

Minor Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Laws returned to Portland Sunday after being here since Thursday evening, visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Laws and Mr. and Mrs. Lefe Compton. Cecil is attending a dental college in Portland.

Iris A. Elrod left yesterday morning for Portland on a business trip which will keep him there till later this week.

Mrs. Dewey Brown who was here from Portland for the funeral of her mother, Mrs. A. N. Foley, last Saturday, said that Dewey has been in the Merchant Marine for the past five weeks.

Fred C. McNelly who underwent a serious operation at Emanuel Hospital in Portland last week is recovering nicely, Mrs. McNelly reports.

Ray Hickam, formerly of this city but who is now a machinist's welder at the Oregon Shipyards in Portland, left for there Monday morning after spending the week end in Coquille.

Mrs. E. E. Underwood, daughter of Mrs. O. C. Harry, who visited her mother here recently, is now at Camas Valley. She was with Mr. Underwood at Lowery Field in Colorado, but decided the winter was too cold there. This is the first fall she has been home since leaving here seven years ago and she is enjoying the rain.

Stan Sherwood returned Tuesday night from Portland where he went last Saturday to look for merchandise for the Southwestern Motors store on Hall street.

Bill Zinner who was formerly connected with the motion picture house here, when there was only one, was shaking hands with old friends here Tuesday. It was the first time he had been here in 18 years. For 10 years he was operating his mining property and more recently has been in the Air Warning Service, and had just been transferred from Land in the Rogue river district to Powers.

Farewell Party by Bachelor Girls For Margaret Stewart

A farewell dinner at the Marshfield Dim-Out club was given last Friday evening to honor Margaret Stewart, who left on Saturday for the east to become a Wave. The national colors were used in table decorations and a centerpiece was arranged, which featured the name, "Margaret." The president of the Bachelor Girls club, Margaret Belloni, presented the honor guest with a corsage. She in turn had a single corsage for each guest. A bound scrapbook was a gift from the club members. Girls attending were: Margaret Stewart, Phyllis Belloni, Alys June Fox, Yvonne Kern, Lunelle Chapin, Jean Williams, Norene McKeown, Maxine Johnson, Aloha Allen, Dorothea Yarbrough, Glenda Clinton, Elsie Forrest, Margaret Belloni and Rheo Walker.

Hallowe'en Party at the Guild

Mrs. E. L. Schroeder and Mrs. Hale Eubanks gave a party on Saturday for the children in their Sunday school classes. The party was a Hallowe'en costume party and was held at the Guild hall. Games were played and there was a fish pond. Cookies and punch were served. Prizes for best costumes went to Sandra Storey, Red Riding Hood, first prize; Diana Schroeder, an Indian maiden, second prize, and Billy Walker, first prize for boys. Bobbie Harbison and Gail Schroeder were especially bewitching, dressed identically as pirates. They wore red corduroy trousers, white shirts, bandanas on their heads and carried daggers in their belt. Both children are not quite two years old. Mothers attending were Mesdames Alton Clausen, Robt. Harbison, Geo. Griggs and Carlson. The children were Sandra Storey, Nancy Griggs, Jon and Jean Carlson, Joe Vaughn, Karla, Gail and Diana Schroeder, Linda Clausen, Fern Leach, Gary Claver, Billy Walker, Charles Hanson and Bobbie Harbison.

Monday Night Club

Mrs. J. A. Lamb entertained members of her bridge club at her home on Monday evening. Mrs. Bert Folsom won high score and Mrs. Edna Hartson was low. It was Mrs. Muri Pettit's wedding anniversary and she received a handsome bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. Attending were Mesdames J. L. Smith, Ed Lorenz, M. O. Hawkins, Lloyd Rosa, H. W. Pierce, Jane Williams, Edna Hartson and Bert Folsom.

Dance at Bandon Townsend Hall every Saturday night, starting Nov. 6. Also Armistice dance Nov. 11. Admission: Gents 75c, Ladies 25c and service men 50c. 4112s

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mintonye are here this week from Lowery Air Field in Colorado, where Ross has completed his preliminary flying course. When they leave they will go to Ventura, Calif., where Mrs. Mintonye's parents reside and she will remain there. Ross had not been notified where he would be sent next.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Morrison were Coquille visitors yesterday from their cranberry bog near Bandon. Mr. Morrison, an ex-mayor of Coquille, and in the laundry business here for years, has been raising cranberries on the Tipperary flats east of Bandon for several years. He says that his crop was practically all picked before this week's rains and that it could be called an average crop.

Visitors during the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Kesner were a daughter, Mrs. Robt. J. Carter, Mrs. Katherine Kesner and Geo. Carter, Jr. They have now returned to their home in Seattle after a brief visit in California.

W. W. Winegar Home From the S. P. Hospital

W. W. Winegar, recently retired on a pension by the Southern Pacific and Western Union for which he had been telegrapher for years, came home a couple of weeks ago from the S. P. hospital in San Francisco, where he had been receiving treatment.

Their daughter, Mrs. L. O. Smith and her daughters, Gale and Helen, are here for a two weeks' visit.

Miscellaneous Shower for Bride

Mrs. Ellis Martindale was hostess on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Lorena Tharp, entertaining in honor of Betty Jo Courtright, a recent bride. A miscellaneous shower was a surprise feature. Many of those invited were unable to be present due to sickness, etc., but sent their gifts. Attending were Misses Roma Reynolds, Ernestine Batty, Annabelle Martindale, Mesdames Anne Hocamp, Lorena Tharp and and Kate Courtright.

