

B.P.W. To Donate To Chinese Nurse Fund

A short business meeting transpired last Monday evening at the Guild Hall when the members of the Business and Professional Women met for the first regular session in December. Their next meeting will be for the annual Christmas party. At this time a donation is to be asked for, a money gift, to go to the Nurses' women in China. Twenty-five dollars of our money will be sufficient for this purpose for one nurse in her own land to receive a full nurses' training course. This is a project for Oregon to launch this year during the evening on which B. P. W. clubs held their Christmas parties throughout the state.

The club voted to buy a five dollar Christmas Seal Bond for the Christmas Seal Sale fund.

Mrs. Annie Robinson, head of the Courtesy committee, sent word that all of her committee were ill except Ida Owen and she had just missed breaking her neck in an accident.

There will be an exchange of gifts at the Christmas party and the amount paid is not to be over fifty cents.

Inez Royer took the meeting over following the business session. As chairman of music and arts committee, Miss Royer read a brief paper on the life of Steven Collins Foster and accompanied on the piano the community singing of his songs, led by Mrs. Clara Stauff.

Leah Royer was elected to the club membership. There were twenty-one members attending.

Ten Initiated By Beulah Chapter, O. E. S., Thursday

Ten were initiated at the special meeting of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., held last Thursday evening in the Masonic Hall. E. A. Walker, Past Patron, assisted with the initiation ceremonies, which were most impressive. Following the meeting, nearly 100 repaired to the banquet hall where delicious refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table.

Thursday evening, Dec. 9, a potluck dinner will be held at 6:30 p. m. in the banquet hall for Eastern Star members and their families. The annual election of officers will be held at the regular meeting of the chapter, following the dinner.

Smart Bridal Shower For Eunice Howe

Miss Eunice Howe, bride-to-be in late December, was guest of honor on the evening of Dec. 1, when she was entertained with a bridal shower by Mrs. Jean Bryant at her home.

The unwrapping of the many beautiful and useful gifts and the refreshments left no time nor need for other diversion. The table was effective with its sparkling centerpiece arrangement. A large bouquet of pink and white chrysanthemums was encircled with twelve pink candles in low holders. Above it all was suspended a large frilly white umbrella. Large white candles were also used. The living room was decorated with the chrysanthemums.

During the buffet supper, Mrs. Geo. Howe, mother of the honor guest, poured the coffee. Favors for each guest were small umbrellas. The two small daughters of Mrs. Bob Harris presented the gifts to Miss Howe.

Royal Neighbors Elect Officers

Election of new officers was held at the regular meeting of the Royal Neighbor lodge last Wednesday evening. Belle Belloni was elected Oracle and Nellie Martindale, Vice Oracle. Others elected to office were Ida Sherrard, recorder; Agnes Schroeder, receiver; Ruby Johnson, marshal; Hattie Gaffey, inner sentinel; Pearl Kinsey, outer sentinel.

Agnes Lewis, ceremonial marshal, is to be installing officer at the meeting to be held Jan. 5. Assisting her will be Ann Hocamp. Following the business session and election of officers, an inviting supper was served by Agnes Lewis and Agnes Schroeder.

Church Rites Unite Couple

Yvonne Lee Kern Wed To Fred J. Marineau Of The U. S. Coast Guard Of Bandon

In the presence of more than 300 friends and relatives, Miss Yvonne Lee Kern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kern of this city, became the bride of Mr. Fred J. Marineau, the son of Mrs. Dora Goodwin of Portland, at a double ring, candle-light ceremony performed by George Alder, brother-in-law of the bride, at 8:00 p. m. last Saturday.

The wedding service was read against a background of huckleberry and fern and large baskets of white chrysanthemums and standards of white tapers.

Miss Kern was lovely in ivory satin with beaded yoke, fitted bodice, long sleeves, full skirt and long train. Her veil, loaned by Mrs. Harold Withnell, was very long and full with coronet of orange blossoms. She carried her maternal grandmother's lace wedding handkerchief.

