

O. E. S. Entertained
By W. M. and W. P.

Last Saturday night was an evening long to be remembered by the officers, hostesses, choral group and social club officers of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., when the Worthy Matron and Morthy Patron, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor, entertained with a turkey dinner in the banquet room of the Masonic Temple.

The room, representing a garden, was beautifully decorated with greenery and fall flowers. Floor lamps, artistically placed in the center to represent a sunken garden, made a lovely setting for the long tables laden with delicious viands.

At each plate was a lovely gift of myrtlewood, the officers gifts being emblematic of their office in the chapter. A surprise feature for the guests, was the appearance of four lovely waitresses, adorned in attractive caps and aprons of orange crepe paper, namely: Willard Bosserman, Laurence Lundquist, Harold Zeigler and Roy Boober.

After a sumptuous banquet, the guests repaired to the chapter room, where an evening of contract rummy was enjoyed. Winners of prizes were: Roy Boober and Mrs. Rudy Johnson. The four waitresses received gifts of myrtlewood ash trays.
