

B. P. W. Club Holds Victory Dinner

Plans for the "Victory Garden" dinner with a comic theme from L'il Abner's life in the funny papers running space, was successful carried out last Monday evening by the members of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Meeting was as usual at the Parish House. Colored funny sheets from the Sunday editions covered the long tables. Scrubbed and artfully arranged home-grown vegetables became the glorified motif for table decorations with really fitting and striking effect. The order had been for costumes designed after those depicted on funny paper characters and most of the members had carried through, coming in costume.

Thirty-four members and guests were present. Guests were Mesdames Roy Barton, R. H. Creager, John R. Hultin, Frances Arrell and Mrs. Harlan Montgomery, of Millington.

The quota of $670.00, given the club to solicit in the appointed territory, was collected by the club for the United War Chest Fund, it was announced. Three new members elected were Mrs. Lucy Blum, Mrs. G. B. Wasson and Mrs. Jack Hultin.

Mrs. Florence Barton reported on her trip to Salem to attend the B. P. W. state executive council, last weekend. Junk jewelry to send soldiers in the South Pacific area to use for trading with native had been called for and was turned in at the meeting.

Letters were read from former members, Ruth Towne and Ellen Braxton.

Mrs. Roy Barton sang "Under the Lilac Tree," unaccompanied by the piano but as a background for Dorothy Page as the girl and Arlene Robertson, the boy, taking the parts in the song which they did in pantomime. The refused kiss which would not be given until apples grew on the lilac tree and the apples tied on the tree after a night's thought were all cleverly dramatized. As an encore Mrs. Barton sang "Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree."

Fred Bull contributed fine entertainment with the showing of interesting pictures taken in Alaska. Most amusing were of bears wading into a stream and catching salmon.

With Inez Rover at the piano, the group sang the Doxology as a grace before dinner. Pledge to the flag was led by Ida Oerding and the club collect by Bertha Smith.

The meeting with Florence Hallock presiding over the business session was in charge of War Activities Chairman Viola Newton and Finance Chairman Ida Oerding. Others of the two committees were Bertha Smith, Annie Robinson, Bess Maury, Arlene Robertson, Dorothy Page and Mrs. H. Z. Young. Attending were Lela Elrod, Margaret Snider, Carolyn Huff, Ruth Beyers, Bertha Smith, Eva Stevens, Annie Robinson, Martha Mulkey, Inez Rover, Inez Chase, Lellia McClure, Irene G. Hartwell, Claire Hultin, Ida K. Owen, Hattie Lee Holimon, Lois Stevens, Edith Walton, Ida Oerding, Georgia Gould, Hazel Hanna, Arlene Robertson, Naomi Crews, Florence Hallock, Florence Barton, Lunelle Chapin, Viola Newton, Clara Bosserman, Betty Barton, Dorothy Page, Alberta Tyrrell and Dorothy Bishop.

Friendship Night At Beulah Chapter

Friendship night, observed last Thursday evening by Beulah Chapter No. 6, O. E. S., was another special evening planned by the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor.

The officers of Elgin Chapter, Myrtle Point, were special guests of the officers of Beulah Chapter, each being presented with a corsage carrying out the national colors. Masons and wives were also invited guests and a special program in commemoration of Armistice Day, was presented by Mrs. Hazel Hanna. Other special guests were Mrs. Virginia Hillstrom, of Marshfield, Grand Ruth; Mrs. Jessie Dean, also of Marshfield, state chairman of War Activities; Mrs. Metta Rossow, of Myrtle Point, member of the Jurisprudence committee of the Grand Chapter, and Mrs. May Hendrickson, Worthy Matron of Gratton, North Dakota.

Clarence Osika, Past Patron gave a splendid and enlightening talk on International Relations. The Misses Inez and Leah Rover, favorites in the entertainment world presented two snappy and most pleasing piano duets and lastly, an inspiring flag ceremony was given by the officers of Elgin Chapter.

The chapter room was beautifully decorated with greenery and baby chrysanthemums, interspersed with flags.

Following a social hour, about 125 members and guests repaired to the banquet hall where delicious refreshments were served. The table was centered with a lovely bouquet of chrysanthemums flanked by red, white and blue tapers and streamers.