Her wedding bouquet was of gardenias and bouvardia, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. George Alder, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Nadine Koehler, of Portland, maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jane Kramer, of Portland; Mrs. Elvera Kolkhorst, of Coos Bay; Mrs. Chester Price and Mrs. Bowden Bryan, of Coquille. They wore similar frocks in fall shades of plum, green and gold and carried contrasting bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Frances Ann Kern and Maryanne Culver, dainty in floor length dresses of blue and green taffeta and net, lighted the tapers.

The bride was given away by her father, Edward Marineau, of Portland, older brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were the following Coast Guard buddies from Bandon: Fred Lucksinger, Vernon Luster, Peter Steenland, Jack Turner, Sterling Wham and Edward Wham. Muriel Dae and Harold Withnell played the wedding music and Mrs. Liston Parrish sang, "Because."

Miss Kern is a graduate of Coquille High School and attended the University of Oregon. Mr. Marineau is a graduate of Portland schools and enlisted in the Coast Guard one and a half years ago. He has been stationed at Bandon. The young couple will make their home in the "Kern Beach Home" below Bandon.

Following the wedding service a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kern. Mrs. George Larson of Coos Bay, served the wedding cake and Mrs. Bob Harris and Mrs. Harold Withnell poured, at a table centered with white chrysanthemums and white tapers. Assisting in serving were Misses Jean Williams, Eunice Howe and Mrs. Allan Rhay. It was Jane Kramer who caught the bride's bouquet.

Out-of-town guests included the mother of the groom, Mrs. Goodwin, and his brother, Edward, Nadine Koehler, Jane Kramer, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Alder, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, of Eugene; Mrs. Lloyd Jarvis, of Myrtle Point; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kelsey, Mrs. George A. Larson, of Coos Bay, and Mrs. Ida McGeorge, of Reedsport.

For going away the bride wore a fuschia crepe dress, black wool coat and hat with white orchid corsage.

Betty V. Barklow And Wm. H. Spry United In Marriage

Miss Betty V. Barklow, of Arago, was united in marriage there last Sunday to P. F. C. William H. Spry, whose home is in St. John, Kansas, but who is stationed at Camp Adair near Corvallis. He returned to camp on Tuesday and Mrs. Spry will leave Friday to join him.

The bride is well known in this community, she having lived in the valley for 16 years, attending grade and high school at Arago. She was with the Coquille Hospital last year and has since been employed at the Smith Wood-Products plant. Her many friends are wishing her much happiness in extending congratulations.

Grange To Have Christmas Party

Patrons of Grange, No. 386, are reminded to attend the annual Christmas tree party to be held at the Grange hall, Friday evening, December 17. A potluck supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

You are requested to bring enough bread and butter sandwiches for your family and a covered dish. Please bring a gift for each of your children and your guests with their names on the packages. There will be the usual exchange of gifts among Grange members.

Florence Hallock, Lecturer, has arranged an interesting program for the entertainment part.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.

W. S. C. S. Met Last Thursday

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met last Thursday in the parlors of the Methodist church, Lena McCurdy, president, in the chair. The morning session was devoted to business when officers and chairmen of various committees made reports.

On motion it was decided to hold a meeting Thursday, Dec. 30, at the church for an executive council in the forenoon, potluck luncheon at noon and the study of a new book in the afternoon.

A potluck luncheon was served at noon by Mesdames J. L. Smith, S. T. Stevens, O. B. Harriman, Noble Chowning and G. E. Stark acting as hostesses.

At the afternoon session Mrs. Chas. Brown led the devotional service and Dorothy Harris had charge of the study program, assisted by Fern Peterson.

Attending during the several sessions were Mesdames Brown, Ellis, Way, Carllil, Minard, Laws, Harriman, McCurdy, Skeels, Helen Peterson, Richmond, Harris, Lundy Pearl, Fern Peterson, Kesner, Bosserman, Nosler, Rogers, Hultin, Esther Taylor, Savage, Nelson, Oddy, Zeigler, Stevens, Lundquist, Gillespie and two visitors, Mrs. Earl Avery and Mrs. J. E. Malone.

At the regular meeting the first Thursday in January, the 6th, the newly elected officers for the coming year will be installed.
