is over and they intend to make this their permanent home. Mrs. Boone will continue to live on the place until the Hansens arrive. Mrs. Boone cooks for the cafeteria at the high school.
