

Minor Mention

Mrs. Fred Lorenz, who left last week for a visit with her husband, Capt. Lorenz who is stationed at Tooele, Utah, expects to remain there until about the first of December.

Ernest Purvance and Rev. and Mrs. Charles Brown attended meetings in Grants Pass and Roseburg last week. These were in the interest of the Institute work of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Lin Swain left Monday evening for Corvallis, near which city her parents and a sister reside. The latter is to undergo an operation and Mrs. Swain went out to be with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jensen came in Saturday from their home in Astoria for a few days' visit with old friends here. Fred, who was half of the firm of Greene & Jensen in the Ellingson building here until two years ago, is now with the Brookfield heavy construction company at the mouth of the Columbia—no connection with Brookfield cheese.

Mrs. Tallant Greenough returned home last Friday from several months spent near her husband's station in California. He was still at Ft. Ord when she left, though since then he was transferred to Camp Cooke, which word came to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Greenough, in a telephone call Saturday night from their son. Mrs. Greenough is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Pearl Ellingsen.

Herman Ellingsen spent last weekend in Coquille. He came over from Sutherlin to go fishing with Dave Smith but stormy weather interfered with their plans.

Charles T. Selbig returned last Saturday from a trip to Long Beach, Calif. Mrs. Selbig returned from a few days' stay in Eugene on Saturday, coming back with Mr. Selbig.

Mrs. W. E. Buell has returned home from Palm Springs, where she had gone to spend a week with her son, Stanley, who is stationed there on ferry command. She visited also at Long Beach and had a wonderful time sight-seeing around Los Angeles. She had planned on a two weeks trip but was gone 20 days. It took nine days before she could get a train out of Los Angeles.

Kenneth Robb, grand master of the Masonic Lodge in Oregon, was here Saturday from his home in Baker. He stopped for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harbison and had the day before visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bergen in Marshfield. He was planning to be in Roseburg Saturday night.

Bobbye Jean Harris had a birthday on Friday. Her mother had plans for her birthday party on Saturday. Thursday night she didn't feel too well and by Friday the doctor found an operation for appendicitis necessary. The party will have to be held later, though many presents have already been received. She is getting along nicely.

The Eagles Auxiliary is sponsoring a Hard Times Hallowe'en Dance to be held in their hall Saturday, October 30. This is for Eagles and their guests. There will be prizes for costumes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Schaefer left yesterday morning after a few days' visit here with her parents and friends. She was formerly Faunielle Moore. Jim is working for a ship building concern that is turning out fugs and other vessels across the sound from Tacoma.

Fuhrman's Pharmacy

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Ingham arrived here yesterday morning from their home in Seattle, expecting to remain until Saturday. With Geo. A. Ulett and Ralph L. Smith, Mr. Ingham is one of the three large stockholders in Smith Wood-Products, Inc. The visitors come to Coquille every few months for a three or four-day stay.

Ralph Woodford, brother of Mrs. Jennie Williams and Mrs. J. A. Lamb, who came over with the Shriners from Medford for the ceremonial Saturday evening, spent a part of the time at the Lamb home while here.

Miss Bess Maury was able to leave the hospital at Myrtle Point last Sunday and be brought home, but her physician has not yet told her how soon she can be on her feet and return to duty in the bank.

J. E. Norton is improving slowly now. He has gained 10 or 12 pounds in weight and Sunday was able to go out to the dining room for dinner for the first time in months.

Mrs. Fred Von Pegert left by bus last Wednesday for Orlando, Calif., to visit her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brown, of Bullard, enjoyed a ten days' visit from Mrs. Charles Stallsmith of Edmonds, Washington. Mrs. Stallsmith is the daughter of Mrs. Brown and visited here last year when the family held a reunion. She came the valley route and visited some time with her sister at Saginaw and at Sutherlin with her sister's and brother's families.

What! No Mince Pies For This Thanksgiving?

The O. P. A. says mince meat pies are a luxury and not a necessity. At least that was the reply given Jack Banholster in response to his application for sugar to be used in making mince meat. In a way that is probably right but what will Thanksgiving be without mince pies to go with the turkey?

Distant Ones Could Wait For A Later Appeal

We hear of a four-year old in Curry county whose grandparents from Coquille were visiting his home over the week-end. It was bedtime and the youngster was saying his prayers: "God bless mama and papa; God bless

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bonney left Sunday for Portland, where he is looking over stocks in hopes of finding merchandise for Fuhrman's Pharmacy. C. J. Fuhrman is assisting in the store during Mr. Bonney's absence and expects to return to his Sixes ranch tomorrow. He and Mrs. Fuhrman were unable to come up Sunday evening because the Sixes river was over the road where the road from up the river goes under the highway bridge but it had dropped enough Monday morning so that they could get through.

Sadie Hawkins Day Dance Scheduled For Nov. 6

"Who is to be Lil' Abner?" is the question that is bothering many people when they learn that the Coquille Junior Womens Club is giving a Sadie Hawkins Day dance in the Community Building on the evening of Saturday, Nov. 6. There are plenty of members of the club who could vie with Daisy Mae in charm and beauty but to find a boy or young man who will run from the charms of these misses is an entirely different matter. "Thar aint no sich animal!"

There will be a door prize and prizes will be given for the best lady's and best man's costumes, the choice of costumes being optional. Service men—no Lil' Abner in that category—are to be admitted free. Admission will be 55 cents, including tax.

Roxy Fountain Will Serve Breakfasts Starting Tomorrow

Notice the Roxy Fountain adv. on another page, those of you who wish to have breakfast down town. Alan Bailey, the proprietor, says he has had so many demands for serving a morning meal that he will see how it works out, starting tomorrow morning.

Grandpa and Grandma—Aren't you going to ask Him to bless your grandparents in California?" asked grandma.

"No," was the comeback. "They can wait till tomorrow night!" If anyone doubts the veracity of this story he or she can get confirmation from Postmaster M. O. Hawkins.

Former Batting Champ Here With The Shriners Saturday

One of the Shriners here from Grants Pass last Saturday was Ken Williams, a hitting star in the American League a few years ago. The first thing we did on arrival was to hunt up Bill Fortier with whom he played in bush leagues many, many years ago, in Canada as well as in the U. S.

"What I can't understand," said Bill in introducing Ken to friends here, is "I was out-hitting and out-playing the so-and-so in the bushes, yet he went up to the majors and was there a long time, while I never got out of the bushes." Williams is now a member of the Grants Pass police force.
