Will Be Fourth Seeley In Service

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Seeley arrived here from San Francisco on Monday for a few days' visit with old friends and expect to leave this coming week-end for the south. Mark has been working in the shipyards at S. F. for the past 18 months but was last week inducted into the Army and must report at the Presidio Dec. 17. He will go to Monterey for his preliminary training.

He reports that his brother, Dr. John, who is in the Army, is now taking special x-ray work at Mayo Bros. at Rochester, Minn.; that Everett has been down with pneumonia at his New Orleans base for a month and missed going across with the outfit with which he had been in training. His other brother, Bill, who is in the Marine Corps, is stationed in the south Pacific, although not in Australia.

Mark is looking extremely well, the shipyards work evidently agreeing with him.

Marvin Sturgeon Injured In Pacific

Mr. and Mrs. Sam W. Sturgeon received word Tuesday evening that their son, Marvin E., seaman 1st class, had been injured somewhere in the South Pacific. No information was given as to the extent of his injuries. Marvin who is a radioman third class, had been home on leave in September, his first time at home since he enlisted Dec. 29, 1941.

Sgt. Chas. A. Van Meter Home For Thanksgiving

Sgt. Charles A. Van Meter, who is maintenance sergeant of the Motor Pool at Fort Stephens, was able to get home and spend Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. Jack Dolan. He returned to duty Friday evening.

Cliff Gulseth, Marine Sergeant, Is In the Classification Section

Staff Sergeant Clifford J. Gulseth, 34, of Coquille, is now stationed at the Marine Corps Air Depot, at Camp Miramar, near San Diego, California. The former manager of the Southwestern Motors company holds a responsible position with the classification section, which is in charge of placing the right men in the right places.

His wife, the former Rose Matney of this city, resides near her husband in San Diego, California.

Joseph Fetch On First Furlough In Two Years

P. F. C. Joseph W. Fetch, son of Wendelin Fetch, of Riverton, who has been home on a 20 day furlough left Thursday night to resume his duties at Fort Lewis. This was the first furlough he has had since he joined the service two years ago. Seventeen months of these two years were spent in Alaska and the Aleutians.

Mrs. Carolyn Johnson, formerly Carolyn Fetch, left Wednesday night to join her husband, Sgt. Roy Johnson, who has recently been transferred from Camp Gruber, Oklahoma, to Fort Lewis, Washington.

Louis Gilbert Has Completed His Intermediate Training

Carl L. Gilbert, Jr., 19, of Coquille, has completed his primary flight training as a Naval Aviation Cadet, says a bulletin to the Sentinel. He has been at the U. S. Naval Air Station at Livermore, Calif., a unit of the Naval Air Primary Training Command, and has now been transferred to another station for intermediate training. A son of C. L. Gilbert, 390 E. 7th St., Coquille, he is a graduate of Coquille high school.

Sergeant Jas. Liebhart Sends Christmas Card From Iceland

H. E. Liebhart reports receiving a Christmas card from his son, Sgt. James Liebhart, who has been in the army base in Iceland for more than two years. In letters home he has said he hadn't seen a tree since he left the states.

He's saving money though. Says he hasn't had a date since he was there.

Robert Arnold Home For A Week On His First Leave

Robert Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Arnold, left by bus Tuesday morning to return to his base at Corpus Christi, Texas. He was on a seventeen-day leave and spent a week at home, his first visit since he enlisted in the Navy a year ago last September.

Robert reiterated what so many have reported on the travel situation, crowded and uncomfortable old trains, adding that bus travel is much better than the trains.

There are a number of boys from here at the base at Corpus Christi and in the same barracks with Robert, he stated.

Young Arnold graduated from Coquille High in 1940 and was end on the football team those years when it was strong and made its best record in years.

Clarence Barton, who has more recently been stationed at Portland, came down last week to spend Thanksgiving and the week-end at home.

Chas. Mulkey Taking Basic Air Training Near Taft, Calif.

Mrs. Martha Mulkey left last evening for Taft, Calif., for a few days' visit with her son, Chas. E. Mulkey, who is taking his basic training as a pilot in the Army Air Corps at Gardner Field. Charles was a 1941 C. H. S. graduate who enlisted in October, 1942, but was not called until February this year. He finished his primary flight over the desert before going to Gardner Field and will graduate from the basic training school next March.

Stanley Graham Made A Sergeant Is Overseas

It is now Sergeant Stanley Graham, a letter from him yesterday apprises his parents. He writes he shares a preambled tent, 18x20 feet, in double deck bunks, with seven other men and that it is arranged in such a manner that they are quite comfortable.

Lieut. and Mrs. John D. Gearhart, who had spent Thanksgiving with her parents were here later in the week, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Gearhart. Lieut. Gearhart is now stationed at Camp White.

A Thanksgiving Poem By A Coquille Valley Boy

The following Thanksgiving poem was written by August J. Blumyer, somewhere in the South Pacific, but was crowded out from last week's issue. His home is in the Riverton district:

I distant South Sea water blue
My thoughts turn back to old friends true;
Where surging surf rolls into land
And kisses gleaming coral sands,
And graceful, fronded, tall palm trees
Sway gently in the tropic breeze,
White water breaks with swishing beat
Upon the jagged coral reef.
While shades of blue that catch the eye,
The baffled artist's brush defy.
The jungle covered mountains high
Reach far into an azure sky,
Their crest by fleecy clouds caressed,

White mists above their valleys rest
And then afar I catch a gleam,
A waterfall, its silver stream.
When day has given way to night,
A jewelled Southern Cross shines bright.

And gazing in that starry dome
I think again of those at home.
Now out upon this distant sea
I wonder, do they think of me.
Perhaps on far horizons dim
A new day dawns for me and them,
A day when bloody strife shall cease
And flies again the dove of peace,
When little children laugh and play
Throughout the warm and sunlit day,
While birds sing gaily in the trees
And flit among the bright green leaves.
Then standing on the cool, green sod,
I'll view anew the work of God,
And may I bow my head in prayer
And send my thanks to Him up there.