Dinner Party For Young Crowd

A dinner party was held last Friday evening at the home of Jessie Sherwood. An attractive centerpiece was arranged with holly and red candles. Dinner was at seven-thirty and dancing followed. Attending besides the hostess were: Barbara Barrows, Jeanne Boyle, Glenda Richardson and Joe Lyle, Phil Sowers, Dave Bates and Bob Whitney.

If it is Insurance, see me.—F. R. Bull.

Mrs. Collier Injured In Fall

Mrs. A. B. Collier suffered a fracture of the large bone just above the wrist, following a fall in her home last Saturday evening. She slipped as she hurried to answer the ringing of a telephone call. The accident has been a very painful one but as soon as the swelling goes down enough for splints, it is expected everything will be better for it was a straight break.

Legion and Auxiliary To Have Potluck Dinner November 8

There will be a potluck dinner for all American Legion and Auxiliary members and their families at 6:30 o'clock Monday night, Nov. 8.

Don't forget the Sadie Hawkins Dance at the Coquille Community Building Saturday night.

Allington Glaisyer Married October 29

The many friends here will be interested in the announcement of the wedding of Capt. Allington Glaisyer, in Portland last Friday. His sister, Betty—Mrs. Forrest E. Kerby—who writes and tells of the event, says that Dr. W. V. Glaisyer seems to be slowly improving and that he and Mrs. Glaisyer are enjoying their new home in Portland.

The bride of Capt. Glaisyer was Miss Bonnie Lynne Farrenbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Johnson of Washington, D. C. The ceremony took place at the Glaisyer home, Rev. Ralph C. Walker of the White Temple Baptist church officiating, and the bride was given in marriage by Dr. Glaisyer. The bride was a gray suit trimmed with pale pink velvet and her hat was made of pink flowers and veiling. Her bridal bouquet was a pink and white nosegay with pink tulle and a shower of pink ribbons. Mrs. Forrest E. Kerby, matron of honor, wore a blue dress and carried a nosegay of blue and pink flowers with pink streamer ribbon. Miss Dorothy Glaisyer, bridesmaid, wore a pink dress and carried a matching nosegay of pink and blue flowers with a blue streamer ribbon. The best man was Lowell A. Vose of Portland. The reception was held at the Glaisyer home.

Capt. and Mrs. Glaisyer left Friday after noon immediately following the reception.

It will pay you to look at Bergen's before you buy.

Keys made for all locks. Stevens Cash Hardware, Coquille, Ore. tf

Watch Li'l Abner run at the Junior Women's dance Saturday evening in the Coquille Community Building.

See Schroeder's Jewelry Store in Coquille for Diamonds and Watch Straps. tfs

Remember—Norton's for office, school and home supplies. 371fs

Have you bought your Christmas cards yet? It's not too early. Nortons have a fine selection of Hallmark and Volland cards suitable for imprinting. Buy now.

Nortons wish to inform their customers, that due to the book quota they now have their full allotment of Holiday books in stock. Buy now or use the Lay-away Plan.

It's Chrysanthemum season. See Bergen's for choice flowers.

Friday - Saturday - Sunday - Nov. 5 - 6 - 7

IT'S A TWO-GUN WHIRLWIND!
Fist-fights, gun-fights and romance in entertainment packed with excitement!

HARRY SHERMAN PRODUCTIONS
CLARENCE E. MULFORD'S

BORDER PATROL

WILLIAM BOYD

Latest News

Matinee Sat! 1:45

Admission 11c - 40c

LIBERTY

THUR. FRI. SAT. NOV. 4-5-6

SEE THE STARS AS THEY REALLY ARE!
THE INSIDE STORY!
Fans and favorites! Fun and excitement! The most refreshing film to come out of Hollywood in years!

The YOUNGEST PROFESSION
with Virginia Weidler - Edward Arnold
John Carroll - Jean Porter

GUEST STARS
(In the order of their appearance)
Lana TURNER - Greer GARSON
WALTER PIDGEON
ROBERT TAYLOR
WILLIAM POWELL

SHE GOT THEIR AUTOGRAPHS

Latest News Events * Cartoon
Admission Children 11c - Adults 40c

ROXY

SUN. MON. TUE. NOV. 7-8-9

'SNOW' FOOLING! IT'S THEIR Newest...
AND Gayest, Greatest SLEIGH RIDE!

A howling storm of Fun! Mountains of Mirth and Music! Scores of swaying skating snow-dolls!

BUD ABBOTT and LOU COSTELLO
Hit the Ice
with GINNY SIMMS

LATEST NEWS CARTOON

Patric Knowles Elyse Knox and JOHNNY LONG and His Orchestra
HELEN YOUNG - GENE WILLIAMS - THE FOUR TEENS
with 50-SKATING BEAUTIES-50

Matinee Sun. 1:45
Matinee 11c - 35c
Evenings 11c - 50c

WED. NOV. 10

Return Engagement
The Top Show of Any Year

BETTY GRABLE
JACK OAKIE

SONG of the ISLANDS
in TECHNICOLOR!

Thomas Mitchell - George Barbier - Billy Gilbert
Milo Hattie - HARRY OWENS & His Royal Hawaiians
Directed by WALTER LANG - Produced by WILLIAM LABARON
A 20th CENTURY-FOX PICTURE

COMEDY NEWS
Adults 30c