

Minor Mention

Mrs. and Mrs. V. R. Wilson and daughter, Miss Aileen, returned Tuesday evening from their California trip, on which they left Dec. 27. They visited their daughter and sister, Mrs. Eleanor Carver, and family at Sunnyvale, and then enjoyed a family reunion at Virgil Wilson's home in Palo Alto. Paul Wilson was up from Hollywood for the occasion. The local travelers saw lots of snow on the Siskiyou on the return trip.

Mrs. Chas. Oerding and son, Robert, returned Monday evening from Seattle, where they spent two weeks of the Christmas holiday season with Mr. Oerding.

Geo. Brooks, of the Used Furniture Store on Front street, returned Tuesday morning from Portland where he went to take his medical examination for Selective Service. He does not know yet whether he will be accepted or not.

Melvin Giles has been appointed as manager of the Coquille Safeway Store, succeeding Lin Swain, whose Selective Service call is expected to come very soon.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank E. Brown and baby daughter, of Cottage Grove, spent New Year's day with Mr. Brown's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Chas. G. Brown.

The meeting of the Past Noble Grands Club, scheduled for Friday evening this week, has been postponed, and no meeting will be held until further notice.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Horn left the last of the week for Los Angeles, where they have a home. Mr. Horn has been the head chemist at the Metal Reserves plant at Beaver Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hurbutt and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lewis were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Van Spores for New Years dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lancaster and Junior left Wednesday for Richmond, Calif., where they plan to spend some time with friends and relatives in the Bay area. Mr. Lancaster has been the superintendent of the Metal Reserves plant since it went into operation last May.

Private Dick Gregory, son of Mrs. Fairy Gregory, was here on a five day furlough from Camp Abbott at Bend.

Over the top in Italy! One more ridge, one more mile on the road to Berlin. As in victorious military campaigns, people on the home front must sacrifice to provide all the sinews of war. One of these is the regular purchase of War Bonds.

A sprig of green on the Mediterranean front; today it's camouflage for an American machine gun nest. To win quicker our soldiers must have munitions and materiel, more and more. To provide them all of us must buy more and more War Bonds.
